

DREAMLAND ADVENTURES

Who-Who, the Watchman
By DADDY

The crows make a slight attack on Birdland. Judge Owl, warned by Peggy, tries to drive them away. Scared by many strange owl hoots, the crows flock to the council chamber, where they find themselves faced by a giant owl who calls himself Who-Who, greatest of watchmen.

CHAPTER V
The Ghost Owls

DARK clouds, swept along by the storm wind, blotted out the light of the moon. The council chamber of Birdland, where the crows had gathered in their fear of the mysterious owl, suddenly grew black.

Some of the crows, thinking this a good time to escape, spread their wings to flutter away. They were halted by a screech from Who-Who, the giant owl: "Who! Who! Who-oo-oo! Who dares to stir will stir up trouble."

At the same time the eyes of the giant owl flashed out like searchlights, their rays shining upon the huddled crows.

Foremost among the crows was Caw-Caw Crow, their leader. He blinked in the bright light from Who-Who's eyes.

Peggy and Judge Owl, looking at him from the side of the chamber, could see that he was trembling with fear.

"Who planned this night raid upon the peaceful birds of Birdland?" demanded Who-Who in a terrible voice.

"Caw-caw!" murmured the crows among themselves. "Caw-Caw! Caw-caw!"

"Who ought to be put in jail for his badness and for getting you into this mess?" demanded Who-Who sternly.

"Caw-caw! Caw-caw!" murmured the crows a little louder than before.

"You hear, Caw-Caw Crow," hooted Who-Who. "Your own crows say you should go to jail."

"Caw! Caw! I'm not to blame. They brought me along!" shivered Caw-Caw Crow. He spread his wings and with a glad "Caw! Caw!" he rose into the air.

That astonished Caw-Caw, who fully expected to be punished, it astonished Peggy and Judge Owl, for they all knew Caw-Caw Crow was guilty.

Caw-Caw's old sauciness came back to him when he heard the sentence. He spread his wings and with a glad "Caw! Caw!" he rose into the air.

At that moment the owl heads bobbed about in the stormy suits, and the queer voices arose in wailing hoots.

"Who! Who! Who-oo-oo!" hooted Judge Owl to Peggy. So it seemed to her. But Who-Who was hooting another warning to the crows:

"Who! Who! Beware what you do, or the owl ghosts will get you, too."

—and there is nothing more comfortable and practical than a jersey dress. These frocks are in reindeer, brown, navy, Pekin and Copenhagen and are made on straight lines or with little coats or pleated overskirts. Some are embroidered in wool, others in silk. Many are marked at a third less than usual, $16, $18.75, $22.50 and $25.

21 Different Models in Navy Serge and Tricotine Frocks at $20 to $25

These tailored dresses have a place in every woman's wardrobe. One pretty model has a box-pleated skirt and a beaded bodice; others show straight lines or are trimmed with leather applique or with contrasting embroidery done in wool or silk. $20, $21.75, $22.50 and $25.

Finer Afternoon Gowns

of crepe meteor, crepe-back satin, embroidered Georgette or charmeuse, beaded silk mignonette, duvetyne and fine wool velour are made in delightful ways and can be had in such fashionable colorings as reindeer, taupe, brown, navy and black. $30, $35, $39 to $78.50. (Market)

16 Different Models in Wool Dresses at $15 to $21.75

Simple and practical everyday dresses are these of serge, wool velour and silvertone. The wool velour dresses are in checks and the silvertone are in brown or blue. The serges are, of course, in navy blue. Some have pleated skirts and are trimmed with bands of ribbon or with beads. $15, $16.50, $18 and $21.75.

Four Special Groups of Dresses At $10

Young women's satin dresses in navy blue or black are cut on straight chemise lines or are trimmed with ruffles.

At $15

Satin and charmeuse dresses in navy, brown and black are made with Georgette collars and cuffs or beaded bodices and blue stitching.

At $13.25

Navy blue tricotine dresses, in a straight-line model, are embroidered with braid about the bodice and pockets.

At $31.50

New velveteen dresses have just arrived. These are embroidered quite elaborately with iridescent beads.

Dancing Frocks and Evening Gowns

Fluffy bits of taffeta and tulle, chiffon, silver lace or soft draped affairs of velvet form a gay company in the Dress Salon. Flesh pink, maize, orchid, turquoise, peach, black, white and sapphire are some of the lovely colorings. $16, $25, $33.50, $39 to $90.

500 Men's Soft Hats Reduced to $2

Soft felts and scratch felts in a variety of shapes and such good colorings as steel, Niagara gray, taupe, dark green, dark blue, olive and a few dark browns. Almost all of these hats were originally twice as much. Sizes are not complete, but there is excellent choosing among the larger sizes. (Gallery, Market)

Another Lot of Men's Splendid Percalé and Madras Shirts at $1.95

Men will have another opportunity to lay in a supply of Fall shirts at this low price. They are good, Wanamaker shirts—generously proportioned, well made and nicely finished. All have colored stripes.

Fall Neckties in Great Variety, 50c
Large open-end four-in-hand shapes. (Gallery, Market)

500 Sample Silk Blouses Special at $4.90

They are divided into two groups. One is composed of pretty blouses of Georgette crepe in flesh or white. Some of the blouses are trimmed with lace and others embroidered with dark or light silk.

The other group is of tailored, dark, striped satin blouses with convertible collars.

There are not all sizes in every style, but there are all sizes in the lot.

Special at $5.90

Tailored and trimmed blouses of good quality crepe de chine are in flesh, white, navy, black and bisque with many models to select from. (Market)

Wonderfully Good Coats Are Most Reasonably Priced in the Down Stairs Store

Another pleasant feature is the great variety of coats that you will find here—literally hundreds of different coats, suitable for every Autumn and Winter need.

Between $23.50 and $35

there are about thirty styles in silvertone, velour and polo cloth in brown, reindeer, taupe, dark green, navy and black. A pretty coat from this group is sketched. It is of velour, cut with a loose back and trimmed with rows of stitching and self-covered buttons. The collar is of sealene and the coat is lined throughout with silk. $32.50.

A New Sports Coat at $35

is of light tan polo cloth with a shawl collar of sealene fur. You have no idea how smart the combination of the tan cloth and black fur is. (Sketched.)

Between $42.50 and $69

you can choose from scores of pretty coats of tinselton, silvertone, Bolivia and woodyne with collars of racoon, Australian opossum or sealene. Many show the loose, draped lines of the dolman and all are prettily lined with silk. Women with furs which they want to wear will find plenty of fashionable wraps without fur trimming of any kind.

At $42.50, there is a Bolivia coat sketched. It is in soft shades of reindeer or brown and has no fur about it.

At $45, a velour coat in navy, taupe, brown or reindeer has a soft, deep collar of Australian opossum. This is also sketched.

Among the Finer Wraps

are soft and luxurious affairs of Bolivia, chameleon cord, llama, Caledonia and kindred fabrics. Some are very handsomely embroidered and most of them have deep, gathered cape collars of mole, squirrel, beaver, nutria, wolf or Hudson seal (dyed muskrat). Their prices start at $85 and go upward to $360.

Coats in Extra Sizes

Well-cut coats, designed for heavy figures, are of Bolivia, silvertone and velour in dark colorings. Some have collars of skunk opossum, racoon or sealene. They are in sizes 40½ to 52½ at $45 to $97.50. (Market)

Women's Full-Fashioned Silk Stockings—$1.10 and $1.65 a Pair

The $1.10 quality may be had in black and cordovan. The $1.65 quality, which is a little heavier, is in black, navy, dark gray, cordovan and African brown. (Central)

1800 Corsets Special at $1.85

Ordinarily these corsets sell for quite a bit more and this is an opportunity! There are topless models and corsets with low and medium-low bust lines; in fact, corsets for all figures. They are mostly of pink or white coutil and each corset is well made.

600 Bandeaux at 45c

This includes bandeaux of pink or white batiste, opening in back or in front. They all have tape shoulder straps. (Central)

All the Things That Girls Love to Wear Are in the Junior Store

Hundreds of New, Warm Coats

Charming Dresses for Girls of 6 to 14

These are the more individual dresses of the exclusive type, for instance, a frock with a navy serge skirt and a detachable pongee blouse. There are satin dresses with skirts that are all ruffles, party frocks of Georgette crepe and chiffon in pastel tints, dresses of taffeta and also more practical frocks of wool jersey and of serge. $6.75, $7.50 to $27.50.

Sports Suits for Juniors $17.25, $18.50, $23.50 and $25

Heather jersey suits in various models and also some tweed suits are in tones of brown, green and blue. Some of them are lined with silk. (Market)

Women Can Choose From Delightful Winter Suits With or Without Fur

The two suits that are sketched are quite representative of their groups. The one with fur is an example of the good-looking though inexpensive suits in the Down Stairs Store. It is of brown silvertone and the jacket ripples in back and is fully lined with figured silk. $26.25.

The other is a well-tailored jersey suit at $35. The clean-cut straight back, the narrow loose belt and the rows of buttons are all decidedly smart. The blue heather or Oxford wool jersey is excellent quality and the shoulders and sleeves of the jacket are silk lined.

Tweed Sports Suits for Young Women at $25

Tweed suits with mannish pockets and narrow belts are in sizes 14 to 18. The jackets are fully lined and the suits are just the thing for street and sports wear.

Silvertone suits in navy, brown or Pekin are trimmed with braid or buttons at $25 and $32.

Special at $30 and $35

Soft silvertone suits are in various models. Some are trimmed with clusters of bone buttons and have sealene collars and others have rippling coats and nutria collars.

Lovely fur-trimmed suits of fine velour are in brown, navy and reindeer. $37.50 and $39.

These are but a few of the inexpensive suits, for there is excellent variety among jersey suits at $17.25, $18.50 and $25. (Market)

New Millinery for Little Maids

The small girl must have her new Winter hat as surely as her older sister, and there is a pleasant variety here.

Felt or plush tams, little tailored hats of felt or beaver or pretty little poke shapes of velvet trimmed with furs, fancy stitching or ribbons are some of the season's fancies.

For girls of 5 to 10 and prices from $2.25 to $9.50. (Central)

500 Silk Envelope Chemises Special at $3.85
