One of the features of Democratic candidate for Council from show last night was a display of the First Senatorial district, whose cup nomination has been contested by James II. Toughill, of the Twenty-sixth ward Democratic executive committee.

Hearing on a petition of objection filed by Toughill will take place today in Common Pleas Court No. 4. Gallagher was nominated at a recent meeting of the Democratic city committee, and his adherents assert that the nomination was strictly legal, Toughill, who was formerly a magistrate; contends that the nomination certificate is illegal, because there was not a quorum of the committee pres-ent at the meeting at which Gallagher said to have been nominated.

Toughill also declares that adequate tice was not given of the meeting He further asserts that the nomination fails to mention what party Gallagher is The Republican candidate is Charles
