CHILDREN ENLIVEN FAIR
Take Part in Lancaster Fete, Which Has Many Exhibits
Lancaster, Sept. 29.—The annual Lancaster County Fair opened yesterday. It was children's day, when thousands of pupils from all parts of the county were the guests of the Fair Association.
The racing card this year is an unusually strong one, and every department of the fair is filled with exhibits. Many applications for exhibits were refused for lack of space. The cattle and poultry exhibits excel anything ever before seen at a Lancaster fair. Special attractions will be the Marine Band, of Washington, today, and an exhibition on Thursday by a squadron of five army airplanes, the object of this visit being to boost recruiting for the army, which also has a tank on exhibition.

TEUTONS SCHEMING TO ENTER LEAGUE

Several Small Countries Reported to Be in Favor of Admission of Germany
GAIN BY BRUSSELS PARLEY
Summary of special cable dispatches to today's Public Ledger. Copyright, 1920, by the Public Ledger Co.

Brussels, Sept. 29.—Contrary to the desires and counsels of the League of Nations, and expressly against its prescribed regulations, political factors are being injected into the Brussels financial conference that may have far-reaching consequences on the future conduct of the league as well as contribute to change the political complexion of Europe.
Germany's latest maneuvers behind closed doors are in preparation of the terrain for her admission into the league. Nothing has been more characteristic of Germany's attitude toward admission into the league during the last two months than the actions of her delegation at Brussels, which is calculating that if it fails to obtain any tangible results in an economic or financial way by the end of the conference, it at least would have paved the way for the favorable entrance of Germany into the league next November. The Germans appear already to have lined up the Scandinavian countries, Holland and even some of the South American supporters of their plan for admission into the league at Geneva.
Poles Advancing on Vilna
Warsaw, Sept. 29.—The pursuit of the Bolshevik forces in the territory north of Grodno will inevitably take the Poles into Vilna. The capture of the city may be expected within a week. When that is accomplished the Poles plan to press for peace with the Lithuanians, settling once for all the fate of the city and the character of the future relations between Poland and Lithuania.

Russians Want Quick Truce
Riga, Sept. 29.—Latest indications show the Russians undoubtedly are sincere in their desire and demand for a quick armistice, and will do everything possible to push through some agreement upon which hostilities can be suspended within the ten-day time limit they fixed. The Poles will disregard the time consideration and the Bolshevik threat withdrawing the offer October 5, and proceed at their own gall regarding the ultimatum as a bluff, which it probably is.

Italians Sobred by Strike
Milan, Sept. 29.—Now that the striking social battle in Italy is ended, let us draw conclusions, says Guglielmo Emanuel, representative of the Public Ledger.
Quite apart from its epoch-making results in the industrial field by which Italy will initiate among the western powers the most daring experiment of workers' co-partnership in industry, the fight has enabled attentive observers to ascertain another deeply interesting phenomenon. It is the birth of a new political conscience among the masses and the beginning of labor as a constructive, practical element in Italy's political life.
There has been great talk of sovietism

COUPLE RESCUED IN FOG
Philadelphia in Motorboat Had Lost Bearings
Atlantic City, Sept. 29.—A message over the wires of the United States Coast Guard, saying that friends on Brigantine Island feared they were being carried to sea in a dense fog, sent government life savers from Atlantic City station rushing to find Henry Wile, a Philadelphia real estate operator, and his wife.
The fog was exceedingly heavy when Mr. and Mrs. Wile left Brigantine for Atlantic City in a motorboat, but they expected to get across the Inlet by following the edge of the meadows which bisect the backwaters. They lost their whereabouts completely, however, and where near the government buoy station and headed away from the city when the coast guards overtook them.

Now Is the Time to Paint
Here are five mighty good reasons for Fall painting. Look them over:
1. In the Fall the surface is thoroughly dry.
2. When the wood is dry it absorbs more of the paint. The paint penetrates deeper into the wood, giving the paint greater tenacity or holding qualities.
3. In the Fall the weather is more settled and uniform. Also there are no bugs or flies to alight on the freshly painted surface and spoil its appearance.
4. A house needs its protecting coat of paint more in the winter months than at any other time.
5. It is easier to keep moisture and dampness out by applying a coat of paint when the surface is dry, than it is to get moisture and dampness out of the wood when you want to apply paint.
Therefore, paint NOW with

Morning to you, Pete!

Who crossed my trail in the hotel this afternoon but "Long Sam" Weaver! Last time I saw Sam to chin to was that night of July 15th when our old 38th clinched the "Rock of the Marne" title! And, I guess you won't forget that night, old glue pot—everybody was stuck on you!

Sam and I fought the war all over again and dug into our Camel supplies like it was "free commissary." Sam never will get all done talking about that session when we couldn't move a hair without getting a close shave—and, no eats or smokes! And, Sam was as clear as a bell as to how you located a fresh deck of Camels and passed 'em to our bunch just after we'd been relieved!

Sam has some song about how good Camels were to him in France—and ever since! That bird has the warble! Why, Camel talk trickles off his tongue like water flows over Pa Smith's mill dam! Pete, old carpet tack, Sam has a head, all right!

"Camels certainly are friendly," was the way Sam put it in his old-time vigor-vim style. "You know as well as I do," he added, "that no other cigarette has such a mild, mellow body. And, there's no harshness or tiredness of taste in a million Camels! No objectionable odor, no lingering unpleasant aftertaste! Summing it all up, Shorty, I'll say Camels are the greatest cigarettes in the world at any price!"

Headed southeast tonight, with Winston-Salem, N.C. my first port of call. Some jump from K.C! Pete, it's Winston-Salem where Camels are made! GET ME!

Sincerely Shorty
