SAW Frances Leaf at the Bellevue the other day at luncheon. She was beautifully gowned in some of her new Paris creations. You know she was the other side this summer, and she had a really wonderful time. The dress sh a really wonderful time. The dress she was wearing the other day was a one-piece model of pearl gray gabardine, very effectively embroidered in dark blue and silver. She wore a black hat with black lace falling from the rim, in the short veil style. Her fur was a scarf of gray squirrel and she wore Flench slippers of black suede with black straps fastening them across the nakle. She looked very stunning.

McKean Allen was announced in the late spring. They are not going to be married this fall, but McKean is going married this fall, but hickesh is going on with his work, and though I have not heard positively, I think the mar-riage bells will ring out in June.
