CHARLES B. MORAN is an umpire in the National League. He is a good, high-class arbiter and made quite a record in the short time he has been on John Heydler's payroll. He doesn't get into many jams on the ill field because the players know he is fair and honest, and anyway, if they don't like his rulings all of the arguments in the world cannot change them.

Moran has a pretty voice when working behind the plate, and those who witnessed the final game between the Phils and Cincin-harley is more mportant than that. He stands out as one of the most successful football coaches in the country, and CHARLES B. MORAN Danville, Ky. This is the same Moran who made such a record with Center College last year and hopes to repeat this coming season. He took virtually an unknown team, taught the players a couple of prayers and mopped up everything on the schedule. The eleven was the sensation of the year.

and played such good football that Harvard placed Center on its schedule, and the game will be played on October 23. When Moran's name was mentioned last year the dear old public wanted to know what it was all about. A stranger was pushed into the spotlight, and everybody was surprised. Moran never was heard of before and there was a rush on the part of the figger filberts to grab the story of his life and learn the exact location of Center College.

Introducing C. B. Moran, Football Coach CHARLEY MORAN is not a novice of the gridiron. He has been coaching football teams for twenty-two rears, which means he started when nineteen years of age.

That's starting pretty early, but in those days a coach wasn't hired unless he could play on the team. He was with Bethel College until the fall of 1901, when he took charge of the University of Nashville. The next three years were spent in Dallas, Texas, where he coached the Dallas A. C. In 1905 and 1906, Moran played with the Massillon Tigers, and was one of the speediest halfbacks in professional ranks. He was on the same team with Charley Rigler, his brother umpire. Rigler being a stalwart tackle.

He went to Grand Rapids in 1907, and in 1908 signed up with Texas A. and M. College. He had great success own there, and in 1914 went to Carlisle, where he was assistant coach and trainer.

Another pleasant thing for the Philadelphia fellowers to remember is the century run up by C. C. Morris, the hard-hitting Merion star, which is one of the few three figure counts ever scored by a local player off crack English bowling.

stuck around the old homestend at Horses Cave, Ky., for two years. In 1917, however, he made a trip to Danville to see his son, who was attending Center College. While there he helped coach the football team, and made such a hit that the authorities asked him to stay. The big game with the University of Kentucky was only two weeks off and Center wanted to win. The year before Kentucky walloped Center S6 to 0, and a score like that was considered humiliating.

Moran took charge of the team and won the big scrap by the score of 3 to 0. After that he was asked to stay there for the rest of his life, and business men formed a committee to call on him and beg him to stay. Charley lingered and hasn't lost a game. His teams have been the talk of the South, but not until last year did the whole nation learn of their prowess.

THAT'S have Maran got the job as coach of Center College. If he hadn't visited his son three years ago, Center might have been hiding yet.

Used Only Fourteen Players Last Year

66T AM purely an offensive coach." admitted Moran after I taking the witness stand. "This is because I never had enough men to hold daily scrimmages. Last year I had a varsity squad of eighteen and used only fourteen players during the season. None of the men were injured, which was very fortunate.

"Most of the time we do not know what kind of a team we are going to play; that is, we have no advance information. In cases like that we never scrimmage. However, if we learn the formations of our opponents we get the scrubs and teach them the plays to be used against the varsity. I do not believe in strenuous work. There is no need of tiring a team before the game. Let the men do their hard work on Saturdays.

66 LIKE Glenn Warner, I believe a good offense is the best defense.

Star Players Attend Center

COTHERE are some great players at Center. Bo McMil-I lan, all American quarterback last year, is one of the best I ever have seen, and Weaver, the center, also was Walter Camp's selection. Red Roberts, the fullback, is as good as any in the country, and the rest of the team stacks up well.

"I have been asked many times how it happened that so many good players happened to go to Center College. There have been a lot of rumors floating around, for nobody could understand why the star athletes didn't go to a larger school. But here is the answer, "During the war, Center was an S. A. T. These players have been but two years on the varsity. and therefore have two more years to play. Red Roberts also is a junior this year, and of last year's regular team I lost but three-Bell, an end; Van Antwerp, guard, and Biddle, balfback.

"The freshman class is unusually large and should produce several high-class players. Carlton Rice, of Scattle High School, was all-Pavitic scholastic center last year, and Stan Robb, brother of Penn State's quarterback last year, was a star guard at Kiski. George Chinn, of Harrodsburg, Ky; Jim Leggett, of Wilkin-burg, Pa.; Bartlett and Numelly are great backfield prospects, and Sam Newell and Lee Metiregor, of Fort Worth High School, are two good guards.

66 THE team has been practicing since September 2 7, at Camp Daniel Boone, near Danville under the direction of Bob Mences. I will take charge of the squad on October 4, after the baseball season clases. I expect a successful season.

IN 1916, at Minnikahda, Chick Evans became open champion, not only through fine golf, but by fine putting. That same year his putting at Merion was a big factor in his championship for my return.

The Davis Cup team had several examples of the failure to keep the ball in play when most needed. R. N.
