

BARRETT AND WIFE MAY PASS ON OCEAN

Mrs. Spreckels Would Have Aviator Answer in London for Missing Jewels

DREXEL FAMILY IS SILENT

Captain William N. Barrett and his wife, the daughter of John R. Drexel, of this city and New York, may pass each other in midocean soon, the captain bound for London to answer charges against him, his wife returning to her family in this country.

The charges against the airman, who eloped with Alice Gordon Drexel in June, 1919, were made by Mrs. John Spreckels, Jr., of San Francisco, who wants the captain to account for $125,000 worth of jewels she said she entrusted to him.

Solicitors for Mrs. Spreckels, according to a report from London, have asked the London police to begin extradition proceedings for him. The captain is said to be under police surveillance at Los Angeles.

Mrs. Barrett is now in Europe. As soon as she is able to travel, it is said, she will return to the United States. Her parents refuse to confirm or deny rumors that she will begin divorce proceedings.

A warrant charging Barrett with the theft of a pearl necklace valued at $10,500 sterling was issued on the application of Mrs. Spreckels in the Marlborough Police Court September 17, the London dispatch says. She is at a West End hotel, has canceled her passage on a liner sailing tomorrow for New York and will await the return of her husband, who is in Norway.

Her secretary said today that Mrs. Spreckels met Barrett, whom she had known several years, at the Sandown race course some months ago, and as she was not acquainted in London he offered to introduce her to his friends. The secretary declared Mrs. Spreckels requested him to attend to some dealings for her with jewelers and gave him the necklace, which she wanted cleaned and restringed. Time elapsed, but Barrett avoided discussion as to the whereabouts of the necklace, the secretary said, and eventually he left London. His continued silence determined Mrs. Spreckels to inaugurate proceedings, which resulted in the issuance of the police court warrant.

Barrett held a commission in the American air service from September, 1917, to March, 1919. He and Miss Drexel eloped and were married secretly at New Rochelle, N. Y., June 3, 1919. A few weeks after the ceremony they went abroad. The parents of Miss Drexel declared they knew nothing whatever about him. A child was born at Lucerne, Switzerland, last June.

EFFICIENT BANDITS, HIGHLY EQUIPPED, OBTAIN PALTRY $4

Other Robbers, Equally Efficient, Are More Successful and Get $95 From Man

An expensive and elaborate hold-up equipment, consisting of six stylishly dressed young men in the latest "trick clothes," a large touring car and six expensive automatic pistols, not to mention a gas mask, was used this morning to obtain $4 in a hold-up at Sixth and Cherry streets.

William Shapiro, of 622 Rodman street, was the victim. He was walking along about 6 o'clock this morning, when the car drew up and five of the bandit fashionplates leaped out and flourished their pistols. Secure in the knowledge that he had only $4 any how, Shapiro put up his hands, submitted to search and kept his hands right where they were until the car had driven out of sight. Then reported the matter to the police.

Adolph P. Geiger, forty years old, 2828 Overington street, Frankford, yielded to the persuasive powers of two masked highwaymen, backed up by a revolver, about midnight at Richmond street and the Pennsylvania Railroad, and found himself $95 poorer when they had finished.

Geiger, who was on his way home from work, was confronted by two men whose faces were covered with handkerchiefs. One held a gun pointed in his face. Their manner was brisk and to the point.

BABY BURNED BY LYE

Eats it While Mother is Away, but May Recover

Left alone by his mother last night, James Kelly, one year old, crawled over to a corner in his home, 3924 Westminster avenue, and ate a handful of lye. When the parent returned she found the baby lying on the floor crying. He was taken to the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital, where physicians said that he will recover.

The baby did not swallow the lye, although his mouth and throat were badly burned.

YOUNG BANDITS GET $250 IN ROBBERY

Frankford Avenue Cigar Dealer Awed by Revolvers While Till Is Looted

Two bandits, one of them only about sixteen years old, entered the cigar store of Morris Beckman at 2608 Frankford avenue, about 10 o'clock last night, and threatened him with revolvers. Then, while the boy went to the cash register, his companion, a taller youth, not much older, according to Beckman, kept him covered until the search for money had been completed.

About $250 in cash was obtained by the youths, who then departed. Beckman at once notified the police, who began a search of the neighborhood. It is believed the bandits live in the vicinity.

They are believed to have known of the habit of Beckman to stock up on small change in large quantities, whenever a local boxing club gives exhibitions, as the customers flock into his store after the show and demand quick service.

Parking Costs Man $18.50
Thomas Chadwick, of York street near Thirtieth, was fined $18.50 today by Magistrate Oswald at the Nineteenth and Oxford streets station on a charge of parking his automobile in front of his home with the lights extinguished.

PRE-AUTUMN FUR SALE

LAST 5 DAYS
Savings of 20 to 45%

This is a sale that requires immediate action on your part. The values are so unusual, the quality so great, the assortment of lovely Fur Garments, Pieces and Sets so varied, there's no telling when such a wonderful opportunity will come again. These Furs are truly investment garments.

If you delay buying during this sale, you'll pay one-fifth to almost one-half more. Good furs are becoming scarce. The unsettled conditions in Europe, which cut off nearly all of that supply, helped. The general strike in the Fur industry also contributed. If we had not bought the skins from the Trappers direct and had them made up in our factory when labor costs were lowest, coupled with our intensive middle-man saving policy, we would be asking the same prices other dealers are compelled to ask.

The Plea That Touched the Heart of Philadelphia

Next Wednesday will be Bundle Day. Philadelphians will then give worn clothing to the destitute Armenians and others in the Near East. 800,000 Armenians—little children, women and men—are facing death this winter for lack of clothing to cover their naked bodies.

Bundle Day, therefore, will be LIFE-SAVING DAY and Philadelphians will be LIFE-SAVERS. Let each one save a life. How? Search your closets. Make up a bundle of worn clothing. Take it to the nearest public school, from which it will be forwarded free.
