Russell Tucker's frock I hear is to be of white brocaded satin combined with tulle, the bodice embroidered with white beads. Opalescent bands will be over the shoulders. I did not hear them say what flowers she will wear, for of course you have caught on to the fact that Nancy happened along when the frocks they were to wear, were being discussed by the three maidens. Mrs. Ashton, Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Tucker will receive of course, and Tucker will receive of course, and several others have been asked to as-sist at the tea table and in various December 1.

DELAIDE SOUDER is also to be A DELAIDE SOUDER is also to be introduced this afternoon at her home in Ardmore, so it will be just a little trip up there from Wynnewood, which comes first on the main line. Marianne Harris, Evelyn Page, Adel-aide Jones, Sarah Fox and several other girls will receive with Adelaide, who will be gowned in white satin made with a silver bodice and will have a large tulle bow at the back. The skirt will also be trimmed in silver. Mrs. Souder has decided upon a black satin freek.

THE MEDAL OF HONOR PACKAGE

Lowney's Crest Medal of Honor package came to Philadelphia in 1916-right after Lowney's received the "Medal of Honor" at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Since that time so many people have found Medal of Honor such a good box of candy to eat that today it is a leader on the shelves of all good drug and confectionery stores in the city.

The Walter M. Lowney Company 427 Commercial St., Boston, Mass.

The luxury of "the big New York hotels" is proverbial. But it remained for Hotel Pennsylvania to provide such unusual comforts as the two big swimming pools (one for men, one for women)-around each of which is built a complete Turkish Bath establishment such as you will hardly find elsewhere

When you go to New York, make the Pennsylvania your home. There you will be surrounded by conveniences and comforts which you do not expect to find in a hotel. And that is one of the reasons why the Pennsylvania is preferred by so many thousands of discriminating travelers who want "the best there is" when Licy are in New York.
