

45,000 RECEIVED FLYING SQUADRON

Women of G. O. P. Hear Story of State Campaign—Told at Cafeteria

OPEN ELECTION NIGHT

How more than 45,000 people throughout the state enthusiastically responded to the "stump speeches" of the Republican women's flying squadron was related at the G. O. P. women's dinner in the Greater Building today. During eleven working days the flying squadron held twenty-eight meetings in twenty-five towns, traveling by automobile more than 1000 miles.

"It was a thrilling experience," said one of the squadron members. "Everywhere we had crowded halls and in five towns there were overflow meetings. In Columbia, where we spent exactly forty minutes, they had no previous notice of our coming. When the Republican women leaders were notified they simply sent the motor corps out to ring doorbells and invite people to attend a rally. The house was absolutely jammed in a few minutes and we had a wonderfully successful meeting. Just that same sort of enthusiasm met us everywhere. I believe the majority of women throughout the state are going to vote and vote intelligently."

Among the women with the flying squadron at least part of the time were: Mrs. Elmer E. Melick, Mrs. Gifford Finchot, Mrs. J. Willis Martin, Mrs. Thomas Robins, Mrs. Charles Gordon, Mrs. Barclay H. Warburton, Mrs. William I. Schaffer, Mrs. I. H. O'Hara, Mrs. John K. Robinson, of Bethlehem; Miss Thelma Thompson, Mrs. John J. O'Brien and Miss Lillian Russell (Mrs. Alexander Moore, of Pittsburgh).

The cafeteria, which has proved a great success in its operation for election night for its patrons to hear election returns. Today was the last day it will be open at night.

Those in charge for election night are Mrs. Walter S. Thomson, county chairman; Mrs. William Gray Warden, vice chairman; Countess de Santa Eulalia, Miss Mary M. Barr, Mrs. John W. Moyer, Mrs. Walter C. Hancock, Miss Julia Lewis, Mrs. Wilmer Krusen, Mrs. Bessie Dobson Altman and Mrs. John W. Wainwright.

Speakers from the women's committee talked today at noon at meetings at the Brill Car Works and the Curtis Publishing Co.

TELL WOMEN TIME TO VOTE

County Commissioner Advises From 10 o'clock to 3

Women have been requested to vote between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 3 o'clock p. m. tomorrow by County Commissioner Lank, so as to avoid confusion at the polls and so that most women will vote during those hours when men who work are not at the polls.

Mrs. Jean Kean Folke, chairman of the Democratic Women's Organization of Pennsylvania, has issued an appeal for women to vote for Governor Cox and thus endorse as the League of Nations. Women, she said, should stand firmly for the indorsement of the pact.

WOMEN WILL GO TO CHURCH BEFORE CASTING BALLOTS

Unusual Spiritual Tone to Voting Will Be Stressed Tomorrow. Plans Made to Get Returns Quickly

Women will be on the qui vive tomorrow to receive election news. The headquarters of the Republican and Democratic women will be open all day and late into the evening.

The G. O. P. cafeteria is expecting a rush that admission will be by ticket only.

The League of Women Voters, at the Franklin Building, will be open all evening to hear the election returns, and in between these announcements to hear from the workers for the Anna Howard Shaw Memorial as to the amounts that have been raised for it today.

The Woman's League for Good Government has been doing a land office business. Sample ballots have been rushed by automobile to settlement houses and other places where it is thought information may be needed. They are to cover 150 districts tomorrow with their representatives.

Will Wear League Badges

Their duty will be to stand at the polls and render assistance when necessary. Each representative will wear the blue and yellow badge of the league bearing the inscription, "Nonpartisan committee for information."

The College Club has made arrangements to have the returns from the election delivered by special messengers at their clubhouse, at 1300 Spruce street. The clubhouse will be open until midnight, and refreshments will be served. The members may also bring friends. Tomorrow afternoon is the

Meetings Set for Today by State G. O. P. Women

Meetings scheduled today by the Republican women's committee of Pennsylvania follow:

St. Stephen's parish house, 19 South Tenth street, Mrs. Edward Parker, speaker.

Deer Methodist Episcopal Church, Twelfth street and Ridge avenue, Mrs. William E. Groben, speaker.

Eighteenth and Cherry streets, Mrs. Edward Parker, speaker.

Delrich Hall, Sixtieth street and Girard avenue, 3 p. m., Mrs. M. A. Franco, speaker.

Curtis Publishing Co., noon hour speaker in cafeteria.

Inasmuch Mission, Tenth and Locust streets, Mrs. Corbett, speaker.

947 North Tenth street, Mrs. M. V. Simpson, speaker.

Curtis Public School, Murgrave and Horter streets, 3:30 p. m., Mrs. Lincoln Ferguson, speaker.

Mrs. E. Dobson Altman, home, Thirty-third street and Abbot.

W. J. Allen, Edward Keenan, Joseph Steic, Isaac Passmore, Carroll Downes.

2120 North Fifteenth street, Mrs. J. H. Shaw, speaker.

EMPLOYMENT AIDES NAMED

Council of Six Appointed to Advise State Bureaus in Five Cities

Harrisburg, Nov. 1.—(By A. P.)—Members of the representative council of five of the state employment bureau offices were announced today by Clifford B. Connelly, commissioner of labor and industry. The members of the council are to devise methods for regularization of employment, promote public improvements during seasons of unemployment, make inquiries and conduct investigations. The appointments were as follows:

Philadelphia—Colonel John Gribbel, W. T. Allen, Edward Keenan, Joseph Steic, Isaac Passmore, Carroll Downes.

Erie—James Burke, Miss Elizabeth Ling, Eugene McManus, E. R. Beland, Theodore Eichhorn, Ely Griswold.

Johnstown—Harry L. Tredennick, Miss L. Grace Young, Charles B. Thomas, C. P. Keep, John M. Caslar, W. K. McHenry.

McKeesport—Miss Olive D. Pfeiffer, Harry Kennedy, John C. Yost, Dr. J. W. Fawcett, Harry B. Lynch, S. W. Scranton.

Pittsburgh—Mrs. Jesse Bennett, George P. Hooper, John T. Dempsey, Frank H. Himmelright, Stephen M. McDonald, Frank Hummer.

FIREMEN JAZZ ARTISTS

Organize Orchestra to While Away Hours at Posts

Saving property is only one of the accomplishments of the members of Insurance Patrol No. 4, of East Haines street, Germantown. Tired of the monotony of long waits between calls for their services and not being proficient in pinocle or pool, five of the fire fighters have organized a jazz orchestra.

The musicians are Tom Miller, humdrum; Bert Leithead, sweet potato and drums; Bill Davis, drums; George Gensbauer, jazz horn, and Joe Long, cymbals. They are ably assisted in the latest selections by a healthy phonograph.

BATH CAUSES FIRE ALARM

Man Got Wrong Idea When He Saw "Smoke"

A man passing a house at 6133 Girard avenue last night saw a light in a window on the second floor.

The light worried the man. When he saw "smoke" pouring from the window he ran around the corner to Engine Company No. 41 and gave an alarm of fire.

Firemen reached the scene in a few minutes. They discovered that Mrs. Mary Geiger was bathing and the supposed "smoke" was steam.

The firemen decided there was plenty of water in the house and went back to the firehouse. The man who gave the alarm went away from there.

Spiritual Side of Voting

An uplifted sense of the sacredness of this new responsibility of voting is manifested by the Churchwoman's Association. A consecration service with holy communion is to be held in the Diocesan Church of St. Mary, at 9 a. m.

Different, but appealing, is the subject of long waits between calls for Miss Katherine Locke, at 11 o'clock, in the Clover Room of the Bellevue-Stratford—"Politics and Dress."

ONE DEAD, 8 HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Man's Skull Fractured When Motorcar Hits Him on Girard Avenue

SIX REVELERS IN CRASH

One man was killed and eleven persons were injured, severely, seriously, in automobile accidents in different sections of the city Saturday night and yesterday. Six of the injured were members of a part of Halloween revelers.

The dead man was: James Barnett, sixty-three, 1211 North Franklin street.

The injured are: Miss Frances Logan, Highland Park, cuts and bruises.

Miss Edna Greeley, Darby, cuts and bruises, fractured arm.

William Board, Llanerch, cut by broken glass.

Earnest Rapp, Darby, cut by flying glass.

Edward Miller, South Springfield, cuts and bruises.

Miss Margaret Moelein, South Springfield, cut by broken glass.

John Hogg, ten years old, 1710 North Twenty-eighth street, severe bruises.

Alexander Hamilton, 2315 Wilder street, bruises.

Patrick Conway, 1508 North Thirtieth street, bruises.

Peter Conway, same address.

Dr. William J. Dempsey, 2606 North Fifth street.

Barnett died from a fractured skull in the Children's Homeopathic Hospital two hours after he had been struck at Twelfth street and Girard avenue by a machine driven by A. Morris Stein, of Girard avenue near Fifth street. Stein is under arrest, pending a hearing before Magistrate Meclary, at the Central Station today.

The maskers were hurt in a collision of two cars at Twenty-first and Jackson streets early Sunday morning. Rapp and Miller were the drivers of the two cars. The injured persons were treated at St. Agnes' Hospital. The most seriously hurt is Miss Greeley.

Hogg was struck at Broad street and Columbia avenue by a machine driven by Lewis Pincus, of Master near Twenty-first street. After the injured boy had been treated at the Lanekuan Hospital, Pincus was placed under arrest by police of the Eighth and Jefferson streets station.

Hutchinson was hurled from a taxicab seat when his machine collided with a truck at Walnut and Twenty-first streets. Serious injury was averted because Hutchinson struck the running board, breaking the force of his fall.

Patrick and Peter Conway, who are lawyers, were driving south on Broad street in Dr. Dempsey's machine, when A. Cohen, of 833 Wallace street, driving in front of them, was forced to stop by traffic. A woman in Cohen's car put out her hand as a signal and Dr. Dempsey jammed on his brakes. The car skidded and overturned.

Dr. Dempsey refused to go to a hospital. The Conways were taken to the Howard Hospital. They were sent home today.

MERCHANTS' FETE TONIGHT

North Philadelphia Business Men in Halloween Festival

The members of the North Philadelphia Business Men's Association will give their annual Halloween festival this evening. The parade of masqueraders will form at Germantown avenue and Wingochock streets at 9 o'clock and march to Germantown and Hunting Park avenues, countermarching to Germantown avenue and Eighteenth street, where prizes will be awarded.

There will be a program of burlesque dancing and cakewalks, followed by general dancing for the maskers, and a dinner for the members of the association at their headquarters in Robinson's Hall.

The affair is in charge of Edward E. Ziegler, Howard E. Heckler, George H. M. Swift, Newton E. Freed, George E. Kimball, W. L. Clark, Morris Meyer, G. A. Wick and Paul Mender, chairman.

The Roxborough Business Men's Association will also have a Halloween celebration this evening. There will be a masquerade parade on Ridge avenue, Roxborough, from Locust to Twelfth street, and return. The judges will view the parade at Green lane and award the prizes. The celebration will be in charge of John W. Logan, Edwin Stein, Harold Tyson, William Swartz and Arthur Stetler.

SLAIN PATROLMAN BURIED

Associates Are Pallbearers for Edward Kunz

Fellow-patrolmen were the pallbearers at the funeral of Edward Kunz, of the Thirty-sixth district, this afternoon. Two platoons from the same district attended the funeral in a body.

Kunz died several hours after he was shot by Samuel Calliana, alleged hold-up man, early last Monday. He attempted to place Calliana under arrest and in the resulting battle was shot.

Services were held at the Kunz home, 3740 North Marston street, with interment in Fernwood Cemetery. The body of the patrolman, in uniform, was surrounded by numerous floral offerings, including a large wreath from the men of the Thirty-sixth district.

Accused of Beating Wife

John Alvernia, 2950 North Gratz street, according to the police, was charged with an argument with his wife Mary, this morning, by hitting her on the head with a stick of wood. Eight stitches were put in the wound at the Samaritan Hospital. Mary returned home, and John furnished $800 bail for a further hearing before Magistrate Price, at the Twenty-second street and Hunting Park avenue station.

Engagement Rings

Gems of Super-Quality

Unique, artistic and distinctive designs

TODAY ALL SAINTS' DAY

Services in Churches Mark Observance of Anniversary

All Saints' Day is being celebrated today in Catholic, Episcopal and churches of other denominations.

Catholics in all sections of the city attended mass this morning, the same as on Sunday morning. In the Catholic Church observance of the day is obligatory and carries this mandate. In virtually all of the parishes after the early morning masses celebration of high mass followed.

Services appropriate to the day are being held in the Episcopal Church. At the Diocesan Church of St. Mary, Broad below South street, there was a celebration of the holy communion at 7 o'clock and 10 o'clock this morning, and at 4 o'clock this afternoon, there will be choral evening prayer.

Following the choral services at the Diocesan Church there will be a meeting of the Cathedral League, at which an address will be given by the Very Rev. Howard C. Robbins, D. D., dean of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York city.

In many of the countries where All Saints' Day is celebrated the joy of the feast is recognized by making it a holiday.

HAZING RESTRAINED AT NAVAL ACADEMY

Regulations Strictly Enforced and Upper Classmen and Plebes Are Separated

NO COMPLAINTS ARE MADE

Regulations to prevent hazing at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis were strictly enforced over the week-end, and the members of the upper classes and the plebes, or first-year men, were not allowed to mingle.

Admiral A. Henry Seales, who has confined several students convicted of hazing on the U. S. S. Reina Mercedes, anchored in the Severn river, said the regulations will continue in force until the upper classes show a proper spirit toward the first-year men.

Many parents from Philadelphia visited Annapolis yesterday, but no formal complaint of treatment given Philadelphia plebes by upper classmen was made to Admiral Seales. Among those who visited the Naval Academy yesterday were:

Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Bennett and their ten-year-old son, Jack; Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Kinley, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Brigham, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hartman, C. J. Pilling, Dr. Norman S. Esel, G. A. Van Lennep, Miss Elsie Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wheelock, of Swarthmore; Misses Marian and Louise Alexander, of Bryn Mawr; Miss Katy Lynch Davidson and Miss M. Brown, of Bryn Mawr; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Childs, of Norris-town; Misses Emma, Alice and Marjorie Childs, of Norris-town, and Misses Agnes and Dorothy Flynn, of Somerville, N. J.

Mr. Pilling, whose son is in his second year at the Academy, said: "There has been no brutal hazing of any kind that I know of. You cannot find out anything about it, as none of the boys will tell about the others. I think a few plebes must have been 'yellow,' that is all. My boy went through his turn when he was in his first year, and I don't see why these men should not, also. They are just living up to some of the accepted traditions of the old Academy."

"There was no talk of hazing," said Dr. Esig. "All the men at the Academy seemed too busy getting ready for a dance."

"The boys are naturally very indignant at the restriction of their liberties, but I have not heard any definite protests," said Mrs. Wheelock.

TWO SLAYERS EXECUTED

Murderers of Philadelphia Men Pay Penalty at Bellefonte

Murderers of two Philadelphians, after exhausting every known means to escape the electric chair, were executed at the Western Penitentiary at Bellefonte this morning. They were John Morrison, twenty-four years, who had been reprieved five times by Governor Sprunt, and Samuel Coles, a negro, who had escaped electrocution by reprieve several times.

Morrison, in attempting to escape after taking part in the hold-up of the jewelry store of Karl Kempter, in Kensington, shot and killed Charles J. Martin, 668 North Eleventh street. He was convicted and sentenced to be electrocuted. His father, connected with the New York police department, exerted every influence to save his son, and Governor Sprunt granted five reprieves. The hold-up and murder were perpetrated on April 8, 1918.

Coles shot and killed Harry Williams, a detective, on the night of January 9, 1918, while resisting arrest in a downtown saloon. He was convicted before Judge Monaghan and sentenced to be electrocuted.

Morrison was sent to the chair first, the execution of Coles following eight minutes later.

WOMEN INCREASE POLITICAL FERVOR

Greatest Enthusiasm Shown by Organizations Since Liberty Bond Drives

Not since Liberty Loan days have women of Philadelphia been so thoroughly organized and interested in national affairs as they are today. From one end of the city to the other they are talking, singing, working for their favorite candidates. In every district the supreme efforts will be made today and tonight to rouse public sentiment concerning the presidential election. Both Democratic and Republican women have their days planned down to the minute today and tomorrow.

"I am finding politics most fascinating," said Mrs. Edward P. Davis, chairman of the Democratic women's committee. "I shall spend most of the day at our headquarters, 38 South Eleventh street, keeping in touch with ward chairmen, seeing that the ends are tied in our plans for tomorrow. There will be rallies tonight in all districts when women will be urged to vote early in the morning. Tomorrow I expect to go from one poll to another to get in touch with our watchers and keep in touch with events of the day. I expect to vote about 8:30 in the morning as I shall have the rest of the day free to give aid wherever the women most need me."

Mrs. Barclay H. Warburton, chairman of the Republican women's committee of the state, will vote at St. Kinley before coming in to Republican headquarters for a busy day tomorrow. "I am quite thrilled to be on duty all day and certainly shall not miss the interest of waiting up for returns at our headquarters tomorrow night."

Mrs. J. Willis Martin will vote in Chestnut Hill "after the grandchildren are gotten off to school." Mrs. Walter S. Thomson, chairman of the city Republican women's committee, has been appointed an official watcher and will be on duty early tomorrow.

Leaders and workers in both parties plan to spend tomorrow evening at the respective headquarters, receiving returns.

HAZING RESTRAINED AT NAVAL ACADEMY

Regulations Strictly Enforced and Upper Classmen and Plebes Are Separated

NO COMPLAINTS ARE MADE

Regulations to prevent hazing at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis were strictly enforced over the week-end, and the members of the upper classes and the plebes, or first-year men, were not allowed to mingle.

Admiral A. Henry Seales, who has confined several students convicted of hazing on the U. S. S. Reina Mercedes, anchored in the Severn river, said the regulations will continue in force until the upper classes show a proper spirit toward the first-year men.

Many parents from Philadelphia visited Annapolis yesterday, but no formal complaint of treatment given Philadelphia plebes by upper classmen was made to Admiral Seales. Among those who visited the Naval Academy yesterday were:

Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Bennett and their ten-year-old son, Jack; Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Kinley, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Brigham, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hartman, C. J. Pilling, Dr. Norman S. Esel, G. A. Van Lennep, Miss Elsie Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wheelock, of Swarthmore; Misses Marian and Louise Alexander, of Bryn Mawr; Miss Katy Lynch Davidson and Miss M. Brown, of Bryn Mawr; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Childs, of Norris-town; Misses Emma, Alice and Marjorie Childs, of Norris-town, and Misses Agnes and Dorothy Flynn, of Somerville, N. J.

Mr. Pilling, whose son is in his second year at the Academy, said: "There has been no brutal hazing of any kind that I know of. You cannot find out anything about it, as none of the boys will tell about the others. I think a few plebes must have been 'yellow,' that is all. My boy went through his turn when he was in his first year, and I don't see why these men should not, also. They are just living up to some of the accepted traditions of the old Academy."

"There was no talk of hazing," said Dr. Esig. "All the men at the Academy seemed too busy getting ready for a dance."

"The boys are naturally very indignant at the restriction of their liberties, but I have not heard any definite protests," said Mrs. Wheelock.

WOMEN INCREASE POLITICAL FERVOR

Greatest Enthusiasm Shown by Organizations Since Liberty Bond Drives

Not since Liberty Loan days have women of Philadelphia been so thoroughly organized and interested in national affairs as they are today. From one end of the city to the other they are talking, singing, working for their favorite candidates. In every district the supreme efforts will be made today and tonight to rouse public sentiment concerning the presidential election. Both Democratic and Republican women have their days planned down to the minute today and tomorrow.

"I am finding politics most fascinating," said Mrs. Edward P. Davis, chairman of the Democratic women's committee. "I shall spend most of the day at our headquarters, 38 South Eleventh street, keeping in touch with ward chairmen, seeing that the ends are tied in our plans for tomorrow. There will be rallies tonight in all districts when women will be urged to vote early in the morning. Tomorrow I expect to go from one poll to another to get in touch with our watchers and keep in touch with events of the day. I expect to vote about 8:30 in the morning as I shall have the rest of the day free to give aid wherever the women most need me."

Mrs. Barclay H. Warburton, chairman of the Republican women's committee of the state, will vote at St. Kinley before coming in to Republican headquarters for a busy day tomorrow. "I am quite thrilled to be on duty all day and certainly shall not miss the interest of waiting up for returns at our headquarters tomorrow night."

Mrs. J. Willis Martin will vote in Chestnut Hill "after the grandchildren are gotten off to school." Mrs. Walter S. Thomson, chairman of the city Republican women's committee, has been appointed an official watcher and will be on duty early tomorrow.

Leaders and workers in both parties plan to spend tomorrow evening at the respective headquarters, receiving returns.

Beginning this Morning for a Limited Period Only

A Most Opportune Sale

a Limited Number of Perry Suits and Overcoats

intended to be sold for $60, $65, and $70, but all to be let go without regard to cost, at the

One Uniform Price

$35

THAT'S ALL! A big opportunity right at the height of the season.
We take the loss; you take the clothes! They're our own—Perry-made, Perry-styled, Perry-priced on a close original margin.

The Quantity is Limited; necessarily, the Time is Limited also. Therefore, it is up to you to act at once!

Still on Sale
and going strong—

The handsomest stocks of Highest-Quality Suits and Overcoats which can be bought nowhere else; unequalled in Workmanship, Fit, and Style, at Substantial Reductions from first fair and closely-marked prices!

Overcoats of imported Montagnacs,
Crombies, Shetlands, Elysian Beavers,
Worumbos, Irish Cheviots in Magnificent
Ulsters, Great Coats, Raglans,
Form-fitted and Conservative Overcoats, luxuriously trimmed and finished in the acme of "N. B. T." workmanship, all now marked to sell at less than we should get for them!

PERRY & CO.
Sixteenth and Chestnut Streets

Our New Home

WE ARE happy to announce our removal to the
North American Bldg
With greatly improved facilities, we hope to give our clients an even broader and more inclusive service.

HERBERT M. MORRIS
Advertising Agency
Every Phase of Sales Promotion
American Bldg., Philadelphia

DREKA
FINE STATIONERS SINCE 1864

PERSONAL CHRISTMAS CARDS

SHOWING PICTURES OF HOMES—PETS AND HOBBIES—

A STYLE ORIGINATED AND MADE FAMOUS BY DREKA CO.

1121 CHESTNUT STREET

Credit Where Due

To a considerable extent the substantial success of this Bank is due to the high type of customers that patronize it.

We will gladly extend our service to your particular needs on request.

National Bank of Commerce in Philadelphia
713 Chestnut Street
Nathan T. Folwell, President

BAILEY BANKS & BIDDLE CO.
JEWELERS SILVERSMITHS STATIONERS

ENGAGEMENT RINGS
Gems of Super-Quality

Unique, artistic and distinctive designs

Draper
Top Coat for Fall

This is a form-fitting type of Top Coat—traced slightly at the waist with a graduated fullness over the hips extending to the bottom of skirt.

The Draper has all the earmarks of the English Coats that are so popular abroad this season, but has the added advantage of being produced with REED'S STANDARD OF TAILORING—accentuating the graceful lines of the designing.

"Draper" is made in Light, Dark Grays, Browns and Mixtures. Imported and Domestic fabrics, $45.00 and upward.

JACOB REED'S SONS
1424-1426 Chestnut Street