

WINNERS. Both men have turned in victories in the world series being staged at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn. At the left is Stanley Coveleskie, of Shamokin, Pa., who won for Cleveland on Tuesday. At the right, Burleigh Grimes, of Brooklyn, who refused to allow an Indian to cross over the home pan in yesterday's combat.

A CHAT ON GROUND RULES. In the group are Umpire Connolly, Manager Robinson, of Brooklyn; Wheat, captain of Brooklyn; Umpire O'Day, Manager Speaker, of Cleveland; Umpire Klem and Umpire Dineen, left to right.

YESTERDAY WAS HIS JOYFUL DAY. We would have you meet Eddie Brinnell, mascot of the Brooklyn Dodgers. He knows who is going to win the series.

FRENCH WOMEN IN ATHLETICS. The war problems have resulted in bringing French women into many types of outdoor athletic work. We introduce a French shot-putter.

A CLAM DIGGER. She's very well dressed to be working, but the happy Japanese girl has the clam-digging outfit with her.

PRESIDENT OF FRANCE. Alexandre Millerand, new head of the French Government.

READY FOR INITIATION. Looks like a line-up for the bleacher tickets at a world series baseball game, but it isn't. These men were last night initiated into the series of the Lu Lu Temple, of Mystic Shrine, at the Metropolitan Opera House.

ONE OF THE VISITORS. Lu Lu Temple entertained hundreds of out-of-town shrine members last night, among them being many from the Almas Shrine Band, of Washington. Here we have the leader, Henry B. Schmidt.

LIVE LETTER BLOCKS. These eight girls will take part in the Y. W. C. A. production of "Fi-Fi" at the Metropolitan Opera House next week.

THE THEATRICAL EXCURSION. Scores of theatrical folk, connected with the Harding and Coolidge Theatrical League, went by special train to greet Senator Harding at Marion, O. Among those in the group are Leo Carillo, Al Jolson and Eugene O'Brien.

AT HOT SPRINGS. Miss Lois Smith, of New York, among the large number of society people enjoying the resort.

HOST TO SYNOD. The Rev. Jerome M. Guss, pastor of Muhlenberg Lutheran Church, Thirteenth and Ruscomb streets, where convention is being held.

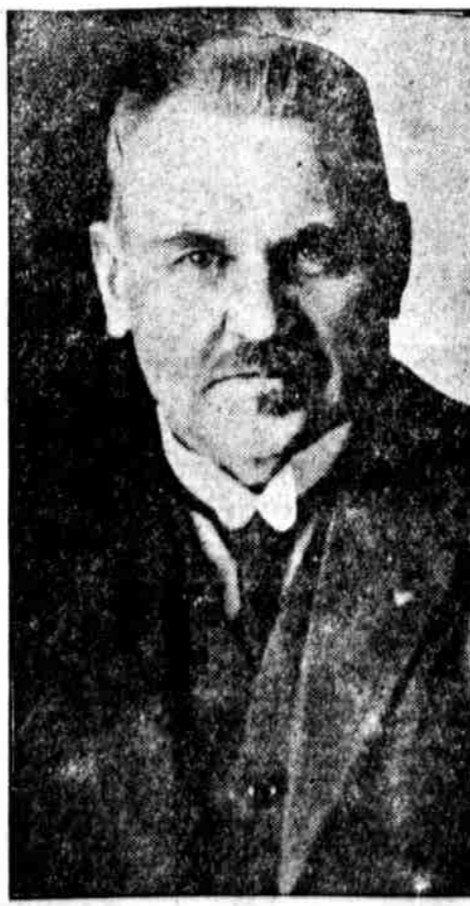

MRS. HENRY C. BOYER discusses the readjustments in the life of the ex-service man in an interview on the editorial page.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

OPERATING AN AUTOMATIC FINISHING SCREW MACHINE that completes 3000 screws a day at the Wisco Screw and Machine Works, Seventh and Wood streets. The operator is George Werner.

FINLAND'S PROHIBITION COMMISSIONER. Dr. Matti Helonius-Seppala, of Helsingfors, is routing Finland's moonshiners.

HOW DO YOU LIKE THEM? These men are wearing paper clothes, a part of the exhibition at the Chamber of Commerce.

MISS TILLIE F. THOMPSON, who has volunteered for work in the Legal Aid Bureau. She will look after women applicants.
