

SCROLLS FOR ALL NEEDS $784,000 BID TODAY Issue Will Fail Unless This Sum Is Subscribed by 3 o'clock

PAY RISE BLOCKS ISSUE

Though the board of city trusts bid for $100,000 worth of the $1,000,000 school loan today, there remains the sum of $784,000 to be raised by 3 o'clock this afternoon, of the loan falls.

Today's bids for bonds up until 11 o'clock had aggregated $115,400, including the large block requested by the board of city trusts.

LAWN FETE FOR CHURCH

A lawn fete will begin this evening at the Church of St. Francis de Sales, at Forty-seventh street and Baltimore avenue, at seven o'clock.

WILL MOTOR TO CALIFORNIA

Man and Wife With Six Children to Camp by Roadside Sidney E. Fuller, 2634 Mulfield street, his wife and six children will leave today for California by automobile.

WILL VIEW PIER SITES

An inspection of pier sites on the Delaware river from Market to Cherry street will be made this afternoon by Mayor Moore and Director Spruille.

ATLANTIC CITY HEROINE TAKES TO WATER LIKE DUCK

Saving Lives Not Even Exciting for Madeline Schendel, Who Comes in an Aquatic Family

160 "Movie" Casualties Ask for Compensation

Los Angeles, Sept. 15.—(By A. P.)—One hundred and sixty accident and injury claims were filed here today with the Workmen's State Industrial Commission by motion-picture actors and actresses who took part in a battle scene that was photographed last week.

CHARGES REGISTRARS ARE RUDE TO WOMEN

Mrs. Loeb Lodges Complaint With Mayor, Saying Conditions Are Objectionable.

Swirls of tobacco smoke in a polling place are bad enough when women go to register, according to Mrs. Rose G. Loeb, but when the registrars act as though women were unwelcome intruders, then something should be done at once.

FLOOD OF INCOME TAXES

$11,000,000 Paid Government Here for Third Quarter

Approximately $11,000,000 has been paid to the Government in income taxes for the third quarter, which ends today.

MUTE ATHLETES TO WED

Prospective Bride and Groom Both Played on School Teams

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

David H. Lovine, 3 N. navy, and Agnes McCloskey, 2511 Larchwood st. Moore P. Lester, 719 Pointmont st. and Lamatine Mann, 1903 Wood st. and Ella M. Gisher, 1841 E. Hart lane.

WOUNDED SOLDIERS SKETCH IN MAINE

J. Frank Copeland, an art teacher, took a class of wounded soldiers to the Maine coast for a summer's sketching and has just returned enthusiastic over the results achieved. The photograph shows the class working from a model on the coast at Boothbay Harbor.

FISTS IN COURT AS DEFENDING LAWYER FIGHTS PROSECUTOR

Hiram Hathaway, Representing Alleged Robbers "Mixes It" With W. J. McCarter

A lawyer and an assistant district attorney engaged in fistfights in the office of Magistrate Pugh. Prospect Park, following a heated argument.

VICTIMS OF WAR FOUND INSPIRATION IN SKETCHING

Art Teacher Enthusiastic Over Result of Vacation Class With Wounded in Maine

J. Frank Copeland, one of the teachers at the School of Industrial Art, 320 South Broad street, returned to Philadelphia today after a month's sketching trip at Boothbay Harbor, Me.

TO GREET K. C. DELEGATES

Supreme Knight Flaherty to Get Reception on Return From Europe

The Philadelphia Chapter of the Knights of Columbus is making arrangements for a great public demonstration by members of the order upon the arrival of Supreme Knight James A. Flaherty and the Philadelphia members of the order, who will return Monday from abroad.

"CRANKS" SISTER ESCAPES

State Police Lose Her Trail in Pittsburgh and Abandon Search There

Julia Pasquale, sister of "The Crank," arrested in the kidnaping of Blinky Coughlin and who, Pasquale, says, was given custody of the child, has disappeared completely, and hope of locating her and the missing baby in Pittsburgh or its suburbs has been virtually abandoned by the state police there.

Berthold Oppenheimer

Berthold Oppenheimer, for many years prominent in building and loan and Jewish fraternal societies, died yesterday at his home, 3830 North Smedley street. Heart trouble was the cause of death.

Mrs. Lucien Keith

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth J. Sharpless, a resident of a family socially prominent in Philadelphia. Mrs. Keith died suddenly early yesterday at Mur-ray bay, Canada. She and her husband, Lucien Keith, a lawyer and former mayor of Warrenton, Va., were traveling in Canada.

MARIANE H. WOOD TO ENTER CONVENT

Society Girl, Who Worked as Housemaid and Actress, Sails for Kingston

Miss Mariane H. Wood, daughter of Edward Randolph Wood, vice president of the Philadelphia Board of Trade, has sailed for Jamaica to study to become a Sister of Mercy in the Roman Catholic Church.

REGISTERS AND ENDS LIFE

Wife Finds Front Street Oyster Dealer a Suicide

After registering at the polls last night and appearing to be in the best of health, William F. Heim, sixty-five years, was found dead with a bullet hole in his temple at his home, 3012 North Nineteenth street, this morning.

WILL VOTE ON OPEN SHOP

Chamber of Commerce Taking Industrial Referendum

A referendum on the open-shop employment plan is being conducted among merchants and manufacturers of this city by the industrial relations committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

DROWNED WOMAN'S WILL FILED

Detroit, Sept. 15.—Coincident with the release in Washington of Roy H. Kuehling, who had been detained in connection with the drowning of his wife in the Potomac, Mrs. Kuehling's will was filed yesterday. The bulk of her share of a $1,000,000 estate was left in trust for her four-year-old son, John B. Barham Ogden. Three sisters residing here also received small bequests.

NAME NEW TEACHERS AT FRIENDS' SCHOOL

Institution Will Reopen Monday With an Augmented Staff of Instructors

Friends' Select School, the Parkway, Cherry and Sixteenth streets, opens next Monday.

CABUSO WASHWOMAN IN BAD

Tenor Pays Us a Visit and Inspects Washing Machines

The first thing Mrs. Enrico Caruso knows, she's going to have a washing machine to do up the little dresses and dollies and things that that fine new baby wears. Or, don't babies wear dollies?

DEATHS OF A DAY

PIONEER SUFFRAGIST DIES Mrs. Troup Had Notable Career as Women's Rights Champion

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 15.—Mrs. Augusta Lewis Troup, widow of Alexander Troup, the founder of the New Haven Union, died at her home here yesterday after an illness of several months.

DIAMOND BAR PINS

Plan and Elaborate Styles Super-Quality Original Designs Bailer Workmanship

"Strand"

The Fall Top Coat at $50

The "Strand" at $50 is an outstanding value among our many splendid offerings of this season. The fabric—a worsted knitted goods—was bought by us at an advantageous price, and we are passing it on to you at our usual moderate profit.

JACOB REED'S SONS 1424-1426 Chestnut Street

JUDGES WARNED BY DRY LEADERS

Anti-Saloon League Threatens to Impeach Those Who Coddle Bootleggers

MAKE PROHIBITION FARCE

By the Associated Press Washington, Sept. 15.—A committee was appointed today at the Anti-Saloon League conference here to draft a resolution warning federal judges that unless they "sacredly perform their sacred duties" in enforcing prohibition laws the league will seek their impeachment.

REV. DR. JAMES F. POWERS

Rev. Dr. James F. Powers, former pastor of the Church of the Advent in this city, and one of the most prominent Episcopal clergymen in the state, died yesterday at Pottsville, Pa. He was eighty-four years old.

Advertisement for Bailey Banks & Biddle Co. featuring diamond bar pins and the 'Strand' coat. Includes the text 'WE WILL NOT DESCEND TO FIREWORKS; WE WILL SAY JUST ONCE MORE A Choice but Limited Assortment of $60 and $65 GRADE Fall Suits at $35 That's Shouting!' and 'Here are Fall Suits of the regular $60 and $65 grades, marked for a brief interval, at only a trifle in excess of half their actual worth— Why interrupt when the merchandise is speaking! PERRY & CO. 16th and Chestnut Streets'.

Advertisement for Grieb & Thomas featuring a Buick car. Text: 'GRIEB & THOMAS DISTRIBUTORS OF MOTOR CARS AND TRUCKS BUICK OLDSMOBILE CADILLAC WISCONSIN 306 N. BROAD ST. Light Weight With Good Looks'.

Advertisement for National Bank of Commerce in Philadelphia. Text: 'Actual Business Experience A unique fact about the National Bank of Commerce is that the Managers—the men at the head—are men of actual experience in business. This, with a competent directorship, is an invaluable asset in the transaction of your daily business. We request you make use of it. National Bank of Commerce in Philadelphia 713 Chestnut Street Nathan T. Fohwall, President'.