

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Talks of Those Returning Home From Summer Trips to Mountains and the West. She Tells of Miss McKean's Debut

Isn't it funny how many coincidences there are in life? I was wondering the Newbolds yesterday and thinking when they would return from the Adirondacks, when right before my eyes on a station platform, I saw a trunk with "Newbold, Layerock" on its side, and I knew that they were already home. For it would almost be a miracle to have your trunks arrive the same day, to say nothing of several days after you came yourself.

Mrs. Russell Thayer who has been up at the Adirondack camp will return home at the end of this week. The Thayers have renovated the house they own at Twenty-second and Locust streets and will live there this winter. The house has been painted gray, you know, and the windows and shutters are in very dark blue. A bit unusual for a town house, but very good looking. They have a new hedge growing all around the house which gives it a festive atmosphere. Moly has been home for a couple of weeks. She took part in the Philadelphia Cricket Club tennis matches last week and is playing a week at Manheim.

Speaking of Moly reminds me of her scenario, "The Talk of the Town or Society," which is to be given at the Academy of Music in November for the benefit of the Reed Street Neighborhood House and the social service department of the Polytechnic hospital, and by the Junior League of Philadelphia. Moly is a member of the Junior League, as are the girls who are to appear in the movie.

To go back to the Adirondacks, the William Phillips, of Haverford, have been up at Saranac Inn for some time and are coming home next Wednesday. Emily Phillips, who in my opinion is one of the best looking girls on the Main Line, is coming home to Haverford tomorrow. She has been at White Grass Ranch, in Wyoming, all summer and has had most wonderful time in the out-of-doors.

Dr. and Mrs. Radcliffe Cheston, of Chestnut Hill, are spending two weeks up at Saranac Inn and Mrs. Howell and Miss Roberts, who never get there from Montreal, will spend a week before returning home. Is there any more beautiful spot than the Adirondacks at this time of year when the leaves are turning? I wish I could chase up there myself.

Nancy McKean, who is to make her debut this year, has been out in Wyoming during the summer with her mother, Mrs. Tom McKean. They are expected to return home very shortly. Nancy has been, for the last two years, at boarding school, but she has come home for the holidays and attended the dancing classes at Christmas and Easter. She is a tall, good-looking girl with a very attractive manner.

Her mother was Miss Katherine Blipham, of this city. On her father's side of the family she is related to the Whartons, McKean's, Borles, Byles, and a number of other distinguished Philadelphia families. She is a descendant of Governor McKean, of Pennsylvania. Her grandfather, the Thomas McKean, lived at 1025 Walnut street for many years and built the two houses next door toward Nineteenth street for two of his married children. Mr. Stotsbury bought the house at 1025 Walnut street after Mrs. McKean's death and after Mrs. McKean, who has since died, decided to live all year round in Germantown at their beautiful country seat. Later Mr. Stotsbury bought the house next to No. 1025 and added a balcony to his present home. Nancy's grandmother was Elizabeth Wharton, a sister of Mrs. George Baker, and a most charming woman.

Mr. and Mrs. McKean will give a tea for their daughter on October 18, and later in the season will give a dance in her honor.

How times does fly! Do you realize that this time next week we will have entered upon the second day of the horse show at High Mast? It opens on Wednesday the 29th and goes on through the week to Saturday, and from all I hear about it, I think it will be a decided success. Among the box-holders will be the Joe Widener, Sam Riddles, Victor Mathers, Alexander Van Rensselaers, Bob Montgomery, Tom McKean, Archibald Barkley, William C. Whitely, Charles E. Coxes, Edward Beales, Plunkett Stewarts and dozens of others.

The evils of divorce come home to us sometimes very hard when we overbear such remarks as Nancy heard the other day. He was just about seven and had a wise little face with an early laid expression. He was beautifully dressed and showed a mother's love and care. But this was the speech: "Oh, see, people mauroy and then they fuss, and then they swap, and then they get a divorce."

NANCY WYNNE.
