

PENN FOOTBALL PRACTICE. Joe Strauss making a flying tackle on Franklin Field yesterday afternoon as Biben tries to block him. Ledger Photo Service

HUNDRED PER CENT AMERICAN PASSENGER SHIP SAILS. The first voyage of the Panhandle State, of the United States Mail Steamship Co., but owned by the U. S. shipping board. She is to stop at English and French ports. The American flag and shield grace the ship. Underwood & Underwood

LATEST PARISIAN CHAPEAU. Miss Helen Akeroyd, of this city, returns on the S. S. Aquitania wearing this velvet helmet with chin bands. Wide World Photo

PHILADELPHIANS WINNING. The final of the double sculls won by Kelly and Costello, of the Vesper Boat Club, in the Olympic events. A huge reception is arranged for their return. Western Newspaper Union

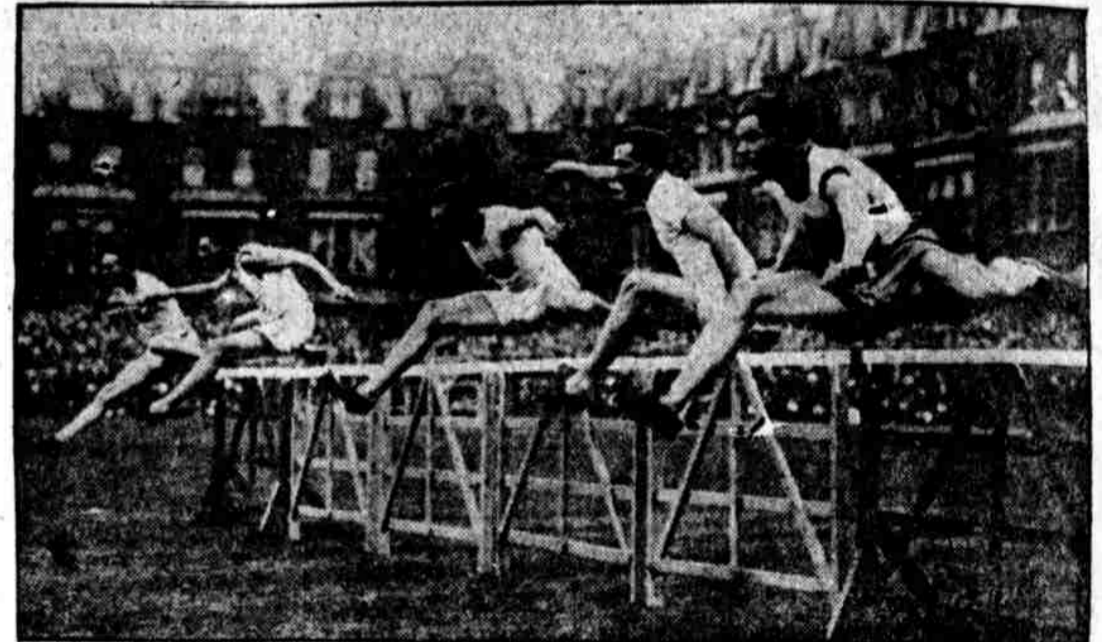

PUNTING AND BLOCKING. Coach Heisman sent his men through a terrific drill of punting and blocking yesterday afternoon. J. Miller has just kicked the ball, while Whitehill and Crawford are following the blocking instructions. Ledger Photo Service

KILLED IN NEW YORK EXPLOSION. Colonel Charles A. Neville, Quartermaster Corps, U. S. A., of Savannah, Ga., among those killed by the Wall street bomb. Underwood & Underwood

TO HELP IN HOSPITAL FETE. The Misses Theresa and Betty McCabe, who will assist in the lawn fete at the St. Agnes Hospital this week. Hospital Photo

OLYMPIC ATHLETES IN LONDON. Many athletes from Canada and America compete in several events in London. In the photograph, Earl Thomson, of Dartmouth, at the extreme right, won this event. Western Newspaper Union

FIGHT FOR WOMEN'S TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP OF PHILADELPHIA. The matches opened yesterday at the Germantown Cricket Club, Manheim. Among the contestants are Miss Helen Sewell, Miss Edwanda Gamble, of the Baltimore Country Club, and Miss Phyllis Walsh (left to right). Ledger Photo Service

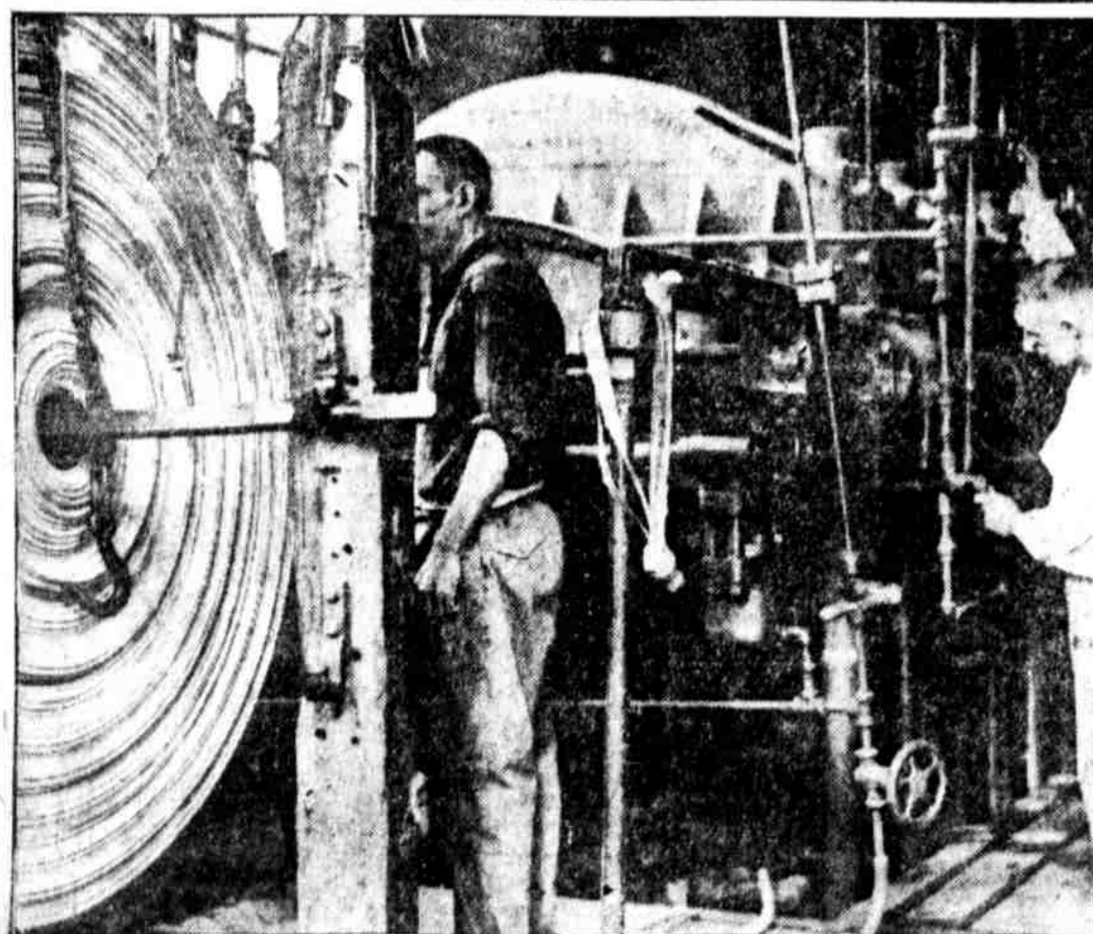

LIKES HORSESHOES. Senator Warren G. Harding is an enthusiastic quoit player. He prefers the horseshoes rather than official quoits. Underwood & Underwood

WAITING FOR THE FORD. Mrs. William Dick, who was formerly Mrs. John Jacob Astor, at Westbury, L. I. Central News Photo

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

BELT PRESS. This machine vulcanizes the belt, which is the finishing touch in the manufacture of rubber belting, at the Quaker City Rubber Co., Wissinoming. Long rolls of cotton duck have previously been impregnated with rubber and built up of several thicknesses. Nicholas Canning, 2032 Bridge street, and Philip Gaul, 619 Tioga street, see that the proper temperature and pressure are maintained. Ledger Photo Service

WINNER OF CURTIS PENTATHLON. Dewey Hoffman showed that he was the best all-around athlete of the Curtis Country Club at the meet on Sunday. Ledger Photo Service

AT QUEENS CLUB, LONDON. Hamilton, of the U. S. A. Olympic team, won the javelin-throwing event. Western Newspaper Union

LEOPOLD STOKOWSKI, conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra, discusses an open-minded audience in an interview on the editorial page. Ledger Photo Service

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS MILDRED SIMPSON, 6021 Haverford avenue, Philadelphia. Ledger Photo Service