

Evening Public Ledger
PUBLIC LEDGER COMPANY
CYRUS H. K. CURTIS, President
Published daily at Public Ledger Building
Subscription Terms

PRO-LEAGUE REPUBLICANS
ARE NOT INCONSISTENT
They Can Vote Their Party Ticket Confidently That Their Desire to Co-operate in World Peace Will Be Gratified

Mr. Root's speech is an admirable exposition of the Republican attitude on the whole question. It reviews the history of the covenant, setting forth the ends sought to be accomplished, the means adopted to secure those ends and the objections raised in the United States to some of the means.

CHICAGO'S NEW PAPER
A Christian Daily Newspaper for the Windy City—Outfit Bought Here. Cortelyou's New Plans Are Developing

Member of the Associated Press
This Association's Press is established to insure the widest possible circulation of news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper, and the local news published therein.

SEVEN-CENT FARES
DO THE gentlemen of the Public Service Commission and the stock-jobbers in their ante-rooms know more about the technical requirements of the street car lines in this city than the man who revitalized the disintegrating corpse of the P. R. T. and made of it an efficient organization with a strike-proof system that recently has been the envy and admiration of the public in almost every other city in the country?

Now, this newspaper has never said that our entrance into the League of Nations was possible only if Mr. Harding were elected. It has been particularly careful to refrain from any such statement, for the reason that it is persuaded that whether Mr. Harding or Mr. Cox is elected the United States will enter the league under conditions satisfactory to a majority of the people.

It is hard to find a man who, in any discussion of national affairs, will not begin with a triumphant assertion that "the war is over." In some ways the war is over. In other ways the war will go on as a factor in the life of this country for a quarter of a century.

SECRETARY HOUSTON, OF THE TREASURY, saw the war as a continuing problem when he addressed the convention of the American Bankers' Association at Washington.

THE national government will not repudiate a penny of its debts. The bonds must be redeemed and interest on them must be paid. So long as we stand apart from international councils organized in the interest of peace we must prepare for war or ignore the first laws of common sense.

MR. WOOD started to Washington yesterday to arrange for a Washington news service and to establish a bureau in that city.

THE idea suggests itself that the business impulse behind the new Chicago daily is that, inasmuch as there are but two morning papers in the second city of the republic, a publication of the character he is about to establish will have more than a reasonable chance of success.

NOW MY IDEA IS THIS!
Daily Talks With Thinking Philadelphians on Subjects They Know Best

ALEXANDER VAN RENSSLAER
On "Welcoming the Seaman"
IT WILL be a big thing for Philadelphia!

streets, the site that has been chosen for the hotel. We have been able to offer a certain amount of club life to the men and the response has been, to say the least, convincing.

SHORT CUTS
In thirteen more days the I-told-you-will be very busy.

Mitten, who played an open game and put his cards on the table because he knew that other methods do not pay in the long run, was fooled and outplayed, just as the public was fooled and outplayed. The service commission and the group whose views its members represent played in the dark.

It is clear now that the decision to scrap the Mitten plan and substitute another one more favorable to interests that have no real concern with Philadelphia was reached last week and became at once known to a limited group even while the officials who actually operate the P. R. T. were left without a hint of what was pending.

Money, even for the uses of a beneficent government, does not fall from the clouds. The cost of the war will have to be paid out of the toil of Americans and out of the resources of our soil and our brains.

ROBERT D. HARPER in a general way is unquestionably one of the best-posted men in municipal affairs in this city. He is chief clerk in the Mayor's office.

Club Life Necessary
Shipping interests recognize this fact, and we have been assured of the support of many men influential in these circles.

What Do You Know?
1. When will Congress count the electoral votes of the coming presidential election?

Whether one believes what Mr. Harding says or Mr. Cox says is just outside the question. It is easy to chop logic about one or the other being a liar, but that does not get us anywhere. The next President and the next Senate will have to face existing facts, and if they do not know it already they will discover that the formation of a new association of nations independent of the present league or as a substitute for it will be impossible.

When we express the belief that the entrance of the United States into the league will be easier under Republican leadership than under Democratic leadership we merely face the facts as they have already been disclosed.

THE working budget for the next fiscal year will, in Mr. Houston's opinion, require revenues of not less than $2,000,000 for current expenditure. Where is the money to come from? Mr. Houston observed that income and special tax receipts show a disposition to decline.

THE political worker declined the appointment of a congressional patron because it is not his business to do so. The office seeker replied: "You must have four or five hundred of these sort of monthly sheets hanging up around the building. Get me the job of tearing off the monthly sheet from these cardinals. That's the kind of a job I want. I'll have to work one day a month then."

Answers to Yesterday's Quiz
1. The third republic of France has been in existence fifty years, since September 4, 1870.

From York, Pa., comes the story of a hen that has kidnapped a kitten and drives the mother cat away. Doubtless a feminist with a few theories she wishes to work out.

Under the circumstances, it is the part of wisdom to discontinue the leader who by their influence over a minority in the Senate has been able to block ratification. The way to do this is to elect a Republican President and to increase the Republican majority in the Senate, so that those Democrats who have followed the leadership of Mr. Wilson may find their power curtailed.

THE point on which the friends of international cooperation have split is Article X, which is admitted on all hands to support the United States to use its army and navy to settle European boundary disputes.

THE ease with which it is possible for these degenerates to obtain a supply of drugs is responsible for the growing use of drugs in this city.

THE silver mine in the lowland, The brown hill and the glade; The squirrels storing their harvest— The time when the migrants trade.

Autumn
THE vine in the air of autumn, The blue in the vapor dome, The laden live in the orchard.

Four army airplanes flying from Nome, Alaska, to Mineola, N. Y., arrived in Erie, Pa., yesterday, and the populace has almost as much interest in the stupendous feat as it has in the physical condition of a fourth-rate prize-fighter.

History is repeating itself. All these things have occurred before.

As a matter of fact, Article X would not have been inserted in the covenant if the nations framing it had been convinced that the world was ready for universal peace. Yet Mr. Wilson insists that it is the heart of the whole document and that if it is

There is no question that popular sentiment was deeply aroused by the financial disabilities of the board, and the impression that it has been strained to the utmost is authentic. The legislators, meeting in Harrisburg this winter, must either recognize this sentiment or repudiate their constituents.

There is no question that popular sentiment was deeply aroused by the financial disabilities of the board, and the impression that it has been strained to the utmost is authentic. The legislators, meeting in Harrisburg this winter, must either recognize this sentiment or repudiate their constituents.

Should Be From His Name
From the Hawthorn County (Miss.) News
Burly Smith seems to be a good blacksmith nowadays.

In the autumn when the frost Turns the leaves to red and yellow, And the nuts are downy tossed, Chipmunk is a lucky fellow. He, accepting Nature's gift, Hoards them just as though he'd bought 'em.

MOORE LOOKS AHEAD
IN VETOING the hastily devised gas survey bill the Mayor has bravely and decisively recognized the public interest.

As a matter of fact, Article X would not have been inserted in the covenant if the nations framing it had been convinced that the world was ready for universal peace. Yet Mr. Wilson insists that it is the heart of the whole document and that if it is

There is no question that popular sentiment was deeply aroused by the financial disabilities of the board, and the impression that it has been strained to the utmost is authentic. The legislators, meeting in Harrisburg this winter, must either recognize this sentiment or repudiate their constituents.

There is no question that popular sentiment was deeply aroused by the financial disabilities of the board, and the impression that it has been strained to the utmost is authentic. The legislators, meeting in Harrisburg this winter, must either recognize this sentiment or repudiate their constituents.

Joyous Tidings
From the Boston Evening Transcript
Good news for circus fans and gallery goers! Consular reports bring the news that a huge crop of peanuts is promised in the Madras presidency of India.

Four army airplanes flying from Nome, Alaska, to Mineola, N. Y., arrived in Erie, Pa., yesterday, and the populace has almost as much interest in the stupendous feat as it has in the physical condition of a fourth-rate prize-fighter.

MOORE LOOKS AHEAD
IN VETOING the hastily devised gas survey bill the Mayor has bravely and decisively recognized the public interest.

As a matter of fact, Article X would not have been inserted in the covenant if the nations framing it had been convinced that the world was ready for universal peace. Yet Mr. Wilson insists that it is the heart of the whole document and that if it is

There is no question that popular sentiment was deeply aroused by the financial disabilities of the board, and the impression that it has been strained to the utmost is authentic. The legislators, meeting in Harrisburg this winter, must either recognize this sentiment or repudiate their constituents.

There is no question that popular sentiment was deeply aroused by the financial disabilities of the board, and the impression that it has been strained to the utmost is authentic. The legislators, meeting in Harrisburg this winter, must either recognize this sentiment or repudiate their constituents.

Should Be From His Name
From the Hawthorn County (Miss.) News
Burly Smith seems to be a good blacksmith nowadays.

In the autumn when the frost Turns the leaves to red and yellow, And the nuts are downy tossed, Chipmunk is a lucky fellow. He, accepting Nature's gift, Hoards them just as though he'd bought 'em.

MOORE LOOKS AHEAD
IN VETOING the hastily devised gas survey bill the Mayor has bravely and decisively recognized the public interest.

As a matter of fact, Article X would not have been inserted in the covenant if the nations framing it had been convinced that the world was ready for universal peace. Yet Mr. Wilson insists that it is the heart of the whole document and that if it is

There is no question that popular sentiment was deeply aroused by the financial disabilities of the board, and the impression that it has been strained to the utmost is authentic. The legislators, meeting in Harrisburg this winter, must either recognize this sentiment or repudiate their constituents.

There is no question that popular sentiment was deeply aroused by the financial disabilities of the board, and the impression that it has been strained to the utmost is authentic. The legislators, meeting in Harrisburg this winter, must either recognize this sentiment or repudiate their constituents.

Joyous Tidings
From the Boston Evening Transcript
Good news for circus fans and gallery goers! Consular reports bring the news that a huge crop of peanuts is promised in the Madras presidency of India.

Four army airplanes flying from Nome, Alaska, to Mineola, N. Y., arrived in Erie, Pa., yesterday, and the populace has almost as much interest in the stupendous feat as it has in the physical condition of a fourth-rate prize-fighter.

MOORE LOOKS AHEAD
IN VETOING the hastily devised gas survey bill the Mayor has bravely and decisively recognized the public interest.

As a matter of fact, Article X would not have been inserted in the covenant if the nations framing it had been convinced that the world was ready for universal peace. Yet Mr. Wilson insists that it is the heart of the whole document and that if it is

There is no question that popular sentiment was deeply aroused by the financial disabilities of the board, and the impression that it has been strained to the utmost is authentic. The legislators, meeting in Harrisburg this winter, must either recognize this sentiment or repudiate their constituents.

There is no question that popular sentiment was deeply aroused by the financial disabilities of the board, and the impression that it has been strained to the utmost is authentic. The legislators, meeting in Harrisburg this winter, must either recognize this sentiment or repudiate their constituents.

Should Be From His Name
From the Hawthorn County (Miss.) News
Burly Smith seems to be a good blacksmith nowadays.

In the autumn when the frost Turns the leaves to red and yellow, And the nuts are downy tossed, Chipmunk is a lucky fellow. He, accepting Nature's gift, Hoards them just as though he'd bought 'em.