STARTLED BY BISHOP'S VIEWS

Critic Believes Ireland's Tempest is No Teapot Affair

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—There is something in the invigorating atmosphere of the Maine woods that tends to clear thinking. There one may see with a keener perception and speak with more unbiased expression than is generally permitted amid the din and dust of the city. That is why I eagerly took up the statement of Bishop Rhinelander, issued on his return to the city. I said that before I had concluded I was startled several times. To say with one breath "that Ireland will be free within the dominion" and that "the agitation was a tempest in a teapot" was starting in the extreme. Do tempests in teapots achieve a result that centuries of a nation's struggle could not gain? The praise for Lloyd George was not entirely unexpected. There is no one of us who could not find something to praise in the career of that remarkable statesman. But a few years ago even the Irish praised him for their part in the revolution. It is the aerobically flippant that cause one to turn from the distinguished Premier.

Evidently the results of the last two elections in Ireland have not yet reached the Maine woods, otherwise the bishop would not have stated that the disturbance in Ireland is due to a few noisy agitators. In these elections the issue, clearly presented, was whether the Irish people wished to remain subservient to Great Britain. They were conducted by lawful officers in an orderly manner, according to the then law of the land. Certain candidates had openly stated that they would regard their success at the polls as the mandate of the Irish people ordering them to abstain from all political intercourse with England. They were overruled, they were elected. It was a tremendous landslide, even Derry voting with the majority.

The Irish people did this under the right of nations to determine for themselves their political allegiance. Bishop Rhinelander is too good an American not to admit that fundamental right. The Irish set up their own government, with its legislative, executive and judicial branches functioning to an extraordinary extent. British rule in the island collapsed, being upheld in a small area solely by the bayonets of many thousands of professional soldiers. To say that this is the work of a few noisy agitators is unjust as well as untrue.

Man Saved From Muncy, Pa., Mob by Legion He Denounced

Williamsport, Pa., Sept. 23.—(By A. P.)—With a rope around his neck and surrounded by a large crowd, who threatened him with violence, Peter McMan, thirty-four years old, was brought here last night from Muncy by members of the American Legion and locked up in the county jail for his own safety.

McMan, who gave his residence as Pittsburgh, had been in Muncy about three weeks, and in arguments in a hotel is alleged to have attacked the American Legion and to have declared that not enough persons had been killed in the recent Wall street explosion. He will have a hearing today.

BRITISH PILGRIMS ARRIVE

Delegation Reaches N. Y. to Take Part in Anniversary of Mayflower
New York, Sept. 23.—A delegation from the British branch of the Sulgrave Institution and the Anglo-American Society, to take part in the forty-first anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims and the first American legislative assembly at Jamestown, arrived here yesterday on the steamer Mount Vernon.

The British delegation is headed by Lord and Lady Rathborne, a former captain in the Royal Canadian Landers. After a brief stay they will be accompanied by Albany, Erie and other New York cities. They will visit Washington and from there make a pilgrimage to Mount Vernon.

FEAR LOST PASTOR IS DEAD

Police Despair of Haley, Missing 8 Days—Wife Still Hopes
Reading, Pa., Sept. 23.—Hopes of finding alive the Rev. Elmer Haley, who vanished from his Rosedale home eight days ago, have been given up by the police. It is feared the retired clergyman is dead, a result of a fall, with long exposure and lack of food.

His wife, however, believes he is being cared for by persons who have not learned his identity. Haley is eighty-four years old.

TURKS PREDICT CIVIL WAR

Sultan Reported to Be Falling Physically and Mentally
Constantinople, Sept. 23.—(By A. P.)—Damat Ferid Pasha remains grand vizier, but locally the Turks are excited over the political situation, and those attempting to oust Damat Ferid are predicting civil war in Constantinople.

The sultan's position is so difficult it is asserted he is falling physically and mentally.

Damat Ferid's organs, the Peyam and Sabah, have abandoned him and are supporting Mustapha Sabri Effendi, the stirring sheik ul-Islam, who told the sultan that the total dissolution of the Turkish empire would be winter unless he was put at the head of the government and permitted to raise an Anatolian army against the nationalists.

DECLARE OUSTER OF SOCIALISTS VOID

Expelled Legislators Had Not Received Their Certificates of Election

FIVE MAY BE RESEATED

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Assemblymen are considering a question which arose late yesterday regarding the validity of the action in ousting three of the Socialist members of the Assembly Tuesday night.

Louis M. Martin, of Oneida, chairman of the industry committee, said that as the Socialists had been ousted before they had received certificates of election, if they should again present themselves before the secretary of state with their certificates he might be obliged to swear them in again.

Legality of the ouster proceedings was challenged by William F. Snyder, clerk of New York county, who declared that under the election law no person can be sworn into an elective office unless he can present a certificate of election. None of the five Socialists had such certificates when they came to Albany Monday morning, and were sworn in as assemblymen.

The law prescribes that the county clerk of a county has twenty days in which to issue a certificate of election after a regular election and ten days following a special election.

Not having such certificates, they were not qualified to take their oath, and their oath is still null and void, it is argued. The claim is now made that as the five were not members of the Assembly the ouster proceedings have no legal standing.

Louis Waldman, one of the expelled Socialists, asked concerning what he and his companions would do in case it should be found that further action was necessary, said: "It's their move next."

He said that he did not think the Socialists would have any difficulty in principle, but said perhaps some of the Republican leaders might take that development as a "chance to crawl out of the hole."

Upon the return of the ousted Socialists to New York today the matter would be presented to Morris Hillquit, the party's attorney, he said.

COMMITTEE NAMED TO PROBE IRELAND

Magazine Selects Prominent Americans to Get Truth of Reported Atrocities

By the Associated Press
New York, Sept. 23.—Oswald Garrison Villard announced today that the selection of the membership of the committee of one hundred on Ireland, formed on invitation of the Nation for the purpose of investigating and reporting publicly upon conditions in Ireland with special reference to atrocities has been completed.

Public hearings are to be held in Washington by a commission of five members of the committee. The personnel of this commission has not been announced. Five United States senators, Johnson and Phelan, of California; Spencer, of Missouri; Ashurst, of Arizona, and Walsh, of Massachusetts, as well as four governors, Edwards, of New Jersey; Carey, of Wyoming; Frazier, of North Dakota, and Campbell, of Arizona, have accepted places on the committee, which is made up otherwise of persons prominent in the discussion of public questions.

It is announced that Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador, and Professor Eamonn De Valera, as representatives of England and Ireland, have been invited to provide the committee with information and to submit lists of persons who should be called as witnesses.

The Nation states in reply to both favorable and adverse comments with respect to the proposed investigation, that "It has undertaken the project in the conviction that anything which jeopardizes the relations of the United States with foreign powers, or which tends to breed international ill feeling, is a proper subject of inquiry by any group of American citizens."

"The object of such inquiry should be the determination, so far as possible, of the truth or falsity of allegations which tend to cause ill-feeling to the end that, if true, responsibility for the unhappy conditions may be made clear, and that, if false, the allegations may be publicly shown to be such."

G. A. R. PLANS UNION OF ALL VETERANS

Encampment Takes Up Proposal for Patriotic Federation to Fight Radicalism

BUSINESS SESSIONS OPEN

By the Associated Press
Indianapolis, Sept. 23.—The social events and the big annual parade over, the delegates to the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic today turned to the business of the organization. The first of the business sessions opened today with the reading of reports of the various officers.

Several important subjects were to be discussed and voted on during the day. Many veterans who came solely for the social side of the encampment started for home.

Every morning train today was crowded. Sixteen thousand veterans registered, and it was estimated that there were thousands more who did not enter their names on the record as having attended. The encampment will close officially tomorrow.

The most important questions, aside from the election of officers, to come before the delegates at the business sessions, were the proposal to increase the per capita tax from three and one-half cents per year to ten cents and the proposed federation of veterans organizations to promote patriotism and fight radicalism.

It was announced today that the proposed patriotic federation would likely be thrown open to all patriotic societies, and would be known as the Federated Patriotic Societies of the United States of America.

The accredited delegates this afternoon will be the guests of army officers at Fort Benjamin Harrison.

A review of troops stationed at the fort, a band concert, an exhibition by army aviators and supper in regulation army style are on the program.

The various organizations auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic continued their business sessions today.

Turin Strikers Won't Abide by Rome Agreement

By the Associated Press
London, Sept. 23.—(By A. P.)—A referendum among the strikers in Turin has resulted in the rejection of the agreement arrived at in Rome between the employers' representatives and the workers in the metal trades, says a Rome dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph today.

Occupation of the Fiat, Lancia and Dabost automobile works, the Ansaldo aviation works and other factories, chiefly textile, will be continued, the dispatch says.

Tuesday night Royal Guards were fired on, one being killed and several wounded. Three armed "red guards" were arrested. At Milan a bomb was exploded on the threshold of the residence of a manufacturer who was a leader of the opposition to the workers' claims.

WRANGEL CLAIMS VICTORY

Baron Reports Capture of 10,000 Prisoners and 35 Guns

Washington, Sept. 23.—Capture by the forces of General Wrangel, the anti-Soviet leader, of Alexandrovsk, on the Dnieper of about 10,000 prisoners was reported to the State Department yesterday from Constantinople. Wrangel's force also took thirty-five guns, several hundred machine guns, five armored trains and a large quantity of supplies.

Sebastopol, Sept. 23.—The American steamship Faraby has arrived here with munitions, which are being traded for grain and wool.

M'SWINEY SUFFERS PAINS IN HIS HEAD

Enters 42d Day of Hunger Strike—Balbriggan Residents Creep Back Home

By the Associated Press
London, Sept. 23.—Lord Mayor MacSwiney, of Cork, had a few hours of restful sleep last night, but was suffering severe pains in his head and was very weak this morning, according to a bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination League at Bristol prison.

Reports to the home office by the prison physician stated there was no apparent change in the condition of MacSwiney.

This is the forty-second day of the lord mayor's hunger strike.

Balbriggan, Sept. 23.—Nearly 1000 persons, about half the population of this partly devastated town, crept back to their homes yesterday after a second night of terror in the outlying hayfields. Once, during the middle of the night, an alarm was raised which caused a stampede of the people to remote fields, where they took refuge under hedges and haycocks or whatever shelter they were able to discover in the dark.

A Governmental Distinction

At frequent intervals since the war ended, considerable publicity has been given to the government standardization of motor trucks.

We take this opportunity to point out a salient fact in this connection. Of all motor vehicles classified as standard, four types—2, 3, 4 and 5—are designated as the motor truck class. In the first three of these types, namely, 2, 3 and 4, several different makes of motor trucks are listed as standard government equipment in each case.

But in type 5 (Five tons and over, including special engineer trucks) the Mack is the only truck named as standard. In other words, the "Bull Dog" is the one and only truck permanently retained by the U. S. Army as standard heavy-service equipment.

The Liberty truck, which was used in the war, was solely the product of a concentrated effort toward quantity production to meet a great emergency.

These facts are more or less common knowledge today. It is not generally known, however, that shortly after the United States declared war noted government engineers conducted exhaustive motor tests which the Mack engine alone survived. The U. S. Engineers requisitioned such quantities of Mack heavy-duty chassis that our production of all light models—1½ and 2 tons—had to be suspended during the war term.

Our greatest military men state that there is no real difference between military and commercial motor transportation. In both classes of service, the best equipment is necessary to record the greatest possible ton-mileage within a given time.

"PERFORMANCE COUNTS"

English weights and measures remain our fundamental standards. The claim on the contrary is a mere propaganda, which places the ruling of a bureau official above the constitution and the law of the United States.

If the writer of your article referred to the present officials of the Bureau of Standards whose names are in the form of the authorities, it is undoubtedly correct in his prediction that they would decline the mere to be fundamental because the Bureau of Standards, since its organization, in 1901, as the successor of the Bureau of Weights and Measures, has been, and is now, the center of the metric propaganda.

DIAMOND MERCHANTS—JEWELERS—SILVERSMITHS

We Send Free the Pepsodent needed to make this ten-day test

- Multiplies the salivary flow—Nature's tooth protector
- Multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva
- Multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva
- Fights film in two efficient ways
- Polishes so teeth glisten and film cannot easily adhere

Watch these five effects Repeated with every application

Quick, visible results
The benefits of Pepsodent are quick and apparent. You see and feel them every time you use it. Within ten days you'll realize well how much this new way means.

One ingredient is pepsin. Another multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva, to digest starch deposits that cling. The alkalinity of the saliva is multiplied also, to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay.

Two factors directly attack the film. One of them keeps teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily adhere. The film itself is twice a day combated in most effective ways.

Everyone should know
Everybody, young and old, should know of these effects. Old methods of teeth cleaning do not bring them.

Send the coupon for the 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears. Watch all the results, and the book we send will tell the meaning of them.

Do this for your sake and the children's sake. It means whiter, cleaner, safer teeth. It means results you want and which you cannot get without it. Cut out the coupon now. This is too important to forget.
