Nancy Wynne Hears News of Miss Wurts' Illness in Rome-Miss Hammond Is Introduced to Society at Tea Today-Other Matters of Interest

DID you hear that Eleanor Wurts has been quite fil over in Rome? She was taken down with appendicitis and had to have an operation immediately. She is, I am glad to say, recovering, but, of course, her return to this country will be delayed some time. And, of course, Mrs. Edmund McCullough, her aunt, with whom she has been travelling, and her sister, Rosamond, will not return until she is better and able to come with them. Khoda Brooke went over with Eleanor and Rosamond, you know, and she is to stay abroad for the year. Her stepfather and mother, Mrs. Trenchard Newbold, went over about a month ago, and they are with them in Rome now. Virginia Smith, who is a daughter of the Arthur Dearborn Smiths, of th

Adams. They are to be married on the fourth of November you know. I hear that Harry has not been a bit well since his return from the war and the doctor has advised several months of complete rest. So naturally he wanted Anita to be with him and they decided to be married sooner than they had at first intended. Anita is the only daughter of the Powell Evanses she is a cousia of the Powell Evanses of the Powell Evanses of the Powell Evanses of the tended. was one of the most feted debutantes of the season. Several balls were given in her honor and any number of theatre parties and dinners. She is very sweet ooking and should make a very pretty light-brown hair and very lovely color-ing. She dances beautifully; I remem-ber she won a cup at one of the contest dances at the numerous charitable affairs held last year.

CPEAKING of charitable affairs, I have never heard anything to equal the preparations for the "Talk of the Town." You know the affair is to open with an introductory chorus coming in front of the curtain to tell some of the fine points in Molly Thayer's movie, which is to follow. I hear that Charlle Gilpin, of the Mask and Wig, has written the music for the accession expecially ten the music for the occasion epecially, and Charlie Morgan is teaching the dancing. Alva Sergeant leads the dance, which will introduce "Howdy Do?"— whatever that is—and in her set will be Theodora Lillie, Lysbeth Boyd, Marga-ret Curtis, Sarah Dolan, Katharine Ogden, Carol Smith, Mary Glendinning and Peggy Thayer, who is the heroine of the movie.

There's to be a chorus of children under the chaperonage of Mrs. Richard Norris in a specialty called "The Music Box," and the children in that will be Jane Gates, Grace Norris, Rebecca Stout, Margaret Stout, Mary Butcher, Margaret McNeill and Mary Maud Howall

Another chorus will be the Valentine revue, made up of members of the St. Francis Aid, and will include a jazz group, waltz group, polka group and minuet group.

Their dance is to be the finale. Kitty Schlater, who is president of the Aid, has charge of the group, and the girls who will dance are Narie Greenfield, Rosemary and Madeline Delahunty. Marion and Katharine Vanneman, Mary Martin. Agnes and Madeline Hastings, Helen Sheeran, Esther Walsh, Catharine McKay. Helen Hayes, Margaret Costello, Reginn Herron, Alice Toner and Katherine Hoban.

Jack Potter, Peggy Thayer, Polly Thayer, Harry Coxe, Peggy Dallett and ever so many others there are in the movie itself. The first performance is to be on Wednesday night, November 17

ISTEN, my children, and you shall LISTEN, my children, and you shall hear of the joyous sight Nancy came upon at the station last Saturday. A certain bride and groom, who had been married that day, suddenly dashed from the elevator, tore through the gate for a New York train, and as she watched with all her eyes, she noted that, attached to the end of the bride-
