Nancy Wynne Hears of Parties Galore for Debutantes-She Tells of the Private View at Academy -And Other Unusual Affairs

TARY BARTOW is to be introduced MARY BARTON is to the heard anything like the number of parties there are this season. There are ties there are this seasons last year by not so many debutantes as last year by not so many debutantes as last year by not so many debutantes as last year by a long sight, but the parties seem to be unending, one affair after another announced for this and that debutante. Mary's parents, the Joe Bartows, will give a dinner-dance for her on Wednes-

Marjorie Gibbons is having a splendid time! She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Gibbons. of Media and Philadelphia, and her father, you remember, was abroad with Base Hospital No. 10 for two years during the Marjorie was introduced at a tea in Marjorie was introduced at a tea in June. She was given a dance, together with Sydney Biddle and Mary Howland by the Charles Biddles last month, and besides a number of other parties she is to be guest of honor at a dinner-dance to be given tomorrow night by Mr. and Mrs. James Willcox. Sophie Yarnall will be another bud who will share the honors with Marjorie at the dinner-dance. She is having a very dinner-dance. She is having a very good time, too. In fact, there are dinners and theatre parties galore. minute to breathe.

THE Academy of Fine Arts is to Thave its annual water color and miniature exhibition on November 6 at 8:30, and I think it will be very interesting. In fact I always find 8:30, and I think it will be very interesting. In fact I always find those parties extremely good fun. You always see so many people and have such a good time. The hostesaes of the evening will be Mrs. Gideon Boericke. Mrs. Adolphe E. Borie. 3d. Mrs. Jasper Yeates Brinton. Miss Millicent Dana. Mrs. Hager Elliott. Miss Alice B. Ewing. Miss Beatrice Fenton. Miss Harriet Sartain and Mrs. Alfred G. B. Steel.

Steel.

The Academy is also to have an artists' evening and private view combined on November 13, and there will be dancing that night.

CPEAKING of artists' evenings and O such affairs reminds me. Have I told you about the party the Women Writers are to have for their meeting on November 1? Imagine it! Not a member will be admitted to the affair if she is dressed one hour older than the reason. In the world it is a shill. years. In other words, it's a children's party and they are to play Tid-dledy Winks and Jacks and Jack Straws and bob for apples and other-wise behave like anything on earth but men writers. However, I have been most of the affairs the members of that club give, and, believe me, they are worth going to. If only to see the dignified editors of papers and magazines, advertising managers and artists chaving like anything but dignified

For instance, a wee bird has told me that one woman whose name is well known in the writing world will appear n full long clothes, a knitted sack and cap upon her flaxen curls. Another pink and white checked Dolly Drake frock and another such a remarkable costume, one of those-well, no, I guess I won't tell it beforehand, it won't be so funny when you They are going to have nuts and apples and candy for eats, and as far as I can see the Women Writers are about to enter upon their second child-

OF ALL unique entertainments, the One the Franklins will give on No-vember 2 will take the lead. And why? Simply because it is an election night party, and for the first time women are to have an active part in politics, and so Mr. and Mrs. William Buel Franklin have planned a buffet supper for their friends at their home in Ard more, and I have no doubt news of the returns will be brought in all through

My, but wasn't the last election exciting! We went to bed thinking Hughes was to be our next President and woke up to find Wilson was still in, or rather was in again. Few of us have any doubts of this November election, but no one can be sure, and so it will be an exciting time.

T SAW Mrs. Wilbur Paddock Klapp in her car on Chestnut street one day last week. She was very smartly dressed in dark blue, and her hat was a large velvet model of that same shade. She wore a handsome fur piece in sable.

TEACHER had told all the children to bring their birth certificates to school with them. Miss C— went the length of the class collecting said certificates, and when Mary's name was not forthcoming, exclaimed: "Where's your certificate?" "W-w-why, I forgot it," replied Mary, half in fright. "Then you must go home and get it," said Miss C——, determined to make Mary remember. The little girl hurried home (home being two doors away). Mother, on seeing her back so early, ex-Mother, on seeing her back so early, ex-claimed in surprise, "Why, sweetheart, what brings you back this time of day?"

"Cause," said Mary, "Miss C-wants to know why I was born." NANCY WYNNE.
