Nancy Wynne Talks of Some Debutante Affairs for Next Week-She Sees a Smart Frock-Mrs.

McIver Here for Visit

WASN'T it encouraging for the Horse Show, when the sun actually came out yesterday after a morning of hard rain? For, after all, the horse show is the social thing of this week and it is disappointing when it rains. I have an idea it will be very gay today, because so many have taken boxes and there are a good many debutante parties and af-idea it will be very see so many have taken boxes and there are so many have taken boxes and affairs generally connected with the show this week to make it very successful.

AND next week we will be racing about frantically to one ten after part of October. There will be many entertainnests given in honor of Mies Sullivan in this city and New York.
