By SPICK HALL

This is going to be a large day at the Philadelphia Cricket Ciub. There will be four finals tennis matches staged before the shades of night have trickled out of the east. Three of these matches are women's events and one is the mixed doubles, all for the championship of Philadelphis and district. Miss Ann B. Townsend, of Merion. will take on Miss Leslie Bancroft, the crafty southpaw of the Longwood Cricket Club, for the singles title. These wo have never met before, consequently making predictions on the outcome in not likely to be a healthful procedure, however, if Miss Townsend plays the however, if Miss Townsend plays the way she did against Miss Phyllis Walsh yesterday she is going to beat Miss Bancroft, no matten how well the Boston girl performs. The later trimmed Miss Walsh in singles and, with Miss Thayer, defeated Miss Walsh and Miss Bancroft in the doubles. Miss Thayer's defeat by Miss Bancroft in the semifinals was a big surprise and the first upset of the rnament.

Miss Townsend and Miss Walsh had a beautiful match and the Merion girl won because she had the edge all along. In the first set Miss Walsh ran up a lead of 4-2 on Miss Townsend, then the Merion star got busy and by going to the net and cutting off Miss Walsh's drives, she ran the set out quickly. taking four games in a row in each of Miss Walsh only made one

Had Miss Townsend continued her Had Miss Townsend continued her net attack, there is no doubt that she would have taken the second set, and taken it rather easily; but she elected to play in the back court. The result was that Miss Walsh, thanks to her un-usual reach, was able to nip Miss Town-und's divisor in the bud save many send's drives in the bud and score many placement volleys on her. Miss Walsh took the set at 6-2, Miss Townsend making only one real stand, that in the final game when twenty points were played Miss Walsh finally won. Miss Townsend saw her mistake in the second set and after the rest she began the third by going to the net the barrier game. In this way Miss Townsend got the lead at 3-1. Miss at Northeast Manual Train Townsend got the lead at 3-1. State Townsend got the lead at 3-1. In connection with Brigham's nouncement that Arnold Rothstein, New York turfman and chief owner of the Havre de Grace raggtrack, had been subpoenaed, it was learned today that President B. B. Mr. Brigham announced last night that the name of the man who "fixed" the 1919 world's series for Cincinnati to win had been given to the gran-jury.
