EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1920

Three Men Also Accused of Property Owners Say They Are Beating Chauffeur and Hit by High Price Wave of Profiteering Taking Car

TELEGRAM BETRAYS THEM ALL WARDS ARE LISTED

Three men and two women were ar-rested yesterday at Dublin, Ga., through an intercepted telegram, charged with beating a chauffeur into unconsciousness and robbing him of his taxicab, near Frazier, Pa., the morning of October 19. State value arrested the fire with the product of the board of revision of taxes at City Hall. 19.

State police arrested the five, who gave their names as George A. Bruce, B. W. Bourne, William Reich, Leona Stoole and Mary Trolley, all of Phila-delphia.
It is believed the stolen taxicab was delphia.

recovered with the arrest of the alleged owner just as hard as the real estate man, because in the former case the in-Harry Ward, a chauffeur of the American Taxicab Co., was the victim of the robbery. On the night of Oc-Ethel Levin, of 827 Dickinson street.

Hundreds of men and women of vary -

Snowden and Harry Bauerlo, James C.

the other wards.

uled as follows:

third and Forty-fifth.

tieth and Forty-sixth.

ty-eighth.

November 19-Thirty-ninth and For-

November 22 - Seventh, Eighth,

Mayor Expected to Act Despite Protests of Develin approval to Council this afternoon of delphis members of the American Olym-

WOMAN SAVED AT FIRE

Mrs. Mary Ernest, sixty-five years

REV. WM. S. HEALY DIES

Claver's Catholic Church

time of his death. The funeral will be held from that church, and interment will be made at Cornwell, Pa. Father Healy, who had been ill for two months, was in his seventy-fifth

MAIN BURSTS: HALTS CARS

an Hour

"Suburban"

$595

A burst water main in Manayunk tied

Agnes' at 10 o'clock

with vear.

Mayor Moore is expected to send his ordinance providing for the payment $15,000 for expenses of the Phila-

Handley and David T. Hart represented

Ethel Levin, of 827 Dickinson street. tober 18 he was summoned to a hotel told the assessors that her home form-on South Broad street, where he was erly valued at $2400 was now to be met by two men and a woman who said they wanted to be driven to Frazier. same block had sold at prices as high as $5000.

Told of Dying Mother

Arriving at Frazier, the men asked ing stations of life appeared before the assessors from 9 o'clock throughout the Ward to continue to Contesville. There they were joined by another man and morning. This day was set for cou-plaints from the First, Second, Third woman. The trip to Coatesville has plainte the and Fourth wards, comprising the term been made on the pretext that the and Fourth wards, comprising the term mother of one of the men was dying tory between Broad street, the Dela-tory between Broad

At Coatesville, they told Ward to take them back to Philadelphia, as the dying woman had been removed to a The assessors for the First ward who sat at the hearings were General George bospital in this city, they said. Seven miles cast of Coatesville, one of mon shoved a revolver against Ward's neck. Another man struck him on the head with a blackjack, and a third took the wheel off the taxicab. Ward was thrown unconscious into a ditch. He regained consciousness an hour later and crawled to a farmhouse, whence he was taken to the West Ches-Thirty-first.

ter Hospital. Money Not Taken

Money in Ward's pockets was not November taken by the robbers. The state police Twenty-second. say the five used the stolen car to procord to Georgia. One of the men sent a telegram to enth. Coatesville, inquiring as to details of the robbery and as to Ward's condi--seventh and Thirty eighth. tion. It was intercepted and the arrests followed v-third.

The five alleged robbers will be brought to Contesville to face charges of tieth and Thirty-sixth. robbery and assault and battery. fifth and Forty-first.

ACCIDENT AT CITY HALL

Workmen Endangered as Truck

Breaks Through Pavement

Four tons of buckwheat coal in a truck, consigned to City Hall by a coal firm at Fifteenth and Callowhill streets, Ninth and Tenth. hung suspended for more than an hou over the pump room beneath City Hall courtyard today, when the rear wheels crashed the heavy glass sky-lights at the south entrance. The acci-TO APPROVE OLYMPIC FUND ent occurred shortly before noon.

Workmen in the pump room scurried from the danger zone when the shat-tered lights, pushed from their fastenings of concrete, were hurled about. No one was injured.

The Mayor will approve the meas-ure, it is said, because he promised the

The picture shows two custodians of the bailot "box" or, rather can, of the Thirtieth division of the Forty-fourth ward taking it to the election commissioners' headquarters at City Hall. One is carrying the records and surplus ballots

Hearings of complaints from prop erty-owners of other wards are sched PUT CASH IN BANK, DETECTIVE KILLED Tomorrow-Fifth, Sixth, Eleventh, Tweifth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Six-teenth, Seventeenth and Twentieth. Friday-Eighteenth, Nineteenth and UNALARMED BY RUN FIGHTING SUSPECTS November 8-Twenty-fifth, Thirty-9 - Twenty-first and November 10-Fifteenth, Twenty-uinth, Thirty-second and Forty-sev-Depositors Prove Faith in Insti- P. R. R. Man Dies After Des-November 11-Twenty-eighth, Thirtution Which Was Subject perate Battle With Alof False Rumor leged Thieves November 12-Forty-second and For November 15-Twenty-sixth, Thir-BOOKS FOUND CORRECT HOLDS ON TO PRISONER November 16-Twenty-third, Thirty-A large number of persons made de-posits today at the Pennsylvania Bank and Trust Co., Seventh and Wolf streets, and this action appears to have reatored full. November 17-Twenty-fourth, Thir-y-fourth and Forty-fourth. November 18-Twenty-seventh, For-streets, and this action appears to have cral hours after a battle with a gang of restored full confidence in the institurestored full confidence in the institution on which a "run" was started last first street and Gray's Ferry avenue.

The run was caused by circulation of Thirtythird and Dickinson streets, who In his effort to hold Frank Schultz, of had been placed under arrest, Boyce Officials of the bank today announced was badly beaten. Death resulted from that the institution was solvent and a fractured skull.

prepared to meet all requests for money. Although there were two lines of people at the bank this morning, it was pital for wounds received in the fight with the detective, was given a hearing found that while many were withdrawing funds, a large number were de- this morning at the Twentieth and Federal streets station before Magistrate one was injured. Charles Jackson, a negro, of 1524 West Thompson street, dove the team Into the south entrance, intending to dump the coal into the pits under one too heavy for the cement-incased sky-light, and with a crash heard a square distant the rear wheels went through. the may or a level with the the team as a square distant the rear wheels went through. the may or a level with the the team as a square distant the rear wheels went through. the team as a square distant the rear wheels went through. the may or a level with the the team as a square distant the rear wheels went through. the team as a level with the team as a level with the the team as a level with the team as a level with the the team as a level with the team as a level with the team as a level with the the team as a level with team as a level with the team as a level with the out bail, pending the outcome of the

DFFICER OF NAVY Stop Auto at 1 A. M. and Escape After Obtaining Watch and Cash

TIMEPIECE IS RECOVERED

Two armed negroes held up Lieutenant Commander D. B. Wainwright, of the United States navy, as he was driving home in his automobile at 1 o'clock this morning and escaped with $14 and a gold watch.

A watch, believed to be the officer's, was recovered this morning in a pawn-shop at Seventeenth and Bainbridge streets.

The hold-up occurred at Twenty-sec-ond and Latimer streets. Commander Wainwright was driving toward his Wainwright was driving toward his home, at 2114 Walnut street, when one of the robbers jumped in front of his automobile and covering the victim with a gun ordered him to stop. As the lieutenant brought the ma-BERGDOLL RETRIAL

As the lieutenant brought the ma-chine to a stop a second robber shoved a revolver over the side of the automo-bile and told Wainwright to hand over his money and valuables. The men then ordered Wainwright to drive on. He reported the robbery to the police of the Fifteenth and Locust streets station, and a file was sant streets station, and a flier was sent

The proprietor of the pawnshop on Bainbridge street saw the flier. When a negro attempted to pawn a gold watch there this morning the pawnbroker telephoned for the police. The alleged robber overheard the tele An accurate description of the man was furnished the police by the pawn-

broker. PENN CO-EDS IN CLASH

Girls Prove Their Sex Can Be Just as Tough as the Male

Sophomore co-eds broke up a meeting of their first-year sisters at the Uni-versity of Pennsylvania yesterday afternoon and prevente uled for last night. and prevented a meeting sched-

Miss Margaret Toogood led a band of soph co-cds against the freshman girls who were meeting in the Kappa Gamma Sorority house on Walnut street. which There was a sharp clash, in hair, crepe de chine and power flew. The sophs were driven from the so-rority house, but later re-enforcements arrived and the freshman meeting was car as it zigzagged as far as Sixty-third Pennsylvania Railroad yards, Thirty- and Market streets. Sophomore vigilantes prevented another meeting last night.

> HELD AFTER AUTO TRAGEDY Chauffeur Says Collision Victim had been captured by the American au-

said the accident was due to the fact

Drove Without Lights

John McLaughlin, a chauffeur, of Fifty-third street above Haverford avenue, was arrested last night by de-tectives of the Fifty-fifth and Pine and other parts of Baden until within employed by

of 6120 Locust street.-McLaughlin admitted he was driv-ing the touring car that struck Gel-good's automobile at Sixty-third and Catharine streets, killing Gelgood and Seriously injuring Mrs. Esther Fields.

mount Park dam project, and the street cleaning and garbage collection pro-grams for 1021 were discussed. "It has been proven," said the Mayor, "that Philadelphia can hold a or factionalism. Phila. Man Says He Was Told Grover Was in Germany, but Did Not See Him but Did Not See Him REPORT IS CONFIRMED not from political bosses. "The people yesterday had a fair chance to express their will at the poll-as they always should have in the 'pa-Argument in the Federal Court here triotic old city of Philadelphia. for a new trial for Mrs. Emma C. Great Responsibility On G. O. P.

Bergdoll and four co-defendants was After expressing his satisfaction over the outcome as it relates to the Presi dency, Mayor Moore continued: postponed indefinitely today. Apparent confirmation has been re-"Great responsibility will rest upo ceived here that Grover C. Bergdoll, escaped army convict, has been in Ger- to expectation of the people in the mat many in recent months. It was Grover's ter of reduction of taxes. The bill has flight that led to the conviction of his mother, Charles S. Braun, a brother: been piled so terribly high during the Wilson administration that it seems doubtful if immediate relief can be pro-James E. Romig, Albert S. Mitchell and vided in this respect.

Harry Schub, on charges of conspiracy, J. W. Hartman, 1258 Dover street, today repudiated reports that he had of the people, and enable the incoming seen and talked with Grover in Ger- administration to get rid of a number of many. Hartman returned recently from commissions and other forms of extrav-Germany, where he had gone to acquire automobile patents. "I was in Mannheim," he said, "and when a dealer there learned I was from Philadelphia, he said he had recently sold a high-powered car to some-one from Philadelphia. I asked the customer's name and was told it was Grover C. Bergdoll. The sale had been Grover C. Bergdoll. The sale had been made two weeks before. "I did not see Bergdoll while I was in Germany. I know him by sight, be-cause I had formerly worked for him." Within the last day or two there of

LT. COM. D. B. WAINWRIGHT Naval efficer who was held up and robbed by armed thugs while driv-ing his auto on the way to his residence, 2114 Walnut street

PLEA POSTPONED

thorities at Coblenz, Germany. They have cabled a denial of this report, but streets station in connection with the death Monday night of Morris Gelgood, of 6120 Locust street.

the Republicans, especially with regard "A change of administration will undoubtedly help to restore the confidence agance which have helped to keep this country on a war basis, notwithstanding all other nations have been at peace

Necessity of consideration of a pro tective tariff was commented on by the Mayor, but the keynote of his afterelection statement emphasized the need "getting down to a purely business basis, on strict constructive lines, not only in the city, but in the entire coun-He declined to make any detailed

PHILADELPHIA WEST END TRUST

BUILDING BREVITIES

Mayor, "that Philadelphia can hold a penceful and orderly election, and that thuggivry and violence can be sup-pressed. The police were instructed to see that the people who had the right to vote could do so without fear, favor or factionalism. statement on the results of the Pommer the support of a new councilman, to facilitate development of important plans, he emphasized that the "costly victory of the contractors" would not

SAVES CHILD FROM DEATH Man Sweeps Her From Path of Falling Telephone Pole

ing Telephone Pole William C. Auch, of 862 Passyunk avenue, saved the life of Agnes Small when a telephone pole fell at Eighth street and Passyunk avenue last night. Auch saw the pole sway in the wind and begin to fall. Noticing the child directly under the poll, he dashed to her side and swept her from danger as the pole struck the ground where she bad been standing.

Needn't say

much about them. They'll themselves if you look them

over, even in our window!

Tremendous

Sale of

Our Finest

south entrance pavement. The section athletes at a celebration in traffic through the entrance diverted nance be approved there is a possibility until the truck was pulled from the that payment of the money will be at-

HONORED BY RED CROSS

Mrs. George W. Urquhart Again is Carried From Second-Floor Room. Will Head Relief Auxiliary Fireman Also Overcome

Mrs. George W. Urouhart was re elected chairman of the Urquhart Aux-iliary of Red Cross at the annual meeting held today at 218 South Nineteenth street. Mrs. Walter C. Richardson, ing held today at 218 South Nineteenth street. Mrs. Walter C. Richardson, Mrs. M. Y. Smith, Mrs. O. LaForrest Perry and Mrs. Frederick P. Warren were elected vice chairmen; Mrs. Ed-ward W. Moli transmither of the street. She was taken to St. Mary's Hospital. elected vice chairmen; Mrs. Ed-M. Moll, treasurer; Mrs. James were elected vice chairmen; Mrs. Ed-ward M. Moll, treasurer; Mrs. James H. Morris, secretary, and Mrs. Charles G. Fraser, corresponding secretary. The directors are: Mrs. Helen Bonsall, Mrs. E. B. McCowen, Mrs. Charles Fraser, E. B. McCowen, Mrs. Charles Fraser, Charle E. B. McCowen, Mrs. Charles Fraser, Mrs. R. L. Murray, Mrs. Ralph Stew-art, Mrs. J. Newlin Brown, Mrs. Alexander Fox, Jr., Mrs. William G. Henry, Mrs. Harry Porter, Mrs. O. J. De-Rousse, Mrs. Roland Bowers and Mrs. Otto W. Schaun.

Plenty Smoke, Not Much Fire

A fire which started in a third-story bedroom of the home of Joseph Peass, 1430 Porter street, shortly before 10 o'clock this morning, caused a lot of smoke but little damage. After furni-ture and bedding in the room had been thrown out of the window the fire was easily put under control. The damage was about $300.

Deaths of a Day

J. H. HONS

Bell Telephone Co. Auditor for Penn sylvania Dies

H. Hons, general auditor of the Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania, yesterday at his home, 162 West Rell Hortter street. Germantown, after an vers extending over several months. Norn in New York city in 1874, he bers extending both the set of th Pennsylvania as division auditor of receipts in this city. Two years later he became auditor of the company, and just a year ago he was promoted to be general auditor. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Jessamine Eleanor K. Hons, and a daughter, Dorothy Hons.

Mrs. Agnew's Funeral

Mrs. Louisa Warne Agnew, who died on Monday last, will be buried from her home at 4002 Pine street tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock." Interment will be in the family vault in Woodlands Cemetery. Mrs. Agnew was born on October 3

Mrs. Agnew was born on October 3, 1852. She was a daughter of the late Major Elisha S. Warne. She was the widow of Dr. John P. Agnew. Mrs. Agnew is survived by one brother Edward P. B. Warne. She was a mem-ber of the Walnut Street Presbyterian Church.

Charles S. Reichard Charles S. Reichard, fifty years old, active in Democratic politics for many years, died suddenly at his home on vears, died suddenly at his house on Walnut street. Audubon, early this morning. Death followed an attack of sonte indigestion. He is survived by his ridow, seven sons and two daughters.

mainder. This recommendation is being fol-lowed, although it is specified in the tached in a taxpayers' suit.

He Was Assistant Priest at St. Peter, Thieves Cut Through Floor to Get

Funeral services for the Rev. William Healy, who died last night in St. gnes' Hospital, will be held Saturday 10 o'clock. The services of the store of the store of the Greenberg Clothing Co., 1331 Arch street, by forcing a cellar window and cutting a hole through the first floor yes-

He was for thirty years connected with St. Peter Claver's Catholic Church, Tweifth and Lombard streets, The robbery was not discovered until where he was assistant priest at the this morning, as the place was closed time of his death. The funeral will be yesterday. It is believed that the loot books of depositors that two weeks' notice is required to withdraw any amount of money.

Break in Manayunk Delays Traffic new President.

Law in Hospital

Into Store

was taken away in an automobile.

ZESTERDAY public

Creating public preference for your merchandise

HERBERT M. MORRIS

Advertising Agency

Every Phase of Sales Promotion

North American Bldg. Philadelphia

"White House"

$750

This

Sumptu-

Wrap, 169.50

is our specialty.

ULBRANSEN Player-Piano

Three Models-Nationally Priced

"Country Seat"

$660

The Greatest Values in the World at These Prices

"Everything Musical Since 1864"

WEYMANN

1108 Chestnut St.

preference created a

Monday

positing.

eased CAR VICTIM IDENTIFIED

Boyce, detailed to watch the yards, saw Schultz acting suspiciously and ar-rested him. Immediately he put up a NAVY NEEDS 4700 MEN fight, and his cries brought members of his gang. To defend himself Boyce fired

Special Advantages Are Offered Patrolman Finds Body of Sister-in-several shots from his revolver, but none was effective. Detective and prisoner Youths Who Enlist Now extinguished

The chauffeur

To fill remaining vacancies in the ranks of the enlisted personnel of the navy, Secretary Daniels has ordered a pattled, rolling on the ground, and Schultz is declared to have beaten the detective over the head with his own special campaign to be undertaken, with blackjack.

coroner's inquest. Two downtown res- Steiner, of 5820 Webster street.

terial witnesses in the case and were re- that the lights on Gelgood's car were

There are now 9568 young men study Federal streets station brought a de-tail, and Boyce and Schultz were both sent to the Polyclinic Hospital. De-cialists for the navy, leaving 4700 vacialists for the navy, leaving 4700 tectives Wildridge, Donahue and Balzer are working on the case. country ...

Five Men Hold Up Swift & Co. Em- Hold-Up Men Refuse to Take Hollploye and Take Cash day on Election

Edward McDonnell, of 150 West Nor-ris street, a driver for Swift & Co., Darby, and Alfred Simpson, of Chester, was held up and robbed of $100 last at Island road and Elmwood avenue. night at Ninth and Thompson streets was held up and robbed of $100 fast at Island road and Linwood avenue. night at Ninth and Thompson streets. Five men in a red touring car, be-lieved to have committed a score of highway robberies in the city, stopped McDonnell and commanded him to turn days collections. over the day's collections.

These newly arrived coats and wraps are graceful mantles of fashion.

There is a distinctive note of elegance in the fabrics and luxurious fur trimmings which distinguish The Blum Store coats and wraps. From closely draped styles to flaring topcoats these fashions presented here range smartly.

New Materials and New Modes Are Given Unusually Skillful Interpretation in These Coats for Women and Misses.

THE BLUM STORE

A New Organization With an Old Name

Our assortment of garments for Fall and Winter

is so diversified that you.

will have no difficulty here in finding just the type of clothing which is suited to your specific requirements.

the conservative dignity of middle age, and others with the snap and vigor of best of fabrics-appropriate in texture and coloring

for the age requirements of the wearer and the style

I Always and only in the young manhood. .

of the garment.

JACOB REED'S SONS

1424-1426 Chestnut Street

Styles are shown that have

The loss is valued at $800. Hoseman Joseph Dyer, of Engine Company No. 20, Fourth street and Girard avenue, was also overcome by smoke in fighting the flames, but was revived in the street. election throughout the day. When he learned that a woman had been killed and that her body remained unidentified he went to the hospital and recognized the victim as his sister-in-law. $8000 CLOTH STOLEN old, was overcome by smoke and had to be carried from her second-floor room Frankford avenue near Seltzer street at tail, and Boyce and Schultz were sent to the Polyclinic Hospital.

idents furnished $400 bail each as ma-

A riot call sent to the Twentieth and