of manager of the team have been passed over to J. Shoyer. Manager Shoyer is very much on the job. He soon arranged a game with West Catholic High for October 1. Everything is going along smoothly at the Manheim field, and Coach "Bert" Barron has the support of everyone at the school.

Southern High is peeved. Belofsky, the likely quarterback, has been fed up on the wonderful, prospects of some of the big Gimbel cup teams, glowing accounts of squads running into the hundreds and comment about them was that every team but Southern will be in the race this year. Speaking for the

"Perhaps later in the season these critics who can't see anything for us but sixth place in the league because there are only six teams, and Southern must,

of course, finish hast, may get a jolt.
You tell them for me. We've got a good team down here, too, every bit as good as Central High, West Philadelphia and some of the others that are walking around in the sky just at prewaiking around in the sky just at present. They'll come down to earth. When they do I'm going to change my name, too, dropping the sky. Belof is plenty long enough. Just wait."

"Swarthmore High's accounts in the Sunday papers of the wonderful team.

Sunday papers of the wonderful team, 'not beaten in two years,' ready to consider all comers, etc., attracted my attention,' said Manager Bill Pugh, of the West Philadelphia High School team, "We had an open date for early in October and I immediately called on the phone and arranged to play them on October 8.

Northeast Manufacturers' A. A Will Stage Athletic Carnival The second field day sports of the Northeast Manufacturers' Athletic Association Council will be held on Saturday afternoon, at the Disston Athletic Field, State road and Unruh street, Tagony.

Scores of athletes from the sixteen the Philadelphia Y. M. C. A. less than a year ago, is proving its worth among the men and women who toil in the mills of the northeast.

H. W. Higgins, of the Fayette Plumb Co., is president of the council. Albert Hallstead, of the Robert E. Foerderer Co., is chairman of the Schwab and the other veteran guard. Wolbet, likewise, are having to hustle to keep their berths. Budd, the former League Island marine and Blair Acad-emy guard, is playing a bang-up game, and has an even chance of starting against Muhlenburg.

Incogniti Has Big Lead New York, Sept. 23.—The All-New York cricket eleven, playing against the Incogniti Cricketers, of England, in the second day of their maftch, began today's playing against odds of 377 to 34 runs, with eight local batters yet to be bowled. Although some of the best local batters were yet to defend their wickets, there was little hope of overcoming the tremendous lead piled up by the invaders vesterday.
