Granville Le Maistre Admits Alice Hulme's Parents 'Weren't Exactly Pleased'

PLAN HONEYMOON

The elopement of Granville Fontaine Le Maistre, of Overbrook, and Miss like Hulme, of St. Davids, was conned today. They were married in Little Church Around the Cor-irmed today.

The Little Church Around the Corler in New York.

They are at the Pennsylvania Hotel

New York, and will leave shortly on an extended honeymoon, according to the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Caroline Le Maistre, 6370 Overbrook avenue, Overbrook.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Hulme. Her father is general real estate agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad and prominent in alumni organizations of the University of Pennsylvania.

"Both our families have been fine."

our families have been fine, and we are as happy as can be," said Philadelphia Thursday

'After lunch we went to the Little Church Around the Corner and got married. That's all there is to it. My wife's parents weren't exactiy pleased, but they knew all about us, and I guess they thought we would be wanting to be married some fime. They thought we were too young. We expect to go West on our wedding tour, ut we haven't any definite plans. The young pair are well known in social circles. Mrs. Le Maistre was a schoolgirl when her husband met her. She is now nineteen years old, while the young bridegroom is twenty-two. He is an automobile salesman. He attended Haverford School and the Epis-copal Academy and entered the Uniresity of Pennsylvania, but withdrew o calist in the navy. He was sta-ioned at League Island.

BULLET HITS BOY IN HEAD

"He said he would shoot my baby, and there was nothing for me to do but give him the gold coins."

Thus Mrs. Rebecca Mande told of her encounter with an armed robber who entered the jewelry store of her husband, Louis Mange, at 713 South street, late yesterday afternoon, when she was alone with her fifteen-monthold son, Emanuel, who was sick.

The bandit, Micacia Espinosa, a Porto Rican, was arrested after a long

The injured boy is Louis Miller, ten years old, of 722 Lombard street. He was playing in the street near Eighth and Addison streets when the chase went by, and joined in it. A bullet, said to have been fired by Espinosa, struck him in the head. He is in the Pennsylvania Hospital. The bullet has been extracted. It lodged in his forehead above the nose.

"We have been selling gold foreign coins," said Mrs. Mande today, "to be worn as watch charms, and had a tray holding about $350 worth of them in the window. My husband was out.
