Princeton Quarterback | Saturday's Results Went Through Entire Eleven; Lourie Star in Tigers' Victory

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 25. TRANK MURREY'S run of 87 yards for Princeton's second touchdown sinst the Navy in Palmer Stadium turday was one of the greatest in-Saturday was one of the greatest in-dividual performances ever seen on a football field. Because Don Lourie, the other Tiger quarterback, had made a touchdown in the second period, this other Tiger quarterback, had made a touchdown in the second period, this score was not needed and consequently campet be said to have won the game. But that does not detract in the least from the wonderful sprint that began under the shadow of Princeton's goal posts and ended when the speedy Tenpessean dived from the 5-yard line over the goal with McKee at his heels.

Glancing over the list of great runs the goal with McKee at his heels.
Glancing over the list of great runs ebronicled in football history, it will be noted that in the vast majority of cases the dashes were made either on recovered fumbles, giving the runner a clear field before he started, or from points on the gridiron where the runner had only a few men to dodge before getting over the line.

All this time his direction had been at an angle of about forty-five degrees with the goal line. When he had reached this nt, however, he did column half right and went straight toward the goal. Cruise made a savage dive only to have Murrey bury his head in the tury with a perfect straight-arm and side step. Murrey then flew over the chalk marks with a clear field to the gont. Evidently he heard McKee pounding after him for at the 5-yard mark he left his feet, diving the remaining distance and putting the ball a few feet over the line as he slid along.

Don Lourie Stars

Before he gave way to Murrey, Don Lourie played a remarkable game and was given a tremendous ovation as he walked down the track and out of the stadium wrapped in his army blafiket. It was in the second period that Don pulled of a series of sensational plays that gave Princeton her first touchdown. Starting at the 25-yard mark, Lourie shifted the Navy's left wing for 20 yards. Then two fine forward passes from Lourie to Davis took the ball to the 15-yard mark, Fron there Lourie made the touchdown, sprinting over to the side line and then going straight to the goal with the chalked boundary

100-Mile Auto Race

Henry Williams, of Philadelphia, drove his No. 2 Ford special across a winner in the 100-mile automobile clustical they did stance from the Tigers' line and after Louries touchdown at the beginning of the second period, Princeton really had little to fear.

The Navy's line as a whole outplayed Princeton's forwards. That accounts for the fact that the Navy outrushed the Tigers 25-5, and the 100 miles, 76:18 2-5, the goal with the chalked boundary urday 24-0.

Soccer, like football, hed many reverses on aSturday. One that attracted more attention than the rest was to find the Wolfenden-Shore go down to defeat by the "Hibernians." This defeat by the "Hibernians." This was due to the injury of two of its players—Pete Jackson having received a dislocated shoulder, while Milligan was so badly injured that it was necessary to place his limb in a plaster cast. Another upset was the victory of Marshall E. Smith over the J. & J. Dobson team, last year's double champions, the store team winning by a score of 2 goals to 1. Throughout the second half the mill boys outplayed the Smith team, they lacked the shooting powers to even the score.

Next year both Syracuse and Pennsylvania are due to play here, giving the Panthers two more home sames than they had this year, so it is likely that the first game with Dartmouth will take place in the East next year then in Pittsburgh in 1922.

With Bellhaven at Football
The football team from the Curtis Country Club fought the Bellhaven A. A. eleven to a 12-to-12 deadlock yesterday afternoon, before an exceptionally large crowd, at Fifty-fourth street and Elmwood avenue.

Bellhaven did all its scoring in the opening period, pulling a series of trick plays for the initial tally and later fooling the Curtis warriors with a triple crisscross that netted a second touchdown. The second quarter was scoreless, both teams trying in vain to gain consistently.
