

LEADER OF BRITISH COAL MINERS. Robert Smillie, who is leading the mine workers of Great Britain, who are now on strike. It is reported that nearly a million have quit work.
Central News Photo.

FRENCH GIRLS ADOPT AMERICAN SPORT. Pushball, which made its first appearance in France recently, has been accepted with great favor among the female athletes of that country.
Wide World Photo.

AT HUNTINGDON VALLEY HUNT CLUB'S MEET. By the Stars, from the Huntingdon Valley Farms, winning the third race. It was the Abington cup event.
Ledger Photo Service.

THE BOY DIDN'T KNOW. Samuel D. Riddle, owner of Man O' War, snapped as he watched the races at the Huntingdon Valley meet on Saturday. The stable boy was some authority on horses, but he didn't realize what company he was in.
Ledger Photo Service.

VINCOME DEFEATED U. S. MARINES YESTERDAY. "Yank" Schwartz, captain of the winning team (left), did wonderful work in the match that sent the service men down to defeat. The action play shows a Vincome player with the ball, who a few seconds later scored a touchdown. Lieutenant McHenry, the marine captain, at the right.
Ledger Photo Service.

FERBERT SMITH, the Yorkshire miners' leader, at the right, explains a difficult point to Mr. Roebuck, one of the English mine leaders, concerning the miners' situation in England.
Ledger Photo Service.

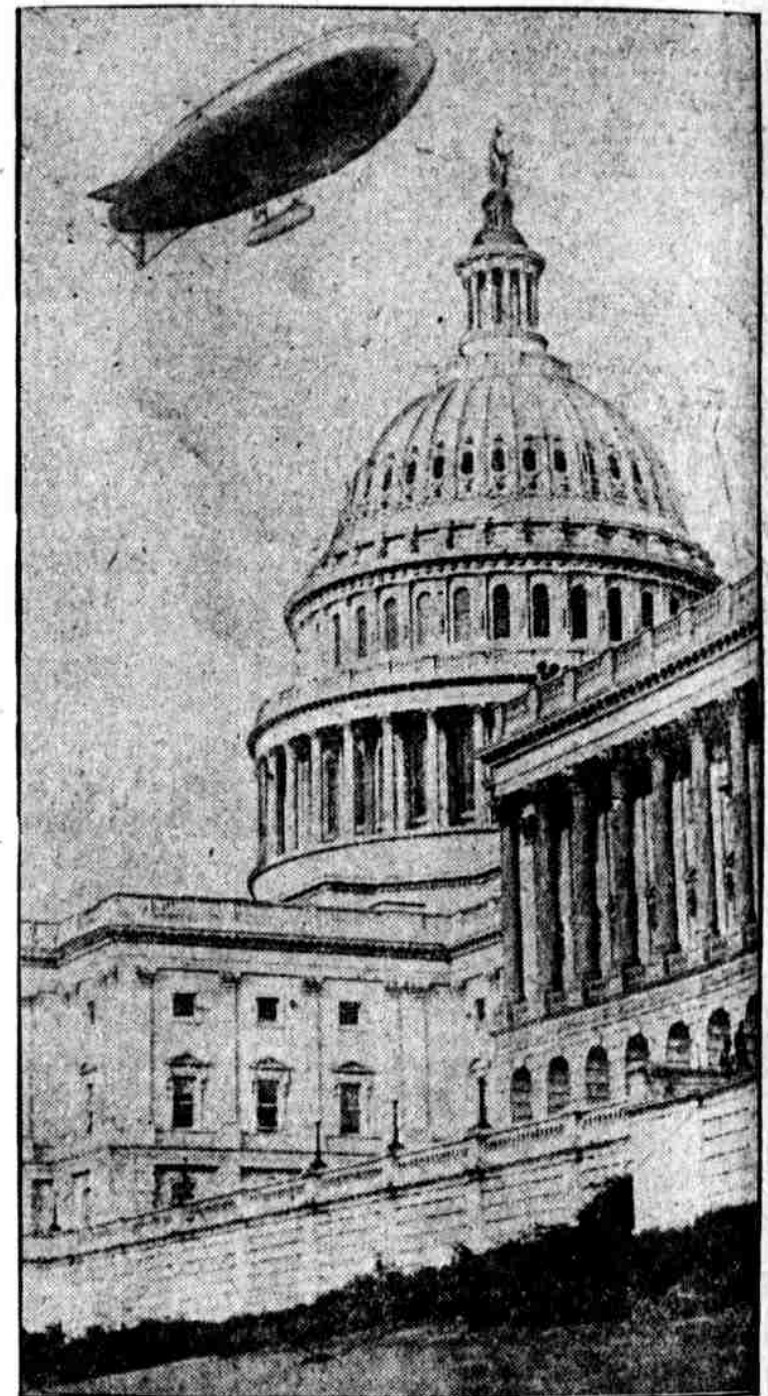

MISS ANNE McDONOUGH discusses community chorus singing in politics in an interview on the editorial page.
Mary Carnell.

SIX AT A TIME. Students of the Pennsylvania Military College going over the fence in the spring practice of the cavalry work at the Chester school.
J. E. Green.

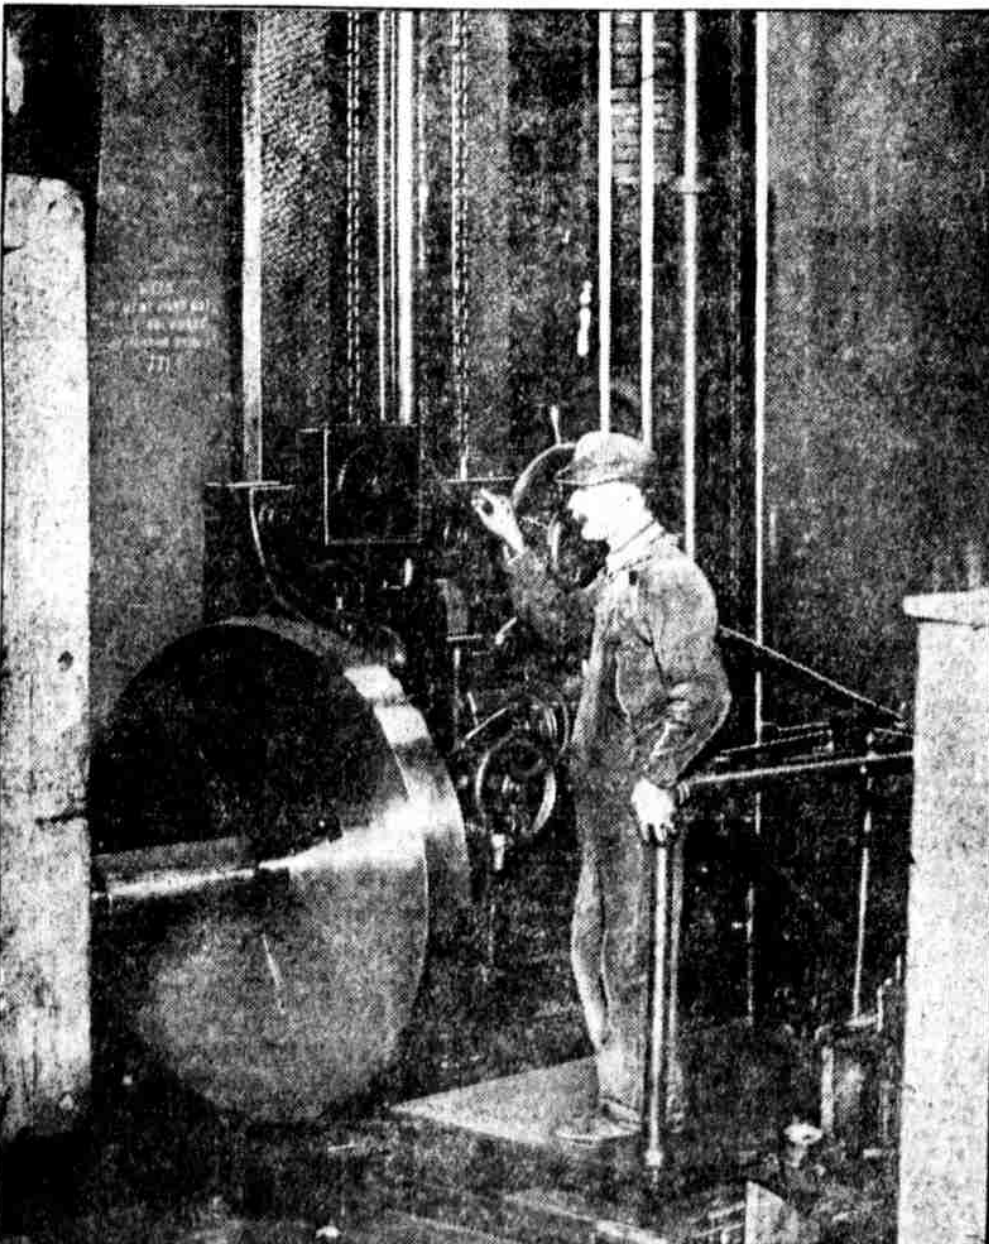

RUMANIAN PRINCESS GOES ON STAGE. Princess Helene Cantacuzene, of Rumania, discards her social position to accept a theatrical offer.
Kadai & Herbert.

OVER THE CAPITOL. An army dirigible circling around the government buildings in Washington.
Carl T. Thayer.

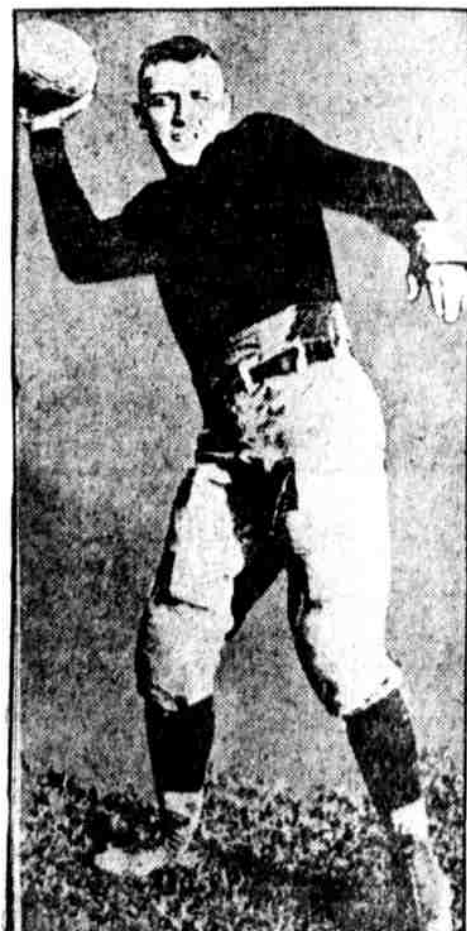

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

CHARLES LYNCH, 1616 Montgomery avenue, cutting large parts with a boring machine at the Bement-Miles Co., Twenty-first and Cullowhill streets.
Ledger Photo Service.

MAKING SAUERKRAUT. This group of lads, formerly residents of the congested section of Philadelphia and New York, changing cabbage from its natural form into tasty sauerkraut, at the National Farm School.

WILL TACKLE PENN NEXT WEEK. Captain Hess, of the Penn State football team, whose forward pass work has caused much annoyance to opposing teams.
Central News Photo.

PRINCESS GIOVANELLI. The lady in waiting to the Queen of Italy and one of the leading members of Roman society.
Central News Photo.

TWO HERO CAPTAINS. They did mighty clever work in the football encounter between Penn and Lafayette on Saturday. Carl Thomas, of Penn (left), and Frank Schwab, of Lafayette.
Ledger Photo Service.

MISS ANNA CALLAHAN, 522 North Fifty-ninth street Philadelphia.
Photo by Globe Studio.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS ANNA CALLAHAN, 522 North Fifty-ninth street Philadelphia.
Photo by Globe Studio.