Nancy Wynne Hears That Captain Beylard is to Be Stationed in Kansas-Race Meet at Whitemarsh on Saturday-Debutante Doings

I WAS so sorry to hear on Saturday that Captain Harry Beylard has received orders to go from Camp Dix to Fort Riley, in Kansas. It did acem as fice to have Harry and his wife near fice to have Harry and his wife near home once more. You know Harry beylard has remained in the cavalry of the regular army and is a captain of the regular army and one one on St. James place, Harry joining her whenever able to leave Dix. But you whenever able to leave Dix. But you hands?"

Affect the damphess and cold of the first part of last week, were not saturday and yesterday wonderful days? The race meet out at the Whitemarsh was glorious, though it was really too warm out there in the sun. Watching the track, the hot air danced on the safe of the clubbourse hard by on the roof of the clubhouse hard by, and the automobiles seemed to have been shined up extra fine for the occa-

It's hard to get to Erdenheim, where the races are held, as it is quite a dis-tance from the station, but the roads out there for motoring are good and nearly every one went in motors. Next week the race meet is to be at the Huntingdon Valley Club and already many plans are in the making for dinners and suppers before and after the affair. The Richard Cadwaladers will give a uffet supper after the meet.

LWERY ONE is keenly interested in the race for the Huptingdon Val-Ly the race for the Hugtingdon Valley Challenge Cup, for I hear such herses as Welsh Strawbridge's Riverbreese, Edward Marshall's Whrilling and Ralph Strassburger's Wolferton are among the main contenders. So hat will be some race, eh, wot?

Mr. George Lorin, er has donated a sep for the meet to be called the King's cult Plate. King's Oak is the name of an of the farms on Mr. Lorimer's es-ne of the farms on Mr. Lorimer's es-pette, the name having been handed lown for more than 100 years and it sens a very appropriate one for a race of the kind.
