THE John Price Wetherill, Jrs., have taken the Edgar Church's house at 2046 Locust street for the winter. They came up from Hot Springs, Va., where they went for their wedding trip by motor, and are already in their Locust treat house.

Mrs. Wetherill, you remember, was Mrs. Newbold Etting, and before that Claudia Mock. She is a sister of Mrs. Fred Bain and Mrs. Ned Atherton, and has lived in Philadelphia for some time. She married the late Newbold Etting about fifteen years ago, and after his death lived with the Athertons. Mr. and Mrs. Wetherill were married about a month ago down in Salisbury, N. C., where Mrs. Wetherill's parents live.

families. Her mother was a Russell and for many years they lived at 15 West Tenth street. Mrs. Pearson is also a niece of the late Archibald D. Russell, of Princeton, and of Mrs. Henry Lewis Morris, of New York. Her first husband was John Wainwright and her son, Jack Wainwright, is a graduate of St. Paul's and now a junior at Princeton.

He is a mighty nice fellow, and what on earth do you think he did last sum-mer? Went abroad and acted as stoker on one of the large vessels, just for the sport of it. Incidentally, he came back regular fashion. Going was enough for Jack, I should surmise. Jack and Baba both resemble their methods. both resemble their mother very much. Baba is very attractive, with light hair

They have any number of friends here and have been welcomed as an addi-tion in the social world of Philadelphia.

OUITE a number of Philadelphians will go down to Elk Ridge, Md., today for the marriage of Mary Worthington and Ted Morris, which will take place there. Ted Morris is the youngest son of Dr. Elliston Morris, of 128 South Eighteenth street. His brother, Elliston Morris, Jr., is to be best man, and Joe Sharp, of this city, is to be one of the ushers. Dr. city, is to be one of the ushers. Dr. and Mrs. Morris and the Thomas Perots and Galloway Morris, 2d. are going down for the wedding, which is to take place at 4 o'clock in Grace Church at Elk Ridge. The bride and bridegroom are going to live in Williamsport.

THERE won't be any big debutante functions today. The Bob Strawbridges will give a house party for Anita and a small dinner dance in the evening, and quite a number of smaller Halloween parties will be given in the younger set. The Henry Pages will have a regular Halloween party this evening for their daughters. T HEAR the women who are interested in the Pennsylvania League of Girls' Clubs, which was formerly the Penn-sylvania League for Women Workers, have decided to hold a series of Sunday afternoon teas at the club rooms on Locust just below Eighteenth street. I never hear of the league, that I do not think of the late Miss Laura Platt. who was president for so many years, and who did such efficient work. She just loved the work and the girls she knew in the various clubs. You know they run Whitford Lodge for the women workers out in Daylesford in the summer and they bring Miss Janet Richards here every winter for her current events class for the beauty of Whitford Value. class for the benefit of Whitford. It's really a splendid league. Mrs. Henry C. Boyere is very interested in the work and is chairman of the Sunday work and is chairman of the Sunday afternoon teas, and Mrs. George Lorimer is to have the first tea on November 7 at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Abbie Sutherland Brown will speak on "What a Girl Wants," and there will be music and eats. It sounds very interesting to me.

ONE never can tell when the wee ones are about and one often forgets that 'little pitchers have long ears.'
But listen to the tale I have to tell of Mary and Frank and you will be careful what you say before your two and three-year-olds. Only this is delicious. Frank was playing away beautifully the other day when the string of his little wagon became twisted and when he went to undo it, it knotted. Frank is only two, but he is emphatic in his remarks and so as he found he could not untie said knot he exclaimed in plain terms, "damn it." "Oh, Fwank." said Mary, who is three, 'you mustn't say damn it, say 'damn' like daddy does.'' NANCY WYNNE.
