JEALOUS WOMAN GUILTY OF MURDER

Second Degree Verdict Against Mrs. Bucofski, Who Slew Former Admirer

Speciski, of Shenandoah, was today ound guilty of murder in the second legree for the killing of Anthony Stravinsky, her lover. The woman escaped the jury having evidently been ewhat impressed by her plea that the stravinsky, was a fine-looking man.

enty-six years old and nearly six ately in love with him and the proserefused to admit, that she had driven her husband away from his home by ats of killing him; that she had ent Stravinsky money and even boasted that the silk shirt he wore was purchased by her. The prosecution was prevented from showing that when Stravinsky changed his boarding place and went to live with Mrs. Sajarkos, a widow, Mrs. Bucofski heard of rumors of his coming marriage to another woman, traced him to the widow's home and taunted him, declaring "You are a poor snort," and an hour later met him again and shot him twice. Stravinsky, in his dying statement, said the woman shot him because he refused to marry her. The woman, it is alleged, manifested no penitence for the deed, and it is said one remarked after the shooting. "It served him right." R. A. Frei'er, counsel for Mrs.

With Which Was United in 1915 The Delancey School Locust and Juniper Streets, Philadelphia

PREPARES boys for all Colleges and Technical Schools. Members of graduating class will this autumn enter Haverford. Lehigh. Lafayette, Dartmouth, University of Pennsylvania, Cornell, Princeton and Harvard.

A Junior School affords careful training for little boys.

NOTE: The Trustees of the Academy have purchased at Overbrook on NOTE: The Trustees of the Academy have purchased at Overbrook on City Line within a few minutes' walk of the station, a spacious modern building, together with fourteen acres of land, to which they will move the School as soon as alterations and additions can be made. In its new location the work of the Academy will continue as heretofore, and provision will be made for the pupils' afternoon study hours. Ample opportunity will be furnished for healthful exercise in the open air on the playsrounds of the School property under the direction of skilled physical directors. As it will be impossible under present labor conditions to have the building ready for occupancy in time for the opening of the next ression, the School will resopen at its present site, 1324 Locust Street. After the removal to Overbrook, it is profosed to continue the Junior School for very little boys in the city in a suitable building which will be secured for that purpose. The very small boys from the neighborhood of Overbrook will be provided for at the Overbrook School as soon as it is opened.

The next session opens September 23d for the Upper School; September 24th for the Middle School, and September 27th for the Junior School. The football field and baseball field will be made ready as soon as possible.

The Register, together with an Announcement of the Board of Trustees, giving details of the removal of the School to Overbrook, will be sent on application. The Office at 1324 Locust Street is now open for the enrollment of pupils.

BALESMEN Said Colonel Roosevelt to a man we know:
"I try to suand myself constantly against going of half-cocked." For the salesmen we invite to co-operate with us we take just such precaution. We know that to so of half-cocked is nine times out of ten to miss the mark. Unlimited money-making possibilities, progressively prosperous careers and early elevation to positions of increased responsibility are virtually insured every clearcut, ambitious, well-intentioned man admitted to our sales staff. Our rapidly growing sales organization leads us to call for about 15 just such forward-looking, impressionable and impressive young men. At your back we'll put the organized co-operation of an organization that's the making of all its men, whether they come full-fiedged or absolutely lacking in seiling experience.
