

JUST BEFORE THE START. Six of the balloons that took part in the James Gordon-Bennett trophy race, which started at Birmingham, Alabama. The Belgian balloon, "Belgica," is the fourth from the left. It has been declared the winner of the long-distance match. Wide World Photo.

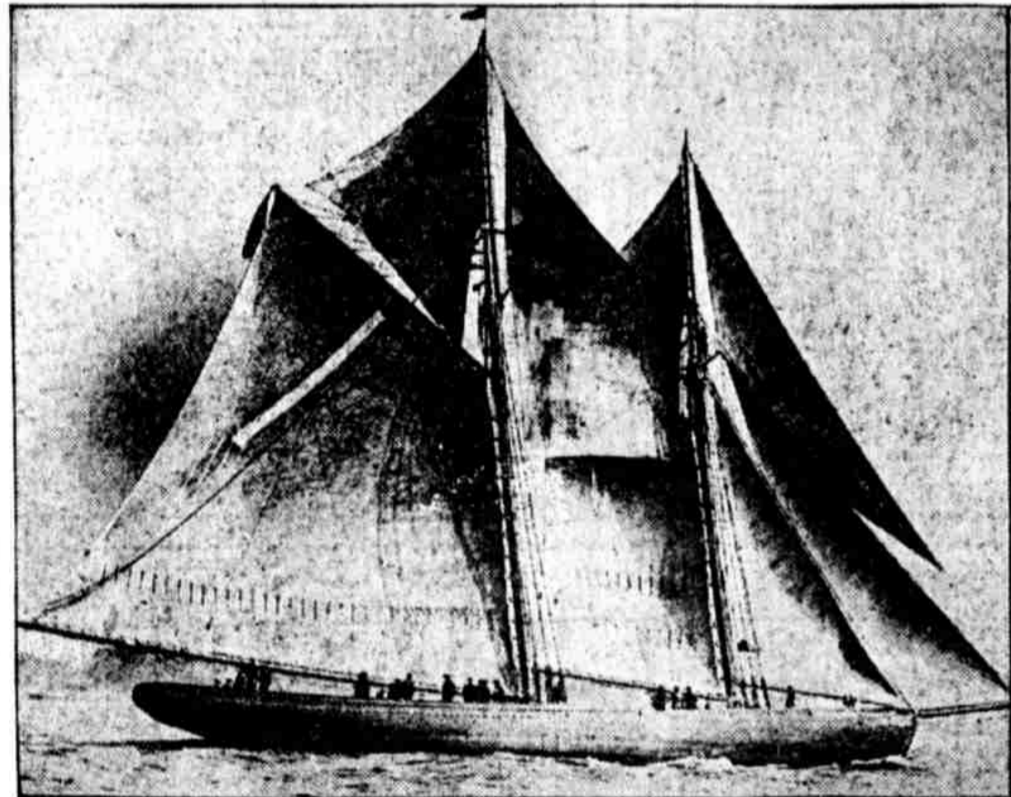

CAPTAIN CARLO HUNTINGTON. The newly appointed assistant military attaché of the Italian embassy. Central News Photo.

MEMORIAL TREES PLANTED. Three trees were planted in Rittenhouse square, yesterday afternoon, in memory of Miss Katherine Craig Biddle, Mrs. Leta Sullivan Hoffman and Mrs. Emmeline Reed Bedell, whose deaths occurred during the past year. Miss Elaine Sullivan is holding a shovel. At her left is Miss Sydney Bidde. They both planted a tree. Ledger Photo Service.

"SIT UP." Senator Harding entertaining a visitor at his home in Marion, Ohio. The neighbor's dog knows he'll get treated right if he sits up nicely. International.

WILL REPRESENT THE UNITED STATES. The Esperanto will defend the title in the ocean schooner race between the United States and Canada, off Halifax, tomorrow. The Delawanna will compete for Canada. Underwood & Underwood.

A REAL COWBOY. This is Cy Compton, America's most famous cowboy, on one of his well-trained horses. Underwood & Underwood.

DOCTORING A TREE. This Japanese aucia tree, located in the White House grounds, is sick, suffering from rot and old age. J. Rebaume, the White House tree doctor, is at work. Harris & Ewing.

CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK. Judge Nathan L. Miller, who is making a whirlwind tour of that state as a Republican candidate. Central News Photo.

E. URNER GOODMAN discusses Boy Scouts in an interview on the editorial page. Photo-Crafters.

WALKING THROUGH FIRE. A British soldier has invented a solution which will resist fire. This demonstration shows the inventor in soldier's uniform. Central News Photo.

NOT CHARLIE. It is F. W. Forde, who won first prize as "Charlie Chaplin" in a fancy dress carnival at the Crystal Palace, London. He was snapped on one of the palace statues. Central News Photo.

GETS A HARDING-COOLIDGE BUTTON. Mrs. B. F. Miller stopped E. G. Cunningham, Jr., at Sixth and Chestnut streets, to place a campaign button on his coat. He was willing. Ledger Photo Service.

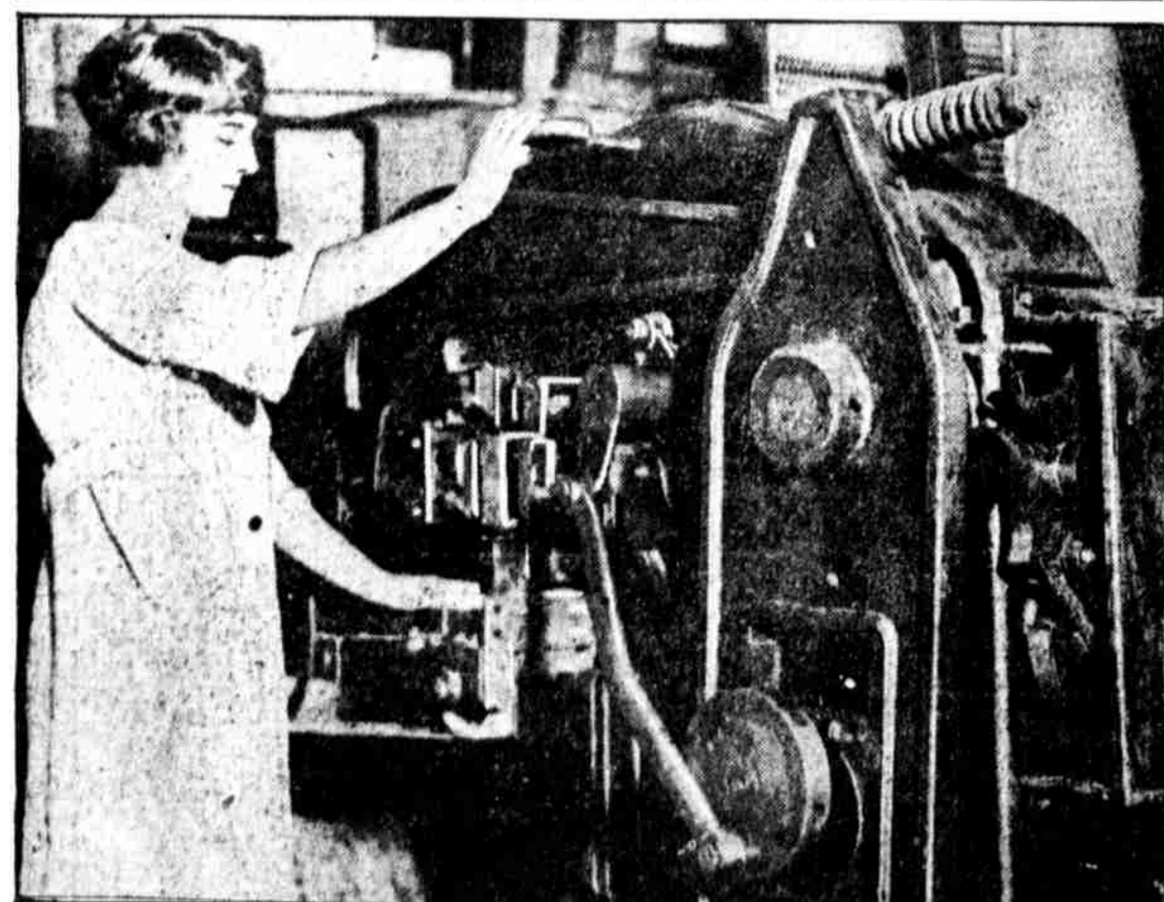

A DANCING BEAUTY. Miss Rose Langson, who will be one of the contestants in the events at the National Dancing Exposition, in New York, next week. Underwood & Underwood.

SHY TOT. The shyness of the little girl, who has just presented Mrs. Lloyd George with a large bouquet of flowers, amused the premier and his party. Underwood & Underwood.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MAKING SOAP. This machine presses 54,000 hand-size cakes each day, at the same time printing the name of the firm on one side of the soap and the kind of soap on the other. Miss Emma Brenner, 2824 Seybert street, operates this machine, in the soap factory of Charles W. Young & Co., 1247 North Twenty-sixth street. Ledger Photo Service.

MRS. AUGUST BELMONT. Mrs. August Belmont, of New York, was one of the speakers in connection with the fourth annual roll call of the Red Cross. Ledger Photo Service.

"SOKO," OF WASHINGTON. This prize African chimpanzee is a resident of the Washington zoo. He rides a bicycle. Ledger Photo Service.

ENGLISH SUFFRAGE LEADER. She is Mrs. Pethick-Lawrence, who speaks on "Immediate World Disarmament," at the Bellevue-Stratford today. Harris & Ewing.

JUMPED FOR THE BALL. Charles John is one of the real players that make up the fast team of the Ardmore High School. Ledger Photo Service.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS SARAH BOXMAN. 721 North Sixth street Philadelphia. Liber Chuck Photo.