

FOOTBALL IS A SPORT OF QUEENS—ALWAYS SEEN IN THE GRANDSTAND

J. STRAUS WILL START IN PENN BACKFIELD

Miller, Harvey and Wray Probably Will Open Against Bucknell Tomorrow Afternoon on Franklin Field. Freshman-Naval Flotilla at 1. Varsity 3 P. M.

STATISTICS OF BUCKNELL TEAM, WHICH MEETS PENN TOMORROW

JOE STRAUS, the plunging full-back from the Lone Star state, probably will be started in the game in Pennsylvania's backfield when Heisman's team lines up against the much-heralded Bucknell eleven of Lewisburg, Pa.

Just what other men will get a chance to work against Bucknell cannot be said with any degree of certainty. Caldwell, the fast back from the University School of Cleveland, no doubt will be one of the men to get a chance.

Carl Thomas, who is acting captain during the absence of Bud Hopper, isn't likely to start tomorrow. He was hurt in the scrimmage yesterday and Heisman does not want to take a chance of his incurring further injury.

Rex Wray will do the punting for Pennsylvania. He was getting off some long, neat spirals yesterday in spite of the heavy ball and his mud-caked shoes.

Heisman has a number of good men for the wing positions. Bill Grave, who has completely recovered from his injury will be at one end. Greenwalt also is likely to be in there before the game is over.

Yesterday was the first time that the Pennsylvania team had a chance to work out with a slippery ball. If the weather man is correct, it will be dry tomorrow for the contest with Bucknell, nevertheless it is well that they had an opportunity to get some practice with the wet oval. Franklin Field was very muddy when the scrimmage began and it rained almost all of the time the men were on the field.

Double-Header Booked. The Pennsylvania management is pulling some of Connie Mack's stuff.

Pen Points

On the evening of October 10 there will be a public banquet given to some of the athletes who put Philadelphia on the map this year. Everybody is invited to this feast which will be held at the Bellevue-Stratford.

Carl Eby and Sherman Landers, of the University of Pennsylvania, will be among the guests of honor at this banquet. They took part in the recent Olympic games. Jack Kelly, Paul Costello and Bill Tilden also will be there.

Hundreds of Pennsylvania athletes will be in the parade preceding the banquet. Altogether it is expected that 3,000 athletes will be in line.

Tickets for the Pennsylvania-Bucknell game tomorrow are on sale at the Athletic Association office and at Gimbel's.

The University band had a long drill yesterday afternoon in Wightman Hall. Weaver is again leading the Red and Blue music.

Louis de Kete, who loomed last year for Pennsylvania, is back at the university.

Dr. Walter Carlow, coach of the baseball team, was on Franklin Field yesterday. He and Doctor Light also held a consultation over Bud Hopper's injury. He probably will be on the sidelines in uniform for the Swarthmore game.

Huck Wharton gave the freshmen a black-board lecture on football yesterday. Coach Aukland also had a few remarks to make. There are 175 freshmen trying for the football team.

BYRN ATHYN HAS STRONG GRID TEAM

Acton and Burnhjm Tally Touchdowns in Game With Frankford

Frankford High School failed to stop the strong Bryn Athyn Academy eleven in the game played on the slippery, soggy Frankford gridiron yesterday. The Bryn Athyn team pulling the first surprise of the season when they won, 12 to 6. Bryn Athyn's powerful backfield, composed of O. Burnhjm, Ridgeway, E. Smith and D. Acton, tore through the Frankford line for repeated gains.

Bryn Athyn won the game by open plays and mass plays. Two forward passes, O. Burnhjm to Acton and Burnhjm to Montonye, resulted in large gains. Frankford High's fumbles were costly especially in the third period. A Bryn Athyn fumble resulted in Frankford's solitary touchdown for side-botham recovered and went for ten yards over the line.

Bryn Athyn won in the second quarter. Line plunges carried the platoon to within scoring distance and then D. Acton, the fullback, carried it over. E. Burnhjm made a brilliant 40-yard run right through Frankford's team, scoring the second touchdown. The game was played in a downpour of rain which seemed to bother Frankford more than the visitors.

Henwood Sprains Ankle. Friends' Central School has lost Henwood, who sprained his ankle in a recent practice. Cooper, likely looking end, has returned to school and has strengthened Coach Bell's line-up. Beck and Collingwood are two prospects who loom up strong. Thomas, the fullback.

Scholastic Football Schedule for Today

Lansdowne High vs. Penn Charter School, at Penn Charter. Chester High School vs. Central High, at Central High. Swarthmore High vs. Episcopal Academy, at Episcopal Academy. West Philadelphia vs. Radnor High, at Radnor. Ridley Park vs. St. Luke's School, at St. Luke's. South Philadelphia vs. Haverford School, at Haverford. West Catholic High vs. Germantown Academy, at Taber.

and Smythe, at tackle, are also showing brilliant form for the Blue and Gray. Wilmington High's cancellation did not disturb the Central High School officials. It was a simple matter to sign up another team, and in Chester High they secured a first-class attraction. Chester is not in the plier class and is sure to make things interesting.

Karristown High School walloped Palmyra High recently in the initial contest. Tomorrow the up-state stars play Allentown High, and if the football team is as big as reports state, Palmyra will have a much harder task on its hands.

Hill School Plays Williamson. Hill School has a hard game on the roster when the Williamson School eleven will be their opponents on the Pottstown field. This game will attract a large crowd. West Chester High meets Catholic High in a game in this city and as this is the first game for the Purple and Gold a large crowd of the Catholic League rooters will be on hand.

Friends' Central School and Germantown Friends' play a game on October 22 instead of tomorrow as originally planned. Next week Friends' Central nor Germantown Friends' play this week-end. Basketball has been officially ratified at Friends' Central as a major sport and the school team will open the season with another school, and a schedule of games will be arranged.

A meeting of the Interacademic League will be held next week at which the important discussion of adding other schools to this organization will be taken up.

NEW YORK SERIES FADES

President Stoneham, Back, Also Adds His Disapproval. New York, Oct. 1.—The proposed series between the Giants and the Yankees will probably not be played this season, according to a statement by Charles A. Stoneham, president of the Giants, on his return from Cuba. He said that he did not think the series practicable.

"Of course, it would be a wonderful attraction and Babe Ruth is a marvel," said Mr. Stoneham. "In the first place, the people would say it was played for mercenary reasons. It might also affect the attendance at the world's series, and therefore I would not consent to the series being played until after the world's series. This would make it necessary to keep the players, who are anxious to get home, in town for some time after the close of the season. Then the weather might be bad."
