Misses' Tricotine Dresses

Four Uniquely Smart Models

---at $39.75

Reproductions — to the life!—of double—the-price originals.

One with the long bugle-beads in jet-effect on both bodice and skirt.

One with the new slashed tunic—and lavishly embroidered with the new iridescent beads.

A beauty with its "coat-top" embroidered—just on the peplum, but all over that!

And the darling style pictured—"apron" front and back, laid in deep tucks and showing the satin under-dress at the sides.

With the Wee, Smart Pleatings That Make the Whole Thing "Different"

1500 Silk Waists

—Anniversary Specials

at $3.95

Pongee—the silk pongee that out-tubs and out-wears pretty nearly every silk that's made. Tuxedo collar. Natural color.

Habutai at $3.95 —with the smart, becoming, Buster Brown collar, pleating trimmed. White only.

Crepes de chine—semi-tailored; black, navy blue, pink and white.

And Hand-made Lingerie Waists at $3.95

Sheer, fine batiste. Roll-collar. Long sleeve. Hand-hemstitched for trimming.

—Gimbels, Salons of Dress, Third floor.

Women's Coats—the Coziest, Easiest, Prettiest Wrappy-Wrap of the Season—

"Anniversary-Specialled" at } $37.50

Of fine wool-velour. Silk-lined, of course.

But it's the way those stunning arrow-heads dart way down the back—and the way the under-arm panelling achieves its smart angle—and that dream of a collar crushes softly about the throat.

Duplicated, with border of seal-dyed coney on the collar—at $42.50.

Two Straight-Line Specials at $29.75

Wool velour—tailored to a rare degree. Black, navy blue, brown, taupe and green.

The Oldest Man in the World!

JUST part of a skull, two molar teeth and a thigh bone! Pieced together, he propounded one of the most perplexing conundrums in the study of human ancestry. Were these the remains of an ape-like man who lived 500,000 years ago? The evolution of the human race—what did primitive man look like?—was Asia the cradle of mankind?—these were some of the things men pondered. And science was not satisfied.

Now a great expedition is planned to search for the ancestors of this ape-man. In the NOVEMBER number of

ASIA

The American MAGAZINE on the Orient
MORE THAN 60 ILLUSTRATIONS—8-PAGE ART INSERT is told the fascinating story of this Expedition to be conducted by the American Museum of Natural History, in cooperation with the American Asiatic Association and ASIA. The expedition will be led by Roy Chapman Andrews, who outlines the far-reaching plan in "A New Search for the Oldest Man."

"CIVIL WAR AS A PROFESSION IN CHINA"
Join O. P. Bland, one of the most expert writers on the Far East, tells the tragic and humorous elements of the disruption of China's government under the plundering Tschous—the counterparts of the robber barons of the Middle Ages.

"WILLARD STRAIGHT—War Correspondent"
A Japanese boy of twelve, a naked knife in his own hand at his vital, did he dare kill himself?—the Samurai test of a warrior's nerve! Willard Straight's own diary as war correspondent tells this and many other stories of what the Russians faced when they fought Japan.

"JUNGLE STRATAGEMS AND SPOILS"
Charles Mayer spent a lifetime catching alive great pythons, lions, tigers, elephants and monkeys in the jungles of the East. He is telling his adventures in ASIA.

"WHEN HINDUSTAN WENT DRY"
Al-ad-din Khalji, the sultan of Hindustan from 1296 to 1321, one day issued an edict that there should be no more drinking in his realm. Yet we think our problems today have never been known to previous generations! Read Gordon B. Enders' article.

We are glad to act as clearing house for manufacturers who, with enlightened foresight, are taking big money losses to restore normalcy in production and distribution. Most of them will pocket a fat money loss on the whole era of war prices, because operating costs and excess profit taxes took the "fat" that would have averaged matters.

We stand ready to market large lots in every line of goods.

This Subway Store Shoe Sale is arranged for quick and pretty comfortable service.
