NEW FALL STYLES ON GAY WOOD WAY

Fashion Display of Atlantic City Strollers Shows Milady Has Returned to Furbelows

MANNISH LINES ESCHEWED

Atlantic City, Sept. 20. - Little Misses Blue Serge and Taffeta, with their equally fascinating sisters, the Grays, the Browns, the Tweeds and the Homespuns held high carnival in an admiration compelling exposition of autumnal modes on the Boardwalk yesantumnal modes on the Boardwalk yesterday. It was a made-to-order morning for a fashion show, and all the smart young matrons, the flappers in almost matronly garb and the youngish-looking grandmothers, in high heels and furbelows which the flappers might have worn, made the best of it.

Under a golden sky they marched for hours in a spectacle which convinced the most skeptical male that the nineteenth amendment has not affected to the lment has not affected to the ightest extent the essential femininity the styles for the fall and winter of $20. Some of the keenest of the obnervers went so far as to say that there is even a supersupremacy for the feminist note as opposed to anything masculine in the dainty fouches upon frocks and costumes.

Certain it is, or at least many found so, that milady is going in strongly furbelows, with emphasis upon it so, that milady is going in strongly for furbelows, with emphasis upon tucks and buttons, no end of braiding, fancy touches here and there, lacy wells, brightly hued scarfs, striped stockings, fringe and such frills in contradistinction to mannishly severe tailored effects, spats and the like. And the hats! No mere man ever cound on justice to the rakish millinery styles justice to the rakish millinery styles expressed in turned-up and turned-down brims adorned with braid and feathers than the Boardwalk has in many a day It is less certain than a fortnight ago that a small hat season impends, for many of the most impeccable of the Philadelphia matrons in the initial fall seview rejoiced in tailored creations that were neither large nor small, but a most admirable mean.

Most of the new walking costumes that the fire department had learned, by checking up all stores of explosives lawfully held in the city.

Most of the new walking costumes that there was a distinct shortage in on view yesterday had the low waist, one of the explosive magazines. Fire trim lines, conservative sleeves and department officials gave no hint as straight skirts that were neither long to the location of the reported shortage, nor short as measured by Parisian but claimed this new clue might have a world of description of the more of the supposed plotters of the discovery of the supposed plotters of the discovery term "frilly."

A decidedly spectacular turn was given the matinee review by a tare-well parade of the fezzed Shriner holiday makers of Mecca Temple, New York, marching with their resplendent Arabian guard behind an all-Shriner band of 100 musicians, a hint of what may be expected upon a vastly greater scale next June, when the Imperial Shrine camps here for a week. The Man-

Fischer stuck to his statement that "it was a premonition" that warned him in advance of the Wall street explosion adding:

"More will happen in the future. Un seen powers have communicated that through me."

The detectives who brought him here from Hamilton explained that Fischer invariably had made the same assertions reply to their questions throughout e trip, adding that he was a 'friend of the under dog.

Grand Jury Probes Blast

The regular September grand jury, before which twenty-two witnesses were to appear today in connection with the investigation of the Wall street ex-plosion, will not question either Fischer or Brailovsky unless federal or local police examination of the two men makes such action necessary, according to a statement today from the office of Acting District Attorney Alfred J.

Telley.

The jury will confine its efforts for the present at least to developing the two lines of investigation suggested by Judge William H. Wadhams in his charge. These were: First, whether the explosion was the result of a plot or whether it was due to criminal negligence.

Included among today's witnesses are several persons who are said to have viewed the explosion at short range and examination of them will be conducted along lines intended to shed all possible light on the identity of the death wagon or its driver.

Dunham Beden, of South Orange, N.

J., owner of an automobile which was wrecked as it stood near the corner of Wall and Broad streets at the time of the explosion, was among the witnesses summoned to appear. William H. Douglas, a broker, is foreman of the
