Let the Men Come in Tomorrow for Shirts and Ties at These Low Prices

Men have been asking when they could get action in the way of low prices on shirts and neckties and pajamas.

Here is action, splendid action - as long as this sale lasts.

4,692 Splendid Shirts at $1.95 3,684 Neckties at 35c

660 Suits of Pajamas at $3.35

Comprising the best and most genuinely special sale of men's shirts and neckties that Philadelphia has known this season.

Right straight through the prices are less than you would have to pay if you could go to the manufacturer of these same goods and persuade him to sell wholesale.

It is a powerful special sale, taken straight out of our own stocks, and the goods are fine.

These 4,692 Shirts at $1.95 are genuinely wonderful for the money. They are about equally divided between madras and percale. The madras shirts are what is known as printed cord madras, genuine and fine and fast color. Please note that these shirts contain no fugitive dyes. The percale shirts are that satisfactory grade known as "80 square" percale, which means strength and long life.

Let it be noted that these shirts are all Fall and Winter goods. They are in weights to wear now. They include no Summer flimsies, no job lots. They are all shirts made for our own regular stocks over the generous Wanamaker dimensions and made in a first-class manner with ocean pearl buttons.

Note well that there are no "seconds," even among the buttons. You will not find shirts anywhere near like these at anywhere near the price.

The 3,684 Neckties at 35c include both four-in-hand and batwing silk ties, and the variety is so great that every man can fill up his chiffonier with a dozen or dozen and a half new ties for Winter.

The 660 Suits of Pajamas at $3.35 come just at the right time, when so many men want a little heavier garments. They are crepe and muslin in plain colors and stripes. The Sale will be ready tomorrow morning in the Men's Down Stairs Section on the Gallery, Market.

Lace Dresses Are About Half Price at $23.50 and $25

The foundation of these frocks is charmeuse, draped and hung with filmy black lace or embroid-ered net. Can you imagine how pretty these airy sleeves of black are over bare arms? The frocks are suitable for informal dances, for dinners and for afternoon affairs. Mostly in black, though a few are navy blue.

Ombre Chiffon Dresses, $16 Party frocks of draped chiffon display the loveliest color effects—orange shading to pale cream or vivid jade green shading to the palest Nile. Young women will love them for Autumn dances.

Charmeuse or Silvertone Frocks, $16.50

The charmeuse dresses are quite unusual, having elbow sleeves and a new neck arrangement, as you'll see in the sketch. They are mostly in black, with a few navys, and are embroidered in tiny beads and insets of Copenhagen silk embroidery.

The dresses of silvertone are in wood brown with bands of silk thread and patent leather trimming the sides of the skirts and the fronts of the bodices.

Wool Jersey Dresses, $19.25 and $21.75

These are of exceptionally soft texture and are made with long, embroid-ered bodices and knife-pleated overskirts. In beaver and navy. $21.75. In beaver, taupe and brown, these frocks are braided about the bodices and skirts in self-tones, $19.25.

Navy Blue Tricotine Frocks, $23.50
