

CLEARING TRACKS. This group of workmen and many others worked all night removing the wreckage from and repairing the Pennsylvania Main Line tracks at Radnor, following the wreck of Sunday. At noon today No. 1 track was still closed to traffic. Ledger Photo Service.

WRECKED CARS. Pennsylvania R. R. wrecking crews pulled the tangled steel cars from the Main Line tracks at Radnor, setting them over the embankment to get tracks cleared. Ledger Photo Service.

YOUNGEST STUDENT HEADS LINE. Edward Rochie Hardy, Jr., Columbia University's twelve-year-old student, joins with the freshmen as they line up in tug-of-war with sophomores. Ledger Photo Service.

PROTECTION AGAINST DUST. The speedy races at the Belmont racetrack on Saturday raised plenty of dust. Miss Nan Crowell used a newspaper to protect her clothing. Ledger Photo Service.

CLAUDIO MUZIO. The soprano of the Metropolitan Opera House of New York, who has returned from a South American trip. Central News Photo.

AT THE ROSE TREE HUNT. Mrs. Vincent Lyon (left) and Miss Elizabeth Wannemaker find good seats on top of automobiles, from where they watch the doings of Saturday afternoon. Ledger Photo Service.

AT THE ROSE TREE HUNT. Mrs. Vincent Lyon (left) and Miss Elizabeth Wannemaker find good seats on top of automobiles, from where they watch the doings of Saturday afternoon. Ledger Photo Service.

WINNER OF THIRD RACE. Saumanga, owned by George Brooke, 3d, going over a hedge in the Media plate steeplechase at the Rose Tree Hunt. Ledger Photo Service.

LEATHER WORKERS IN ATHLETIC CONTESTS. Employees of the Robert H. Foerderer Leather Co., Frankford, compete on their own athletic field. H. J. Wagner is winning the 100-yard dash. Miss Catharine Mellon was in the hurl-ball contest. Ledger Photo Service.

MME. MILLERAND. A new photograph of the wife of the president of France. Keystone View Co.

MME. MILLERAND. A new photograph of the wife of the president of France. Keystone View Co.

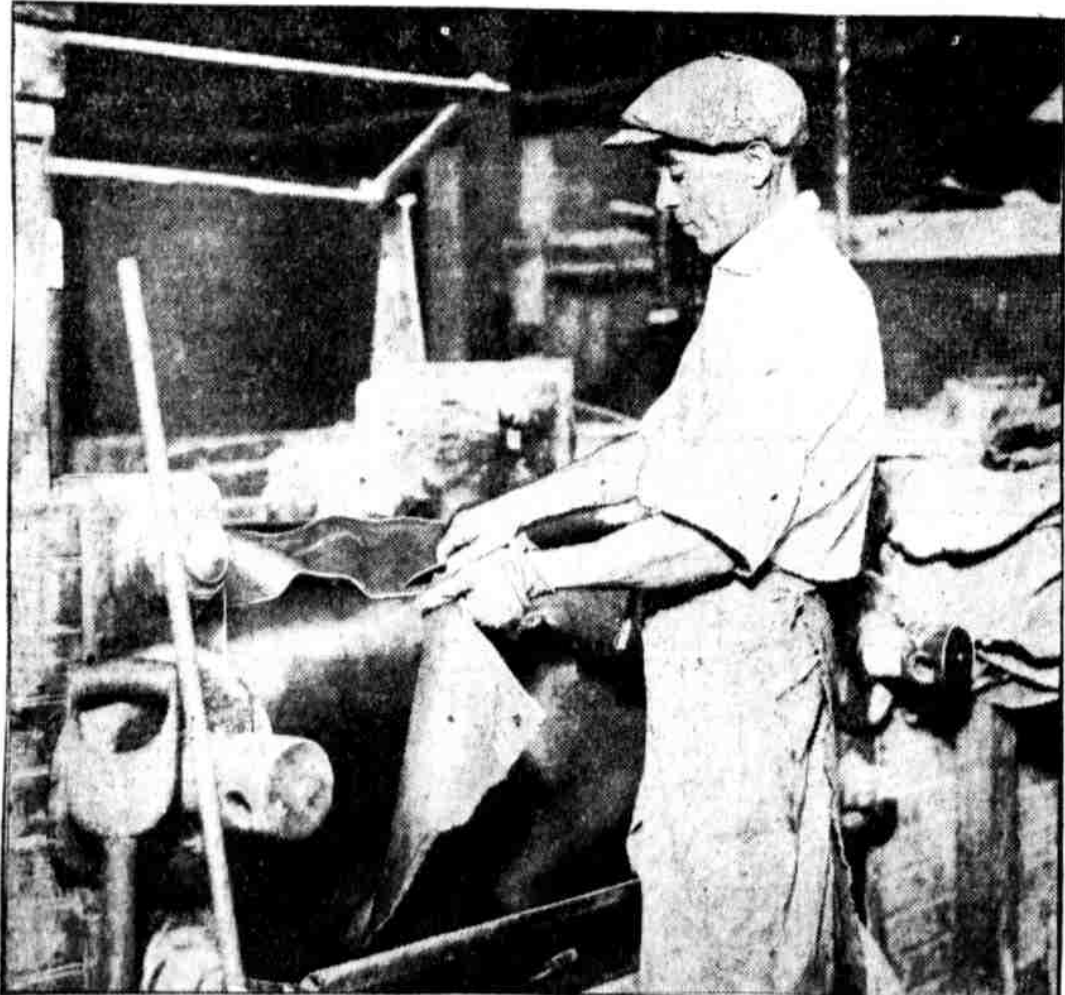

TWO GOVERNORS MEET. Governor Cox being welcomed into New Jersey by Governor Edwards as the presidential candidate starts his New Jersey campaign. Wide World Photo.

A GREAT SAVE. The goal-keeper in action is Harry Pearce, of the Wolfenden-Shore soccer team, which played against Bethlehem, in West Philadelphia, yesterday afternoon. Pearce formerly played third base for the Phillies. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

OPERATING A MIXING MILL. Charles Ross, 2019 East Rittenhouse street, Germantown, is the operator. It is from these sheets of rubber that inner tubes are made. The photograph was taken at the Corona Rubber Co., 100 East Rittenhouse street, Germantown. Ledger Photo Service.

CHINESE AVIATRIX KILLED. Miss Frances E. Lee, girl student aviator, was killed at Menlo Park, California, when she jumped from a falling plane. International.

A BORNEO DEBUTANTE. This maiden of Sarawak, Borneo, is one of the beauties of the Dyak tribe. Much brass wire is included in her costume. Central News Photo.

CHARGE D'AFFAIRES OF LUXEMBURG IN WASHINGTON. Baron Raymond de Waha takes pride in the fact that he is the son of a former Civil War veteran. Central News Photo.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS ESTHER SOMERS 232 South Fifty-sixth street, Philadelphia. Photo by Globe Studio.