PHILS PLAY CRUEL JOKE ON CARDS; LOSE THREE IN ROW, AND ST. LOOIE LEAVES FEELING LIKE CHAMPIONS

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL

HANK FORD, the machinist, who is responsible for Congested traffic conditions on our streets, made an announcement the other day. He cut the price of his Meneries and Lizzies 31 per cent, and admitted he didn't care whether the public liked it or not.

Now a reduction of 31 per cent is pretty big, but not at all original. The Phils made a bigger reduction in their wining column some time ago, and the percentage is more than 31. Therefore Hank and the Phils are comons. Neither cares for much profit. Especially the Losses are their long suit. Yesterday made the enth straight in as many games, which is a very good record. It averages .000 per cent.

St. Looie Sorry to Leave Town

ST. LOOIE was here yesterday. Also two other days. For that one and only reason, the ball club wished on that city won three games. Sometimes it was easy and at other times more so. The Cards would have won the pennant had they played the Phils all season.

However, Philadelphia has been kind to pennant as pirants. As soon as a ball club fell in a slump it would come here and get out of it. And the town is versatile, Helps in the American League as well as the National. Too bad we are not represented in the International League. Syracuse hasn't won a game for a month,

Boston Here for Kind Treatment

LL we can do now is help the Boston Braves to re-A main in seventh place. They are here today for a series of five games to be played in three days. The Braves wish it was fifteen. The world is looking brighter and the birds are singing sweeter since they arrived in town. After the five game set the visiting players will be asking each other where Brooklyn gets that championship stuff.

Next week we will do some more pouring. The A's will entertain the Yankees and the Yankees will entertain the crowd. Nothing could be fairer than that. The boys from New York have been in a slump, and in order to make things nice and give them pleasant recollections for the coming winter they were allowed to play their last three games of the season here.

Some Dope on the Home Folks

CONNIE MACK has developed twelve championship teams. Six won pennants and the other half dozen copped the shee polish. They were shining at the head and now are shining at the foot.

The Phils successfully defended eighth place two years. They got into the habit last season and cannot be cared. The ailment has made a hit with the other seven clubs. As long as the Phils stick in the cellar there's no chance for them to get there.

BUT that's neither here nor there. The Phils proved they were eighth placers yesterday. Charley Moran. who coaches Center College football teams every time he gets a chance, started the game. He did it because he there for that purpose. And believe us, he started ROMETHING.

pened since Cy was a sophomore at Notre Dame.

OUD cheers from the mob when Casey Stengel hit a Li safe one. This was such a surprise that Casey didn't know whether to run to first or third. He compromised on first and stayed there.

MORE scoring for St. Looie in the third. Cecil Algernon Causey couldn't keep the ball away from the Card bats. Jacques Fournier doubled off Stengel's digits. Rajah Hornsby socked the tvy for a pair. Lavan singled, and all of this caused two runs.

CAUSEY beat out a hit in the third. This boosts his average thirty points. Soon he will be able to hit as icell as Meadows.

CLEVER piece of work in the third. Jack Miller hit the ball and threw his bat after it. Lyon, being a wise cracker, picked up the ball instead of the bat and started a double play.

NOTHER reason why the Phils are in last place came A in the seventh. Fournier singled. Stole second and went to third when Tragesser thought Williams was playing second base. Jacques scored on Stock's single. In fact, anybody could have scored on the hit.

TWO errors failed to help the Phils in the seventh.

It ish Meusel was safe on Lavan's wild heave and made around when Pickles Dilhaeffer pegged a bum one to first. Then the boys went out in order.

CY WILLIAMS made a gallant galloping effort to get Dilhoeffer's liner in the eighth, but the ball rolled off the tips of his fingers for a double.

LOOKED good when the Phils went to but in this linning. Tragesser singled. Causey tried to bunt the third strike and was out. Paulette walloped a grasscutter to left and then Jack Miller hit into a double play. Then it didn't look so good.

IN THE meantime Moran and Rigler umpired a nice ball A game. St. Looie was able to win without them.

CY WILLIAMS had seven putouts and three hits. C Knocked all of 'em in left field.

CASEY STENGEL, played the finale with a home run over the right field wall. Cy Williams was on base at the time. This blow averted a shutout. Score, 4 to 2.

Joe, it appears, has already passed one of his conditions and has high hopes of passing the other, which, if he does, will render him eligible to play this year. Griffin, the center man, who has been playing as understudy to Thomas on the varsity, was seen walking around the field yesterday afternoon with one of the famous brands of seags between his lips. Questions elicited no information, with the result that one was led to believe that Griffin, too, had fallen under the ban. Rex Wray, Crawford and Farrell are the other members of the quintet supthe other members of the quinter sup-posed to be under the ban of the fac-ulty. Farrell will be remembered as the star of the undefeated freshmen football team last year, and a bright prospect for this year's varsity. On his only day in scrimmage he showed all the cormarks of being a comer. all the earmarks of being a comer. Last year Rex thrilled the big crowds that througed to Franklin Field with his wonderful open-field running.

The above five are said to be only a starter of what may happen to the team this Friday. The rumors that perco-lated through the smoke-dimmed at-mosphere of Franklin Field late yesterday afternoon had it that several ad-ditional names would probably be forthcomnig before the week is out, taking from Coach Heisman just when he needs men several of the most imporant cogs in his varsity machine.
