

those held up by his tactics, the man was forced to see-saw his big vehicle back and forth before he finally went forward, just grazing the highly polished mudguard of one of the big limousines parked on the cast side of the street. His case, however, was not an isolated one. One man, evident'y a business man, intent on getting to his office cubic feet of gas in a year, with gas at the earliest possible minute, ran costing the United Gas Improvement into one of the parked cars when he tried to make the turn at the first at-

Fortunately neither automobile was for one year figures out at $367.200 for maged badly, but several of those gas consumed. The waste is repre-arked were grazed by the bewildered sented by two-elevenths of this, or damaged badly, but several of those gas consumed. parked were grazed by the bewildered drivers trying to obey the loudly voiced command of the traffic patrolman to hurry with the turn and release the 366 763 63 held-up traffic.

Traffic Is Paralyzed

More than once during the morning the line of vehicles south of Chestnut street stretched solid to Walnut street and interfered with westward traffic there and northward from just south of Chestnut street to City Hall plaza, and virtually paralyzed the traffic on Chestnut street "hestnut street.

may work out all right when The may work out all right man. in broad "Of co-the patroiman said, "but it looks bad to me. I think the best way would be to restore the old left-hand turn into "in broad "Of co-count for "in priod Chestnut street or to make drivers wishing to go east on Chestnut street con-tinue south to Walnut street, to Six-cover. teenth street and then east on Chestbut street, gaining their objective by three right-hand turns.

The new system virtually abolishes Sansom street as an artery of traffic as the periodic paralysis south of Cheststreet on Broad badly interferes with any thought of cross traffic at Sansom street.

Makes Another Tangle

Makes Another Tangle The traffic patrolman stationed there as his job cut out for him trying to Makes Another Tangle evening and carly morning. is two hours a day." Mr. Bodine said that the question sistant, his job cut out for him trying to at Chestnut street. Many southbound motorists run west on South Penn Square to Fifteenth threet and then east on Chestnut. This chuves increased traffic and confusion on those narrow thoroughfares.

rule also takes the left-hand The rule also takes the left-hand would turn the gas on and off at set burn privilege from drivers going cast on hours, but the first cost would be too borth on Breat and planuing to go prohibitive for present conditions, and Chestnut street and planuing to go borth on Broad. Their alternative is first to turn south on Broad street, and then add to the south on Broad street. then add to the general confusion there by attempting to make the turn with uthbound vehic'es wishing to turn north again to go east on Chestnut

Notification of the change of traffic regulations is posed in the places where the left-hand turns were made on black signboards bearing the legend "no leftand turn."

At Arch street all southbound traffic going around City Hall will be diverted trance through the short cut leading to the northeast corner of Broad Street Sta-tion, and the left-hand turn from south-Front and Richmond Stretch, Four patrolmen of the Front and Master streets station, after waiting three hours outside of the saloon for ound to east on Arch will be stopped. aust cross Arch before turning into the northbound stream and then make the right turn into Arch right turn into Arch. unoccupied.

By changing the turns at these two points, clear streams of traffic will be brought about and there will be no turns to keep the pedestrians uncertain when making the crossings. possibility of crashes of vehicles also be lessened, Superintendent Mills bail for court on the charge of breaking

UNCLE SAM'S GIANT DIRIGIBLE

Of thi in each twenty-four. period they are needed only nine hours. The rest of the time being wasted while the lamp-lighters make their rounds. As there are 25,500 gas street lamp-in the city, each one burning 14.400 Co. $1 per thousand cubic feet, the total cost of lighting the city by gas

A. M. Bible, chief of the Bureau of Street Lighting, states that the "hu-man element"—the gas-lighter—is to blame for this wastage. Samuel T. Bodine, president of the United Gas Improvement Co., also expressed this appinion:

William H. Murphy, chief engineer pinion: of the bureau of fire, will probably hand his resignation effective November "The gas-lighter is affected by labor "The gas-lighter is affected by labor unrest just as any other workmun." Mr. Bible said today. "We have known men to quit without notice. "browing their torch and ladder into a vacant lot and vanishing. leaving the lights on their beat turned on fully in broad daylight. "Of course this does not entirely ac-count for the lights in various sections" in broad daylight. 'Of course this does not entirely ac-count for the lights in various sections 'urning while it is light. But lamp-'lighters do leave almost daily. They are a shifting force. Those that remain often have long and difficult routes to cover, which takes such a long time that 'ax is here before they have all the 'amps extinguished. in broad daylight. 'Unife furphy had resigned to become the fire-fighting forces at the financial houses. 'Chief Murphy has not yet tendered his resignation.'' said Director Cortel-viso. 'Chief Murphy has not yet tendered his resignation.'' said Director Cortel-viso. ''Chief Murphy has not yet tendered his resignation.'' said Director Cortel-viso. ''Chief Murphy has not yet tendered his resignation.'' said Director Cortel-viso. ''Nr. Pepper intimated that the proviso would be waived by the subscribers, and that an increase to the subscribers, and that an increase to the subscribers,

WILLIAM H. MURPHY

Know of No Remedy "Similarly in the evening, the man must start out early to light the lamos if he is to have every one on his route lit by nightfall. I would say that the lit by nightfall. I would say that the sum of the time during which the lights we will hold a conference, and he will urn needlessly bicause of this, in the no doubt then present his resignation

All solutions arise and the confusion arise arise and the solution of the solution arise a ervice to the city. "I never realized what a good disciplinarian he was until I saw the fire-men in action during the recent large up the res." said Director Cortelyou. Mr. Murphy has been eligible for a fires.

pension for more than a year. He was appointed chief of the bureau of fire in 1912 by Director of PPublic Safety Porter. He was promoted from the principalship of the city's fire college. the device also requires a pilot light to be kept burning all the time, which

It is reported unofficially that Wil-liam Barratt, who recentlyy resigned as a battalion chief to become identified Continued on Page Two, Column Five with a private fire-fighting organiza-tion may return to the bureau as its

"KID" THOMAS ARRESTED Former Pugilist Charged With Another rumor is to the effect that Ross B. Davis, deputy fire chief, will be moved up to the post of chief in the event that Chief Murphy leaves the Breaking Into Front St. Saloon Charles ("Kid") Thomas, former pugilist, was arrested at 5 o'clock this bureau.

morning charged with forcing an en-trance to Neil J. Duffy's saloon, at CONSTABLE SHOOTS GROCER Front and Richmond streets.

> Latter Hides in Store to Catch Robber, is Taken for Thief

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 18.-Stanley Zackewicz, Clark's Summit, grocer, hid in his store last night, expecting a second visit from burglars. Members of the town's vigilance committee, out to put a stop to a series of robneries, saw Zackewicz crouching behind a The ing today in Central Station and was counter and surrounded the place, while also held by Magistrate Carson under $5000 Constable Frank Gairens, with gun drawn, entered the store. Shots were fired. Then came moans from both men, and entering. Magistrate Carson on September 7 CLE SAM'S GIANT DIRIGIBLE Picture of the huge R-SS now near-apietics in Engind, in the Pictorial of asst sunday's Public Ledger-Adams street.

the board members favor a flat in-rease." Eight thousa the board members favor a flat in-rease." A flat increase, it is estimated, would ield about $200 to each teacher. School untorities hope to have $1,300,000 to use for pay increases. Three school properties will be sold it auction September 22. The Land litle and Trust Co. has agreed to ad-more for the board. The principal development that vir-tually assures higher pay for the teach-rs is the success of the citizens' com-mittee in persuading financial houses to take up the balance of the $1,000,000 to to take up the balance of the $1,000,000 to to take up the balance of the $1,000,000 to to take up the balance of the $1,000,000 to to take up the balance of the $1,000,000 to to take up the balance of the $1,000,000 to to take up the balance of the $1,000,000 to to take up the balance of the $1,000,000 to to take up the balance of the $1,000,000 to to take up the balance of the $1,000,000 to to take up the balance of the $1,000,000 to the teacher the teach-to take up the balance of the $1,000,000 to the teacher the teach-to take up the balance of the $1,000,000 to the teacher the teacher the teacher the teacher the the teacher the the teacher theacher the teacher the teacher teacher the teacher the teacher the teacher teacher the teacher the teacher teacher the teacher teacher the teacher the teacher teacher the teacher the teacher the teacher teacher the teacher the teacher teacher teacher the teacher the teacher teacher the teacher tea rants for his arrest and the arrest of three bartenders, Lawrence Whaller, Jake Conn and Simon Shapiro, will be issued. Shapiro lives near Second loan.

14

At the request of Mr. Grats, George be issued. At the request of Air. Grats, George Wharton Pepper, of the citizens' com-mittee, agreed to waive the proviso for a flat increase to teachers. Mr. Gratz wanted the proviso reand Walnut streets.

moved because he belleved the board should not be definitely committed to an increase in that form. This proviso had been made by the alcohol were confiscated.

"Although we have agreed to waive any conditions," said Mr. Pepper, "we are hoping that the board at its next meeting will take steps to divide the $700,000 planned to divert from the loan plus the money to be derived from the sale of their real estate in the form agents said the sale of their real estate in the form of a flat increase of approximately $200. Both Director Cortelyou and his asrepresenting an equal division of the sistant, Thomas Biddle Ellis, were warm in their praise of Chief Murphy's service to the city. "But one step yet remains to assure the success of the loan and that is to individual consent of each secure the financial institution subscribing to take remainder of the loan to abide

com-

PROWLER SHOT TWICE

the decision of the citizens'

mittee.

Victim of Watchman is Prisoner in Wide Wander, the agents said. In the same

Mt. Sinal Hospital place A man is in the Mt. Sinai Hospital in a serious condition after being shot twice by a watchman who saw him prowling about the roof of a foundry and other stuff.

night. The

Michael Banbarie, 1920 South Sec-

and street, the watchman, said he saw Scradi dodging from place to place over the roof and called him to halt. When the intruder began to run. Banbarie said he threatene dto shoot. Scradi, Banbarie said, continued to but two shots missing the target. Il) but two shots missing the target. The injured man was found crouching behind an abutment on the roof. Banbarie, after the shooting, sur-rendered to the police. He had a manual fitteen and system are also be able to be abl The injured man was found crouching rendered to the police. He had a hearing today before Magistrate Baker in the Third and Dickinson streets sta-tion and was permitted to sign his own bail bond to appear at a later hearing.

WINNING THE AMATPI'R GOLF TITLE Bulendid Dictures of Chick Evans's vic-torious match on the Engineers' course at Resiyn. L. L. in arxi Funday's Pictorial Section of the Public Ledger, Adv.

prevented him attending one of the sessions of the convention.

Declares Meddling Abroad Return Cent to Victims After Searching Them at Oak Lane Tends to Array Americans

and Lawnton Avenues

TWO SUSPECTS ARE CAUGHT ASKS DEVOTION TO NATION Doctor Johnson personally conducted the assault against the Shamrock Yach Club. He says the caretaker was in bed at the time the agents began knock-ing, but got up, poured whisky into the sink, and then calmly returned to bed and made the agents break in. No then gave one victim a cent and told them to "beat it."

liquor was found. The storage plant of Charles Wito-mski was raided and eight cases of moonshine whisky found under the floor. Other beverages said to contain more than one-half of one per cent of In a shoe store conducted by the same about midnight. Mr. Graffy and his guest were re-turning to the Graffy home when an man, which also was raided, nothing incriminating was found, although the agents said sales were made there. Witomski's bottling establishment also was raided. W. W. Sherman, proprietor of the

Pastor Raids Club

As Mr. Graffy and Mr. Trotter ap-proached the three men blocked the side-Tinicum Inn, met the raiders and con-ducted them through his place. Five walk. Then it was seen that they Mr. Trotter and Mr. masks. bottles of whisky were found in a small room behind the bar. A five-gallon demijohn of the same stuff was found carefully wrnpped in blankets and hidden under his bed. up their hands.

Guns Back Up Orders

State Trooper Found A state trooper was found sleeping In one room. At first he refused to open the door, but later complied with the demands. No whisky was found in the room. He said his name was forward and quickly searched the pedes-/ Europe and the storm threatened our Strange. A "mooushine" still made of two the raiders confiscated twelve quart bottles of "moonshine," twenty-four half-pint bottles of the same fluid

The soft-drink establishment of Vin-night. The injured man is Ernest Scradi, thirty-four years old, 107 Pierce street. He was shot in the hand and the stom-arch. His condition is not serious. Po-lice guard his bedside. Low action of the stom-lice guard his bedside. Low a ones arrested today. They were sent to Philadelphia on the truck with the confiscated goods. Their cases may come before United States Commis-tion before United States Commiscommented goods. Their cases may come before United States Commis-sioner Manley today.

come before United States sioner Manley today. Essington, according to the complaint of the Westinghouse Co., which was borne out by investigation, was the harbor of many of the thirsty, espe-cially on Saturdays and Sundays. Respectable persons, it was said, Respectable persons, it was said, the thirsty condi-tange their homes on those and is streets station. He gave a description girls of the men to McGuckia, a district de-old tective, and Sergeant Cummiskey. At Clearfield and Emerald streets the around fifteen and sixteen years old seemed to predominate. Many of them went from Philadelphia. THE POPE AND THE K. OF C. exclusive photograph of his holinesse he Vatican gardens surrounded by the ring American delegates from the wing of Columburg half a page in next

Knichts Sunday's Pictorial

Four masked and armed automobile bandits held up and robbed two men of money and valuables worth $420.

The men robbed are Milton Grafly, 6603 North Tenth street, Oak lane, and W. A. Trotter, of Washing-ton, his guest. The holdup occurred at Oak Lane and Lawnton avenues automobile containing four men stopped by the pavement just ahead of them. Three of the riders alighted.

Graffy were about to turn aside when the lead er of the band ordered them to throw

The order was enforced by revolvers held by the three bandits. The victims complied, and one of the robbers stepped

From Mr. Grafiy they got a pin ued at $100 and a watch and chain val-wed at $175. From Mr. Trotter the bandits took $145 in cash. Then the man who searched the victims gave Mr. the American spirit: we had not in-sisted upon full and unalterable con-Trotter a penny and the leader issued the command to "beat it." secration to our own country-our country by birth or adoption. As the Oak Lane man and his guest turned away the bandits jumped back into the machine and the driver put on full speed and sped away.

Charge it to American neglect. Water and Mifflin strets during the cenzo de Lancenzin was raided, but tured early today a half-hour after they had robbed Stephen Lowaczyk, a proclaimed our liberty, but did not emphasize the essentials to its preservation.

we did not magnify the one great spirit essential to perfect national life. "I speak for the fullest American devotion; not in putting aside all the tenderer and dearer attributes of the human neart, but in the consecrations of citizenship. We are unalterably against any present or future hyphen-ated Americanism. We have put an

"I want America on guard against that course which naturally tends to police arrested two men who said they are John Leahy, thirty years old, Salarray Americans against each do not know whether or not Washing mon street near Indiana avenue, and Patrick Joyce, twenty-eight years old, ton foresaw this menace when he warned us against entangling alliance and meddling abroad, but I see it, and I say to you that all America must Ann street near Richm The printer was positive in his identification of the men as the highwaymen. Conti able all our knowledge of the gang who committed the outrages last year. Most of this information has never been made public, and it would not be wise to re-"We even established the identity of one anarchist who was killed by his own bomb in last year's explosion with much less evidence than we have in the much less evidence than we have in the present case. "Torn bits of pink paper were the only evidence we had last year. Now we have whole circulars dropped into a mail box, presumably by the man who set off the bomb, half an hour after a letter-carrier had emptied the box. In addition, there are the horse and the broken bits of the wagon on which the bomb was placed." which the bomb was placed. Flynn, who yesterday declined to erpand his cryptic announcement that the driver of the "death wagon" was By the Associated Press Marion, O., Sept. 18.-Warning against the dangers of A hyphenated citizenship, Senator Harding told a citizenship, Senator Harding told a gathering of foreign-born Americans Dragnet Over Country

Against Each Other

new determination.

"I do not blame the foreign-born.

We boasted our nationality, end to prefixes. The way to unite and blend foreign blood in the life stream of America is to put an end to groups, an end to classes, an end to special ap-neal to any of them. an end to par-ticular favor for any of them.

Warns Against Meddling

d on Page Two, Column Five

gathering of foreign-born Americans here today that he believed the United States must avoid meddling in the affairs of other nations if all classes of American citizens are to be united in loyalty to the government. The Republican nominee declared he did not blame the foreign born for con-flicting sympathies during the world war, and asserted that the fault be-longed to the nation itself. The task of thoroughly Americanizing those of thoroughly Americanizing those foreign extraction, he said, had been service men and private citizens are service men and private citizens are leading their efforts to federal agents lending their efforts to federal agents

"Let us all oray that America shall never become divided into classes and shall never feel the menace of hyphen-ated citizenship." said Senator Hard-ing. "Very little could be done to trace the authors of the radical literature or to ascertain whether a general radical movement was contemplated until the persons can be found whe are respon-sible for Thursday's disaster Chief in ferreting out clues. Very little could be done to trace the

We

otser. I

sible for Thursday's disaster "When the war clouds darkened Flynn said. Those who distributed the literature, he said, "were careful not to send it through the mails and were evi-dently afraid to pass it out about the own country we found America torn with conflicting sympathles and prej-ndices. They were not unnatural; indeed they were, in many cases, very excusable because we had not promoted excusable because we had not promoted streets, so they concluded to stuff it into mail boxes and disappear before the explosion occurred.

Driver of Wagon Sought Primary importance in today's search was attached to finding the driver of crater of the terrific detonation, the dilapidated red wagon, the frag-ments of which were found nearest the Officials believe apprehension of the authors of the tragedy virtually hinges on the discovery. Colonel William Mead, chief clerk for J. P. Morgan & Co., whose offices suffered a large share of the property damage. declared the farrier who shod the horse that drew the death wagon had been found and that he was reasonably sure of the drew the death wagon had been found and that he was reasonably sure of the owner's identity. Peculiar markings on the dead horse's shoes, it was said, aided in tracing the blacksmith, who thought he could remember who brought the animal to him to be shod.

the animal to him to be shed. Department of Justice officials today had neither confirmed nor denied this report, but Attorney General Palmee said an attempt was being made to trace the arimal's owner. He con-sidered his discovery of paramount im-

Department of Justice officials said

Continued on Page Two. Column One

today they have not questioned Mead

GOLY FANS. ATTENTIONI Philadelphia's Beautiful Courses able paradise for lovers of the ald Boot rame, will be fully illustrated in Pictorial Section of the Pacific Lodgers area set pest Bundar-4400 ortance.

Officials believe apprehension of the