Nancy Wynne Talks of Various Changes in Dates for Debutante Affairs—Miss Sewell and Miss Stevens Presented on October 4

HAVE you ever heard so many rumors of dates and changes in dates for debutante affairs as have been going on since the first of August? First, I heard that the Wynne affair was going to be in October, then it was to be in September, and now it is to be on September 27, and then the next thing came the invitations for the ten and the date, September 25, so now will you be surprised?

Then last year we heard that the Bob Sewell and the Conyngham Stevens would be given ties to introduce their daughters, He and Dorothy, respectively, on October 5. They had made that decision then, but since their return from the summer vacation they have decided to change their dates, and the two ties will be given over to the Wynnes. The date of the Wynne affair has been changed from October 5, but it has also been determined on October 5, but I have not heard yet whether they will change also. It was the plan in the spring to have the three girls come out the same day at their respective homes so that those invited to the teas might find it easier to go to three in one day.
