Roper's Football Team Has Three Sets of Dependable Backs-Line Not So

READY FOR MIDDIES

By SPICK HALL Princeton, N. J., Oct. 20. DRINCETON has a football team this Princetton has a football team this year that should do even better than last against her life-long rivals, Harvard and Yale. In 1919, the Tigers, playing in Palmer Stadium, outplayed Harvard during the greater part of the game, but the wonderful running of Eddie Casey gave the Crimson a touchdown in the late minutes of the game of the score was tied at the finish. down in the late minutes of the game and the score was tied at the finish. 10-10. In the Yale bowl before a capacity crowd of some sixty odd thousand rooters. Bill Roper's eleven got away with the game 13 to 6. That isn't a bad record, but this year if the Orange and Black plays true to form, both Harvard and Yale should be

At the close of last season it was felt at Princeton that the loss of Maurey Trimble and Jack Strubing would ruin Trimble and Sacar, but it appears that the team this year, but it appears that Roper was looking ahead. He was de-reloping players for the future, as the fine work of the backfield in the games fine work of the backfield in the games this season proves.

The first real test for the Princeton eleven comes on Saturday, when the Navy travels to the educational center of Mercer county. When the whistle blows for the kickoff. Princeton will be in the best shape of the season and they will need to be. Although the naval eleven was beaten in its opening game by North Carolina, the last two weeks have shown that the middies are going to have a rattling good team before the season is much older.

Developing Rapidly

In that initial contest, many of the best Navy men were not in the line-up because they had not returned from Europe where they took part in the Olympic games, but now everything is noints to Princeton's total and not return the property of the property of the property of the property of the princeton's total and not return the princeton's total and the princeton that the princeton the princeton the princeton the princeton the princeton the princeton that the princeton that the princeton the princeton that the princeton the princeton the princeton the princeton that the princeton the princeton the princeton the princeton the princeton that the princeton the princeton that the princeton the princeton that the princeton Olympic games, but now everything is set and Bob Folwell has been speeding time he delivered the goods and then Princetonians believe that the Orange and Black will win from the Navy, but they realize that it can't be done without a struggle. Folwell is a wise football coach and whenever his team goes into a game, the opposing bunch can rest assured that they have no easy task to come through on top.

Roper realizes that the Navy is going to make a fight and he has been driving his team all this week at a fast clip.

All of the sick, halt and everything are

All of the sick, halt and everything are back in the line-up. Al Wittmer, Mel Dickenson and Captain Mike Callahan were on the binnacle list, but they are in good condition again and expect to play through the Navy game. Thompson has been out for a couple of weeks, but he, too, is ready to make a strong bid for a backfield position. He a strong bid for a backheid position. He was on the field yesterday and had a long workout with the varsity. Although Rutan won't be in the game, he won't be missed much because Hooper is ready and will perform just as well.

Roper has three sets of high-grade backs that he can use at any time. All backs that he can use at any time. All of them are versatile players and there is no reason why they should not show a lot of offensive ability against the Navy. Last Saturday against Washing-ton and Lee the Tigers for the first time this season exhibited extreme ac-curacy with the forward pass. This means that they have developed an all-the season and it has improved vastly since the opening contest.

Combination Stars In Don Lourie Princeton has a fine combination man. Lourie played in a number of games last year and that experience has made him a man that can be depended upon, to either run, punt or pass. He does most of the endrunning and his other offensive assets made him invaluable to the team. Gilroy is a very good man on the offense and is exceptionally clever at breaking up plays on the defense. He tackles hard and is usually in the right place. Hank Garrity did excellent work for Roper last genson and this year has done even better. He has blossomed In Don Lourie Princeton has a fine
