McCRACKEN BACK; VISITS U. P. CAMPUS

Medical Officer at Shanghai, Former Football Star, Re-news Old Friendships

Dr. Joseph McCracken, one of the most popular "old-timers" among the University of Pennsylvania graduates and best known of all Red and Blue football stars, is back on the campus again after fourteen years of missionary work in China. Old Penn is one of the first spots on the map that "Mac" looks upon when he gets back on this side of the world and he put in a fast morning shaking hands with old friends on the faculty, meeting this year's football players and making himself at home once more.

Doctor McCracken, who spends his time as a medical missionary with St. John's Medical College, in Shanghai, China, has two or three calls on his native land during the past fourteen years, one in 1913 and again in 1910. Today he was surprised and delighted with the growth of the past few years and intensely interested in its academic and athletic future.

He is in condition and looks so much like the "Mac" of old days that several members of the faculty and one or two fellow grads rushed up to him and began pounding his broad back and shaking hands before he realized what was going forward. The old campus news and a more welcome visitor.

"Mac" graduated from the Medical School in 1901, with a college record that is hard to tie. He did four years straight as president of his class, was captain of the track team in '09, and played four years on the football and track teams. In his off time he filled in studying medicine, at which he made fine showing.

He will remain in this country until next spring and will stick around that well loved old lady, Alma Mater, a good while longer. He will be no longer as long ago when he was an All-American linebacker and his name was the trademark for Penn football. He will be following Penn football as keenly as the boys out for the Red and Blue team, which is greatly in need of extra candidates. He is looking forward to following Penn's football schedule through the coming fall and cheering the Red and Blue on to victory.

"American sports are gaining a firm hold in China," Doctor McCracken said, "and they are gaining in popularity. Soccer seems best adapted to the Chinese sporting temperament.

"American enterprise in general is progressing in an interesting way," he continued, "three American banks have been established in the last two years. The depreciation of silver has lessened Chinese exports, and increased Chinese buying in this country.

"The way in which Japan is getting hold of Chinese natural resources is criminal," he declared, "and the Japs are continually subsidizing the pro-Japanese party in the corrupt Chinese political turmoil. Conditions will undoubtedly improve in the near future in spite of all this, I am confident."

Heydler Here, but Makes No Statement

John A. Heydler, president of the National League, attended the ball game between the Phillies and Cardinals yesterday. The object of Mr. Heydler's visit was an investigation of the alleged gambling "frame-up" in the contest which the Philadelphia team won at Chicago on August 30 by a 3-to-1 score.

The league president questioned the local players as to any knowledge they might have of the charges. He would make no statement.

MISS HUFF BOWS TO MISS THAYER

Tennis Champion Advances to Fourth Round of Women's Title Play

By SPICK HALL. Miss Molly D. Thayer, of the Philadelphia Cricket Club, present titleholder, today eliminated Mrs. M. B. Huff, Jr., in the third round of the women's tennis tourney for the championship of Philadelphia.

Miss Thayer advanced to the fourth round by defeating her opponent in straight sets 11-0, 6-3. Last year Miss Thayer won the crown by defeating Mrs. Huff in the final round.

The champion was given a hard battle in the first set. She had set point eight times before she finally won out. In the tenth game she had two chances to win, but Mrs. Huff came up and spoiled her opportunities.

Miss Thayer's service was very fast, but her rival was there most of the time to receive it. It was the superior net play of Miss Thayer that gave her the match.

GRAND JURY TO PROBE BASEBALL

Presidents Johnson and Heydler Among Those Summoned at Chicago

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Grand jury investigation of alleged gambling by baseball players in last year's world's series and in the game between the Chicago and Philadelphia National League clubs August 31, will start Wednesday with a "recess" of baseball officials, players and writers subpoenaed to testify.

Subpoenas were issued for the following persons to appear before the grand jury: Byron Bancroft Johnson, president of the American League; John A. Heydler, president of the National League; William (Kid) Gleason, manager of the Chicago American League Club; Charles A. Conisley, president of the Chicago American League Club; William L. Veck, president of the Chicago National League Club; Jacob ("Tub") Benton, pitcher for the New York National League Club; Bert E. Collyer and Frank O. Kline, both of Chicago, and well-known sports writers.

Harvey Woodruff, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, Sam Hill, sports editor of the Chicago Herald-Examiner; I. E. Sanborn and Oscar Reichenow, baseball writers for the Chicago Tribune and the Chicago Daily News, respectively.

Subpoenas for additional players probably will be issued before the investigation begins, said R. A. Replogle, who is working as prosecutor under direct orders from Chief Justice Charles A. McDonald, of the Criminal Court. He declared that Hal Chase, Leo Masse and Heinie Zimmerman, all former major league players, probably would be called.

When asked why Benton was the only player called, Mr. Replogle said he "believed Benton had information the grand jury needed," and that Benton would be asked "to tell what a certain player asked him to do."

The filly won this race, was the fastest three-year-old of the year for two-year-olds. Her mile in 2:06 1/2, also lowered the season's mark for this age, held until yesterday by Bogalusa at 2:08.

Nelson Dillon won the first heat of this race, but was not awarded the trophy entry in the remaining miles. Because of the illness of Mr. Murphy, Harry Fleming was behind Rose Scott in her record performance.

American Has Better of Seven Out of Eight Rounds at Reopening of the Olympia Club—Body Attack Makes Frenchman Wince

IT WASN'T so sensational a bout as roughness, and Kid Wolf, 114, made an impressive showing in outclassing Pete Paskos, 113.

Bobby Calhoun "came back" as official announcer and his introductory speech for Referee Brennan brought lots of applause, to which "Slim" bowed gracefully, bashfully and blushing.

Twenty-Rounder on Tonight Up in West Manayunk this evening the scheduled twenty-round bout between Eddie McAndrews and Frank Loughrey is to be put on at Carnival Field. Fans in the Manayunk district have been waiting for months to see this scrap of a score of sessions, ever since Loughrey pleaded for a return tilt after McAndrews had trimmed him there in fifteen rounds. This bout has been causing a lot of interest, and the arena no doubt will be jammed to capacity.

Besides the McAndrews-Loughrey twenty-rounder and three other numbers—Marty Kane vs. Barney Kelly, eight rounds; Mike Howell vs. Eddie Dougherty, six rounds; and Anthony Schroll vs. Joe Marto, four rounds—there will be several other added attractions. Flaherty's Band will be there to play between rounds and between bouts, and Battling Nelson, one-time lightweight champion, is to put on an exhibition with which he says he will prove tough game for all of America's leading bantams.

Half a score of colored boxers will appear on a program arranged by Budde Palmer for Thursday night at Madison Park. In the star bout Johnny Griffith will meet Preston Brown. In addition to a battle royal, other numbers will be Silent Puryear vs. Bud Anderson, Duke Avery vs. Johnny Morton, Harry Smith vs. Kid Butler and Young Sam Langford vs. Johnny Hayes.

Jimmy Dougherty, of Grays Ferry, has a pair of fifteen readied up for competition. They are Joe O'Keefe, 125-pounder, who has scored three knockouts in his last four bouts, and Johnny Steiner, 135-pounder.

Kid Lewis, 150-pounder and sparring partner of Knockout Loughlin, will appear in the wind-up at Atlantic City Thursday night against Sam Robinson, eight rounds. Other bouts at the show are: Jimmy Myson vs. Bobby Kular; Jimmy Scanlon vs. Kid Potbury and Matty Dechter vs. Kid Rea.

Battling Murray will appear in the star bout at the Cambria Friday night. His opponent will be Little Bear. Other bouts: Eddie Harvey vs. Jimmy Lavender; Buddy Dalley vs. Joe Sharkey; Jack Caponi vs. Mike Brennan and Tommy Conroy vs. Joe Spencer.

There is a letter in the sports department of the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER for Law Goodman.

Soccer Notes

Hosack looks like a good find for the Diablos team and should be one of its best goal producers.

Jimmy and Bart McChes, who are signed up with Wilfenden-Shore for this season, announced that they did not know the ruling of the National League which will prevent them from playing with the Hibernians in National League matches.

Lefty Nolan will not join the Cardington team until the latter part of October, as he has a contract with Nativity to finish out the baseball season.

Willie Kirkpatrick has not lost any of his trick plays and will make a big help with the sawmakers this season. Willie got a big reception from his former teammates, the Bethlehem eleven, on Sunday.

Manager Huff will make several changes in the line-up for his next game, which means that several players who sat on the bench Sunday may yet sport the Diablos shirt.

President John Farrell announces that sixty-three teams have already signed to play in the All-Ohio League, which had a split in six divisions due to the big entry.

Wolfenden-Shore will play Paterson next Sunday in an exhibition game at the Cardington field, on Sunday.

Jimmy Wilson cannot join the Taunton team until he finishes with his baseball contract.
