MAIN LINE POLICE FEAR CRIME WAVE

Radnor Chief Asks for More Aides Following McFadden Jewel Robbery

MEN COVER 62 MILES

Captain Sweeney, of the Radnor ownship police, today declared he must have an additional force of men to patrol the siburban towns of the township. His statement follows the $300,000 lewel robbery at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George H. McFadden, Jr., in Villanova early last Saturday morning. Unless his force of men is augmented. Captain Sweeney declared, he will be unable to combat the crime wave this winter which is being anticipated by the police throughout the country.

Towns policed by Captain Sweeney and his men include Radnor, Bryn Mawr. Rosemont Wayne, Villanova. Garrett Hill, Ithan, Vauclain, St. Davids and Stratford.

At present there are eleven members the Radnor township police, including a captain, sergeant, two emergency men and seven patrolmen. They cover sixty-two miles of roadway twice every

Captain Sweeney wants at least five more men and be believes their pay shelld be increased from $105 to $125

Thirty-two Men at Ardmore

"A crime wave such as never before experienced is expected this winter by police throughout the state," said Cap-tain Sweeney. "We have now eleven men and that force is inadequate for our work. I will be forced to ask for a territory as large as ours, which is sixty-two miles of roadway.

"At the next meeting of the police commission I will ask for at least five more men, two automobiles of high more men, two automobiles of high Delta Epsilon Fraternity. power to combat with sufomobile bandits who pass on our roads from Philadelphia and from Pittsburgh and for a pension for the men. I will also ask for an increase for them from $105

The one chief thing in police work is to prevent crime and this cannot be lone with a small force such as we have. we are to prevent crime in our tertory we will need more men so as to over the territory oftener."

John Kent Kane, one of the comsaid: "We could use four or good men at present, although the prevention of crime. If any one at a policeman he can readily have one by calling up hendquarters. The men are satisfied with their pay.

alaries it will mean more taxes, and salaries if will mean more taxes, and I think we are paying enough now. I The executive committee consists of law received no complaints, every one seems satisfied, and I don't relish increasing the taxes. I am more than to let the future take care of The estates all have watchmen and can easily protect themselves." Mrs. George H. McFadden, Jr., today expressed the belief that the theft of her pearl necklace and other jewels from her boudoir last Saturday morning "chance work of an outside

Mrs. McFadden said she has re-ceived numerous letters concerning the of the gems, but that they had as "United States*navy," and his address as 345 Mount Vernon street, clading the internationally famous rope of pearls, has been found. Captain of Police Whaley, of Rochester, N. X., noted for his ability to trace jewel thieves, is assisting two Philadelphia detectives and Captain Sweeney in their street. Mrs. Townsend, rector of St. John E. Church, Brondway and Royden street. Mrs. Townsend is the admiral's sister. apparently been written by cranks.

Apparel for Milady

Mourning.

attractive values!

Australian Seal

Fur Coats

159.50

PAUL D. HARTENSTEIN

HARTENSTEIN HEADS PENN SOPHOMORES

Mask and Wig Man Elected Class President-Victor V. Sweeney Made Secretary

Paul D. Hartenstein was elected president of the sophomore class of the University of Pennsylvania at the anelection yesterday.

Hartenstein matriculated from the Springfield, Mass., Technical High School. In his freshman year he was chairman of the freshmen's co-operative men and that force our work. I will be forced to ask for more men soon. Captain Donaghy at Ardmore, has thirty-two men covering a territory as large as ours, which is sixty-two miles of roadway.

School. In the freshmen's co-operative committee and a member of the Wharton Honor Court. He was also a member of the Glee Club and participated in several of the Mask and Wig performances. Hartenstein is a member of the William E. Scanlon, of Johnstown, was elected vice president. He is a member of the Sigma Nu Fraternity; Victor V. Sweeney, of Cleveland, O., was elected secretary. He was graduated from the Shaw High School and was a member of the Thirty-seventh Division of the A. E. F., with the rank of sergeant. He was overseas for eight months and was wounded several time. months and was wounded several times. Sweeney is a member of the varsity football squad and a member of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

Paul A. Roth, elected treasurer, can rom the Buffalo Lafayette High School and is a member of the Scalp and Blade Fraternity,
James B. Gill was unanimously

The men are satisfied with their pay. We have increased it gradually.

Means More Taxes

"If the community wants more protection and cares to give the men higher salaries it will mean more taxes and member of the Kanna Signa Francisca." member of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity.

Then Visits Mother

Admiral Henry E. Wilson registered this morning before the County Board of Election, at Camden Courthouse, He journeyed to Camden from the Sandy Hook proving grounds, he said, and will leave for New York this afternoon, Admiral Wilson gave his occupation as "United States anavy.

18 Blum Di

1310 Chestnut Street

For Saturday-Moderately Priced Offerings in

The New Autumn Modes in

Women's & Misses' Outer Apparel

Tailleurs and Sports Suits

39.50, 49.50, 59.50 & 89.50

Duvet Superior and Veldyn-to mention but a few of the fabrics in which these Smart Suits are developed. They are all handsomely lined. They are all most

The Tailored Mode is a Specialty of our presentations always. Featured tomorrow are most varied assortments-Fur-trimmed Fashions in Silvertone, Yalama,

G. O. P. SPEAKERS TO TALK ON STREE

Crowds That Academy Can't Hold Tonight Will Yet Hear Coolidge

RALLY PLANS COMPLETED

Arrangements for open-air meetings in Broad street in connection with the Republican rally at the Academy of Music tonight indicate a record-breaking crowd of men and women voters will greet Governor Coolidge, Republican vice presidential nominee; Governor Allen, of Kansas, and Governor Sproul. Governor Coolidge will arrive at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon and will stop at the Ritz-Carlton. Governor Allea is not expected before afternoon. He will also stop at the Ritz-Carlton. Governor Coolidge, who has gained national fame for his ability to speak succinctly, will deliver an open-air address from the portico of the I nion League, in addition to his address at

Amherst Men to Appear

Governor Coolidge will be greeted at the Academy by a delegation of Am-herst College graduates now living in this city. The Amherst grads will at tend in a body, headed by C. A. Strong, of Penn Charter School, who is president of the Philadelphia Amherst College Alumni Association.

Governor Coolidge, class of 1895, is one of a number of Amherst graduates now in the public eye, others being Speaker of the House Gillett, '84; for-mer Governor Charles Whitman, of New York, '90, and former Secretary of

Allen Sure of Kansas

Governor Allen is so certain that Kansas is safe for Republicanism that ie is touring the states east of the Mississippie. Governor Sproul, fresh from a tour of West Virginia, will speak concerning the states which many consider "doubtful," but which he believes are

All three of the governors will tress the overflow meeting in Brond street. During the progress of the meeting in the Academy, other speakers will ing in the Academy, other speakers will be available for the open-air meeting.

The rally is to be held under the suspices of the Union League. Broad street will be decorated with flags and illuminated. Hummel's Veteran Corps Band will play on a specially erected stand in front of the Union League and a male quartet will sing patriotic songs.

a male quartet will sing patriotic songs.

Women voters will be shown preference in the alloting of sents at the Academy. The Prince of Wales box and the box directly opposite, have been preserved for the Remublican women's reserved for the Republican women's committee of Pennsylvania, of which Mrs. Barclay H. Warburton is president. With Mrs. Warburton will be of the most prominent women of the city and state.

The president of the Union League will call the meeting to order at 8

Dies Attending Customers

ADMIRAL WILSON TO VOTE

Mrs. Helena Ellis Keene, forty-eight years old, of 223 Market street, Camden, died suddenly today while attending to customers in the store of her husband, a caterer. Coroner Bentley gave the cause of death as heart disease.

Activities at Penn Scheduled for Today

12:30 p. m.—All University assembly in Weightman Hall, 1:00 p. m.—Undergraduate Council, meeting in senior president's office, Houston Hall.

1:30 p. m .- Wharton honor court meeting in Dr. Lichtenberger's office, Logan Hall. 4:30 p. m.-Meeting and organization of the band in Weightman Hall. 5:00 p. m.—Meeting of Punch Bowl board in Punch Bowl

7:00 p. m:-Smoker of Luzern County Club in Houston Hall. 7:30 p m.-Meeting of Club in Houston Hall. 8:00 p. m.-Mask and Wig smoker

WIN HONORS AT HARVARD

at dormitories.

S. McCloy, of Phila., Among Those Receiving Scholarships Two students from this section, one a Philadelphian, have received prizes and scholarships at the Harvard Law School, according to the official list

School, according to the official list issued today.

J. S. McCloy, of Philadelphia, is one of those awarded faculty scholarships on the basis of their high standing in studies, L. D. Alyea, of Clifton, N. J., is another recipient of a faculty scholarship. The list includes some half dozen other men from variations and paragraphs. ous parts of Pennsylvania.

Alyen is also mentioned among those very year in the law school to members of the second and third year classes holding the highest rank in the pre-ceding years. Alven is a graduate of Princeton in the 1916 class. Morris Hadley, of Cambridge, a member of the 1916 class of Yale, and son of President Hadley, of Yale, is one of the third-year law men chosen by the faculty and appointed by the corporation to the board of student advisers, which has charge of the law

WOMAN, 96, DIES IN HOME

Miss M. B. Zepp Oldest Member of Christ Evangelical Church Miss Maria B. Zepp. oldest mem-er of Christ United Evangelical hurch, Twelfth and Oxford streets, Church, Twelfth and Oxford streets, died yesterday in the Indigent Widows and Single Women's Asylum, 3615 Chestnut street, where she had been living for thirty-three years. She was ninety-six years old. Miss Zepp, who was a cripple from childhood, was well have a the asylum for her chest. known at the asylum for her cheery smile, which no amount of suffering could affect.

Funeral services will be held tomor row afternoon at the asylum, with the Rev. F. S. Borkley, pastor of the

SALES MANAGER Familiar in five Eastern States with Auto and Hardware Trade for ten years desires a job. B 512, Ledger Office

DVERTISING ideas don't just come to us at random. We labor systematically for the right ones—those that sell mer-

HERBERT M. MORRIS Advertising Agency Every Phase of Sales Promotion 400 Chestnut Street Philadelphia

Brogues

HIGH and LOW

MAN O' WAR DENIES SELF TO VISITORS

Riddle's Wonder Horse, Home From Victory, Can't Be Seen Till Wednesday

The great Man O' War is back, and in lordly seclusion. Samuel D. Riddle announced this afternoon that not even his closest friends would be allowed to see the horse until the animal has had a chance to pull himself together and rest up—get his clothes pressed, etc.—after his race against Sir Barton and long ride from Canada. Furthermore, Mr. Riddle wired J. O. Keene. Kentucky sportsman, refusing another Kentucky sportsman, refusing another race for a $50,000 purse.

ce for a $50,000 purse.

'You may state positively that the orse will remain in strict seclusion.'

Biddle this afternoon. 'This said Mr. Riddle this afternoon. This is flat and final; even my dearest friends will not be allowed to see him, so any persons who may go to trouble or inconvenience to try and see the horse are wasting their time.

"I have no desire whatever to be dis-"I have no desire whatever to be discourteous to any one, but Man O' War must be given a chance to rest up after his last race, and to recover from his thirty-hour railway journey. He came through without a delay, as the railroad to the courtey. But people extended us every courtesy. But t was a long, tiresome ride. The horse. however, is in good health, well and perfectly sound. All be wants is a bit of rest. "If anybody wants to see Man Q War I have arranged that he will posi-tively appear next Wednesday at Rose Tree, on the first day of the races. I will make arrangements there so every-body who goes will be able to see the horse in comfort, and I will try and so arrange matters that all visitors will have a good look at him.

"The horse will surely be shown at Rose Tree on Wednesday. And this is

The new and right idea in exercise is to combine muscle and mind stimulation. The Collins System does this, and in so doing is different from any other system you know.

A personal demonstration will convince you.

COLLINS INSTITUTE OF PHYSICAL CULTURE

probably the last time he will be seen in these parts, for he will then travel south, and it is a question if he will ever be in this section again.

"One more thing; this was positively his last race. He will not race again."

Mr. Riddle then showed a telegram from Mr. Keene, offering the match for the $50,000 purse, to be run at Latonia race track. Kentucky. with Willis Sharpe Killmer's Exterminator. Mr. Riddle dictated a wire to his stenographer at once, thanking Mr. Keene for his kind offer, but telling him the horse would race no more. would race no more.

AIDS TACONY ORPHANS

WON'T RACE EXTERMINATOR Margaret Herold Remembers St. Vincent's Asylum in Will

St. Vincent's Orphan Asylam, Tacony, was left $500 in the will of Margaret Herold, 1230 North Eighth street, which was admitted to probate street west of Twentysecond. His altoday. The residue of a $12,390 estate leged victim is Gertrude Cambia, of 543

U. S. S. King Launched

The United States torpedoboat de-stroyer King, named for the late Com-mander Frank R. King, who was killed in service during the world war, was launched, fully completed, at the New York shipyard, Camden, yesterday afternoon. The sponsor was Mrs. Alline A. King, of Albany, Ala., widow of the commander.

Nine-Year-Old Tells Police She Was Attacked by Companions on Parkway

An eleven-year-old boy was arrested lest night charged with assaulting and stabbing a nine-year-old girl at Twenty-second street and the Parkway. The boy is Joseph Winneck, of Perot today. The residue of a $12.390 cstate was left to a son and grandchildren.

Relatives also were beneficiaries in the wills of Josephine C. Mehl. 843 Wynnewood road, who left $5200, and Kate Stuart, 209 North Sixteenth street, who left $9400.

Inventories of personal property filed today included Charles Lupprian, $17,-173,75; Catherine A. Derbyshire, $4001,203,02, and Charles Blizard, $556,815,16.

According to the police, the girl was suddenly attacked by the three boys. She resisted them and in defending herself received a severe knife-wound of the abdomen and minor cuts of the body. Names of the two boys who were with Winneck were given to the police by the girl. She was treated by a physician near the scene of the assault and sent

WALNUT STREET HOUSE SOLD The four-story, brownstone property at 1827 Walnut street, owned by Robert K. McNeely, has been sold, it was

WEDDING GIFTS OF CRYSTAL

Fruit Bowls Sandwich Trays Nappies Fruit and Flower Centers

Comprehensive Assortment

Open in the evening till elevencandies but for quality in luncheon and afternoon tea

A Plentiful Variety of Choice

This is a clothing house with a diversified following - young men, middle-aged men, elderly men, college men and youths. Tall men, short men, stout and slender - all the varied differences of humanity.

I Each class or type demands definite details of styling. patternings, colors, textures and the proper physical proportions in their clothes. Even men in the same general class are at variance in their ideas.

That is why the extensive variety which we present makes selection easy, and it is a great satisfaction to find a store abundantly provided with clothing of the type and character which we supply.

JACOB REED'S SONS 1424-1426 Cheshnut Street

The beauty of the new Paige models sufficiently demonstrates the fact that the Paige car is more than making good its reputation as "the most beautiful car in America."

GUY A. WILLEY President

BIGELOW-WILLEY MOTOR CO

Paige Distributors 394 NORTH BROAD STREET, PHILADELPHIA

890,000. Edgar C. Cross, real estate broker, represented the sellers in the is still Speculative in Many Shops but it's a

Gilt-Edged Investment

at Perry's

Last to fall in line when clothing prices were going up, first to lead the line to facilitate theirdecline, that's our record!

Conditions are still abnormal, but Perry's are leading in the great work of readjusting prices to sane and salable levels.

> We want to see you!

SUITS $35 to $95

FALL-WEIGHT OVERCOATS $35 to $85

$35 to $100

OVERCOATS

PERRY & CO.

AT I. PRESS & SONS

520 Carats in 3 Grades

At $150.00 Carat Fine Pure White $13 carnt ... $133 5150

$332 At $285.00 Fine Blue White

Genuine Blue Jagers

S50 Carat S77 S112 $180

COR. 8TH & CHESTNUT STS.

out the world.

Apparel

Shell cordovan and Norwegian grain. Bought to sell for $15 and $16 and good values at those prices.

Large assortment of tan and black shoes, solid leather throughout, which sold two weeks ago for $10 and $11, now

41 S. Eighth

930 Chestnut

NIEDERMAN

203 N. Eighth

Travel Abroad

whether on pleasure or business is obviously more satisfactory and free from risk when funds are carried by means of letters of credit. Issued by our house, such letters become introductions to banks and bankers through-

Wraps & Coats Attractions! 49.50

This model claims devotion to a rare Wraps and Coats that are atcombination of Supreme Fur Style and Pop-ular Price! The Coat is a model 36 inches tractions in all three qualities-Style, Material and Price-level. They show in the long—with large cape collar and cuffs. It may be worn either with or without the belt. It is distinctively silk-lined. very newest effects in mixtures, Silvertones and Zibeline. They are all silk-lined in a handsome way. Some have embellishments of Fur. Both "wrappy" and more (Australian Seal is dyed coney) onservative models.

Street and Restaurant Frocks 29.50, 39.50, 49.50 & 59.50

"The Most Infinite Variety!" Such is the expression that must be used to adequately describe the remarkably splendid selections available for Tomorrow. The prettiest modes, indeed! Straight-line, Redingote and silhouette effects are favored-developed in Tricotine, Veldyn, Duvetyn, Velours de laine-for street wear. Crepe-back Satin, Kitten's Ear Crepe and Crepe de Chine-for afternoon and formal wear, as well as for restaurant and theatre. All colors-many beaded

THE BLUM STORE-A New Organization With an Old Name