

LEADER OF LEGION TO BE GUEST HERE

Fred W. Galbraith, National Chief, Will Attend Reception to Department Head

POST OFFICERS INVITED

American Legionaries of this city will have their first opportunity to meet Fred W. Galbraith, of Cincinnati, the new national commander, when he comes here November 17 for a reception to David J. Davis, department commander.

Mr. Galbraith wired yesterday his acceptance of an invitation extended by David B. Simpson, vice department commander, on behalf of the arrangement committee.

The reception will be in the City Club, at 215 South Broad street. The band of Walter M. Gearty Post, No. 315, will furnish music.

All post officers will receive invitations. The affair will be informal, and owing to the small capacity of the club the acceptances will be limited to 250.

The reception committee consists of Vice Commander Simpson, chairman; George S. Stewart, Jr., Howard C. McCall Post; William E. Baker, Toga Post, No. 319; Dr. Clarence P. Frank, H. Maneto Post; Thomas F. Moran, James J. Barry Post; William O. Muench, Jr., Prince Charles Post; Robert E. Hanna, Harry L. Greenwood Post; Thomas Moore, Frankford Post, No. 211; J. W. Study, Pennsylvania Railroad Post, No. 204; J. G. Gordon Forster, Joseph Vanolia Post; John J. Foran, Thomas F. Emery Post; Patricia F. Crosby, Young Men's Post, No. 59; J. H. M. Andrews, Donald T. Shenton Post; Henry R. Rindick, Post No. 50; Roman C. Hasselick, Benjamin Franklin Post; Herman N. Schwartz, George F. Baer Post; James Francis Ryan, Post No. 300; and William G. Murdock, state adjutant.

James J. Barry Post will be the guests tomorrow evening of the ladies' auxiliaries. Wednesday night the post will entertain its friends with a smoker.

Howard B. McCall Post will give a Cane November 10, the eve of Armistice Day.

Lawrence E. Delaney Post, one of the first formed, is boosting its basketball team. A rooters' club will be formed at the meeting, November 4, to aid the team. Toga Post, No. 319, and a number of others started basketball five.

"BANKERS" MATCH COINS

Then Victim Tells Police of Missing $200 and $600 Ring

Albert A. Sack, of Buffalo, N. Y., met two affable strangers in a hotel in the central section of the city Saturday night, and tossed coins with them, he told detectives. The experience cost him $200 and a $600 diamond ring.

Sack said the men posed as bankers and took him to a club near Broad street and Fairmount avenue, where the coin tossing game was played. First Sack said he lost the money and then borrowed more on the ring and lost it. The "bankers" have not been found.

HELD AS THEFT SUSPECT

Man Found With Arm in Store Window Blames Rum

Thomas Welsh, twenty-three years old, 518 Winton street, was arrested last night with his arm through a store window at Twelfth street and Snyder avenue. Police say he was trying to rob the place. He will have a hearing today.

Welsh, whose arm was cut by the crash through the window, told the police of the Fourth street and Snyder avenue station, where he is confined, that he was drunk and fell through the glass by accident.
