MISS STIRLING IS FIVE UP AT TURN

Gets Big Lead on Mrs. Hurd on First Nine for National Golf Title

Cleveland, O., Oct. 9.—Miss Alexa Stirrling, national champion since 1916. led Mrs. J. V. (Dorothy Campbell) Hurd, North and South champion, 5 up, at the end of the first nine holes in finals for the women's golf cham-nable of the United States at the minship of the United States at the Marfield Country Club here today. The runaway lead was considered too much for Mrs. Hurd to pull down in short nine holes, and Miss another short nine holes, and Miss Stirling was virtually conceded the title Stirling was virtually conceded the title once more by the fans at the turn.

Her round was reminiscent of the beautiful golf Miss Stirling played against Mrs. W. A. Gavin, New York, in the finals last year, when she also amassed a large lead going out.
