

A BALLOON THRILLER. Two U. S. Naval Reserve officers, Lieut. Rofne Emerson and Lieut. Frank Soman, after losing basket in the Alabama balloon race, cling to rigging for thirteen hours before landing. The rigging and basket of "The Navy" are shown, as they appeared when the balloon was named. Underwood & Underwood

GERMAN GIRLS BACK AT SPORTS. Fraulein Buzilowaski, a member of the Berlin Turnverein, going over the bar in a high jump, at a recent meet in Berlin. Wide World Photo

AMERICAN MERMAIDS RETURN FROM OLYMPIC CONTESTS. They are (left to right) Aileen Riggen, Thelma Payne, Eleanor Uhl, Helen Moses and Helen Meaney, on deck of the S. S. Mobile in New York. Miss Uhl will be given a reception by Lansdowne residents on Tuesday. International

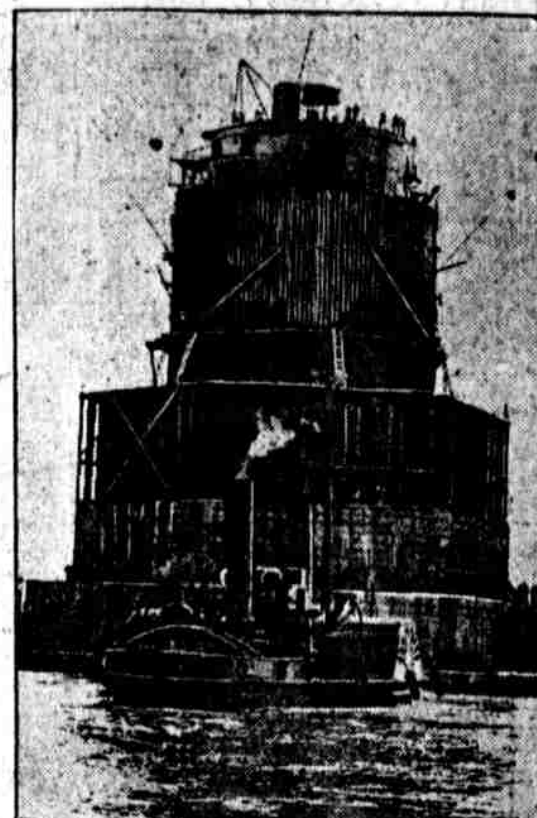

A SEA DOG. "Buster" is the official and only mascot of the U. S. S. Pennsylvania. He enjoys his job. The dog posed in a 14-inch gun. International

A BLUE RIBBON TYPE. Senior and grand champion of shorthorn cows, at the Trenton fair. The cow is listed as Miss Snowbird Sulan and is shown with its owner, Miss Ada Horne, Revere, Massachusetts. Ledger Photo Service

WITNESS IN BASEBALL SCANDAL INQUIRY. Some of the members of the White Sox lived at her home in Chicago. She is Mrs. Henrietta Kelley. International

BRITAIN'S MYSTERIOUS TOWER SHIP. Built at a cost of nearly $7,000,000, and made of concrete and steel, this ship is tied up at Shoreham, England. Its purpose is clothed in secrecy. International—Universal Film

TAKING THE SALUTE. Snapped as they reviewed the American Legion parade in Cleveland. Left to right, they are Colonel McGuig, U. S. A., Franklin d'Olier, retiring commander of the legion; Vice Admiral W. S. Grant, of the British navy, and Major General Leonard Wood. International

KENSINGTON FOLKS WERE LIBERAL. The Boy Scouts and school children did much to help the Near-East Relief "Bundle Day" drive in the northeast. The photograph was taken at the Frances E. Willard School. Joseph Perkins, Elmer Oldham and Charles W. Mulvey (left to right). Golden

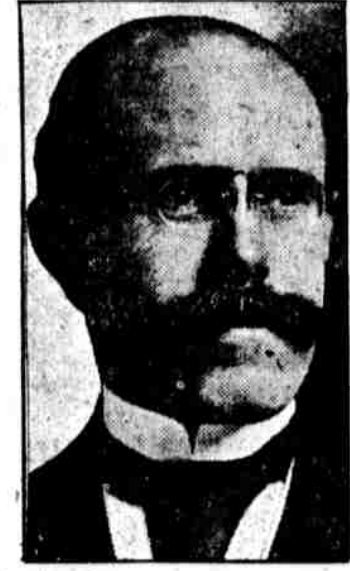

AT THE TRENTON FAIR. On the second lap of a fast two-mile race. Ledger Photo Service

PHILADELPHIANS AT WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS. Mrs. C. P. Burtener, at the left, and Miss E. Cunklin enjoy horseback riding at the West Virginia resort. Central News Photo

TOSSING THE CABER. It's a Scottish sport, that finds a place in all big sporting events held in Scottish towns. Central News Photo

GEORGE W. NORRIS discusses currency and credit in an interview on the editorial page. Phillips

EDDIE MORRIS, sixteen years old, the youngest auto racer in the United States, and his dog, "Crash," who rides with him in all races. Morris will be in the Belmont Driving Park contests. Ledger Photo Service

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

PACKING CAKES FOR SHIPMENT. Miss May Watson, 1211 Mt. Vernon street, placing cakes so that they can be shipped without damage, at the Colonial Biscuit Co., Twelfth and Brown streets. Ledger Photo Service

TWO-MILE STEEPCHASE. In this unusual race the runner is forced to make several jumps over hedges into water. The Londoner is L. W. H. Bowler. Central News Photo

JEAN MILLERAND. Son of the new president of France, who is a keen student of reconstruction of French towns. International

IN THE BUCKNELL LINE-UP. Reid, one of the star footballers of the Lewisburg eleven that will meet Penn tomorrow. Ledger Photo Service

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS SARA ROBB. 4223 Girard avenue Philadelphia