FATEFUL CLASH ON DNIEPER

Summary of special cable dispatches to London's Public Ledger. Copyright, 1920, by the Public Ledger Co.

Sabatopol, Oct. 19, via Constantinople, Oct. 20.—"Russian soldiers! The Polish army, which was fighting with us against the enemies of liberty and order has concluded an armistice with the Russians and the Poles..."

Such are the words of proclamation addressed by Baron General Wrangel to his heroic army, now engaged in a fateful battle with the Reds on the Dnieper..."

British Leniency Irritates Paris. Paris, Oct. 29.—The result of the impending elections in the United States has emerged suddenly from the realm of mere political speculation to a question of the POTTERISM is THE NOVEL of the season. Frank Swinnerton said:

"POTTERISM by Rose Macaulay will be read all over England" (and it was).

"POTTERISM is as fresh and breezy as if all the windows were open. Mr. Liveright is a public benefactor in publishing it."

"POTTERISM will certainly be read as widely in this country as it has been in England."

"POTTERISM is a novel of superlative cleverness—a modern tabloid 'Vanity Fair'—it is a delight to see a thing so well done."

"POTTERISM" Maybe some of your friends are Potterites—find out today!
