

THE FIFTH SON OF THE EX-KAISER. Prince Oscar is the only one of the sons that still wears a uniform. He has long been considered a champion rider. Keystone View Co.

FINISH OF BACK-HAND STROKE. Miss Catherine Porter going fast in one of the Philadelphia championship games at Manheim yesterday. Ledger Photo Service.

PLAYING THE NET. In the doubles at Manheim yesterday afternoon Miss Gertrude Ehret was snapped as her partner served. Ledger Photo Service.

FOUR OF THE YOUNGER PLAYERS. They chatted and knitted as the matches of yesterday proceeded. Left to right, the Misses Evelyn Martin, Sara Richardson, Mary Geary and Georgianna Harris. Ledger Photo Service.

ACTING LORD MAYOR OF CORK. Donald O'Gallachain, acting in place of Terence MacSwiney, who is on a hunger strike in Brixton jail. He is signing a protest against the mayor's imprisonment. Kadol & Herbert.

RUSSIAN OFFICIALS. Medvedeff, chief of the present Russian government in Vladivostok (right). At the left is Bognaoff, the minister of education. The Japanese now have this part of Russia under military control. Keystone View Co.

FIRST COAST-TO-COAST AIR MAIL. Mail being taken from the U. S. mail plane No. 151, which was piloted by E. E. Mouten, in San Francisco at the end of the first successful trans-continental air mail flight. Keystone View Co.

ASTRONOMER DIES. Dr. Eric Doolittle, professor of astronomy and head of the Flower Observatory at the University of Pennsylvania, died yesterday. The professor is shown at one of his powerful telescopes. Ledger Photo Service.

MISS ELEANOR SEARS, the well-known society girl of Boston, at the Massachusetts State Fair. She is riding Radiant, which won over Walter H. Hanley's Driftwood Blaze. Keystone View Co.

GEORGE S. RICE, chief mining engineer of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, has been investigating the bomb explosion in Wall street. Harris & Irving.

PICKS UP WIRELESS MESSAGES WHILE CYCLING. Jack Baker, son of the secretary of war, has fitted an apparatus to his bicycle. Underwood & Underwood.

BATTLE MANEUVERS. Men who did their bit in France demonstrated a lot of tank movements at Camp Meade, for the benefit of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Carl T. Thayer.

TEACHING A FEW TRICKS. Coaches Shipley and Hancock of Delaware State College showing Magaw, an end candidate, a few of the latest movements in football. Ledger Photo Service.

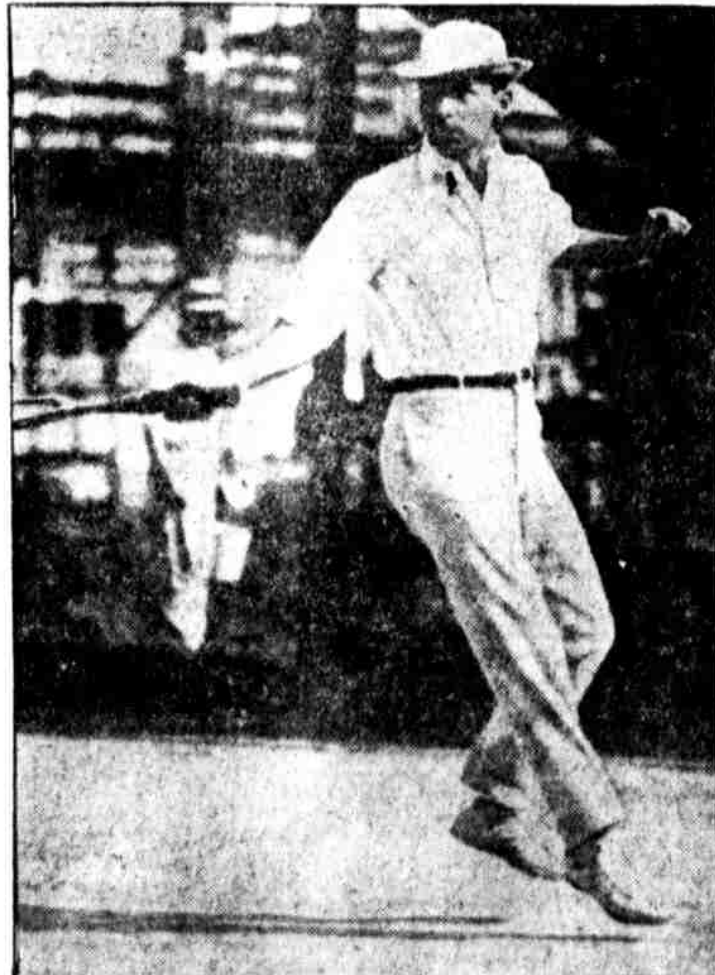

A DELAWARE STATE STAR. Donaldson, who for several seasons starred as a center for the Wilmington High School, will play in that position at Delaware State College. Ledger Photo Service.

"MAKE IT SNAPPY!" Coach Heisman of the Penn football team snapped as he was busy with the megaphone on Franklin Field. Ledger Photo Service.

WEAVING TOWELS. Miss Martha Danneker, 5706 Erdrick street, Wissinoming, operating a machine at the American Silk Manufacturing Co., 4341 Orchard street, that weaves towels such as are used for machinery wiping. This machine has a capacity of 300,000 yearly. Ledger Photo Service.

CHURCH TENNIS STAR. Dr. N. B. Hammond, of the Bethany Presbyterian Tennis Club, Fifty-fourth and Spruce streets, plays a snappy game. Ledger Photo Service.

PENN GETS STAR ATHLETE. Sydney Needs, pole vaulter and high jumper, who has starred for the Meadowbrook Club. Ledger Photo Service.

HOME FROM EUROPE. S. E. Guggenheim and his daughter, Barbara, as they appeared on board the Aquitania, after spending several months in Europe. Central News Photo.

THE BEAUTY CORNER. MISS MARGARET DOUGHERTY, 8119 Almond street, Philadelphia. Ledger Photo Service.