Commoner Says Wilson Laid Foundation of Democratic Disaster

NOMINEE FOLLOWED LEAD

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 4. - William J Bryan holds President Wilson and Govrnor Cox jointly responsible for the lisaster that evertook the Democratic party on Tuesday. He says that the President laid the foundation and the governor completed the structure. In statement given out last evening, just before leaving for the East, Mr. Bryan does he spare Governor Cos. The spare Governor Cox,

"While the majorities are larger than even the Republican leaders expected.

Democratic defeat was inevitable and the Republican leaders expected, a Democratic defent was inevitable and the blame is easily placed. The President laid the foundation for the disaster and Governor Cox completed the structure. The President attempted to drive out of public life every Democrat who dared to differ from him, even in minute details, while he made no effort to strengthen the Democrats who made strengthen the Democrats who made the beautiful that the keeper of their conscience. He alienated all Republican support and invited partisan opposition by his appeals, just before the election of 1918, for a Congress that would support his personal leadership, and then, though knowing full well that the majority in the nation was against him, he refused to deal with the Senate as a coo deal with the Senate as a co-Insisted on Dictation

"Instead of recognizing that the conthirds majority for ratification com-pelled compromise, he insisted upon dictating the terms upon which ratification could be had, and then, on the 19th of March, stubbornly rejected rati-

Senator Harding and some thirty-five other Republicans were willing to accept the league as he wrote it, with the few changes upon which they in-sisted. By thus preventing ratification the President assumed responsibility for the nation's failure to enter the league and thrust the league into the campaign as a partisan issue. The people, confronted with the choice between presidential infallibility and respect for the epinions of the majorty of the Senate, naturally chose the latter, and the Democratic party, by indorsing the President's position, invited the defeat that has overtaken it.

"Governor Cox, instead of repairing the injury done by the President, agravated the situation by the President, ag-ravated the situation by the manner in which he avoided domestic and mis-represented the position of the Repub-lican party on the league issue, which he declared to be paramount. He dodged the liquor question, seeking to create in the West the impression that he fa-

He sought to conciliate the value of the excess profits tax while he appealed to the West against the reactionaries.

"His attempt to put the Democratic party in the attitude of being the sole guardian of peace was ridiculous, and it assauls upon such well-known advocates of peace as ex-President Taft and Herbert Hoover were disgraceful.

Indifferent to League

"The American people want the government to play its part in the abolition of war, but they are indifferent as to whether we are part of a league or east of the Nation will organize to compete the real issue presented by the Democratic party was not hothing in a name, but everything in sentiment. with Mrs. Harding he will start at 7:30 Saturday morning for Point Isabel, Tex., where he will spend twelve days hunting and fishing prior to an ocean voyage to the Panama canal zone. He plans to be back in Marion December 6, and after that may go to some gulf coast resort for a winter to be spent in choosing his cabinet and formulating the policies of his administration.

istration Except for an engagement made sev eral months ago to speak on December 5 in Bedford, Va., at an Elks' memorial service, Mr. Harding has no appointments for public speeches between now and inauguration. He may make short talks from his train along the way south, however, and may also deliver one or two addresses on particular subjects before March 4.

Tonight Marion is to celebrate forlar subjects before March 4.

Tonight Marion is to celebrate formally his election to the presidency, and several hundred people from other cities are expected to join in the occasion. There will be all the noise and red fire that his loyal neighbors and friends can produce, and many special features to give the Harding front porch and lawn one final baptism of campaign glory.

HARDING 10,000 LEAD

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 4.—(By A. P.)—On the face of returns compiled by newspapers from virtually the entire state. Senator Harding early today had a lead of approximately 10.000 rigures tabulated by the Memphis Commercial Appeal from all but fifty of the precincts, ninety-three of the linety-five counties in the state, gave Harding a plurality of 9977 and showed Colonel Alf Taylor, Republican candidate for governor, leading his Democratic opponent, Governor Roberts, by 37.197 votes.

The Commercial Appeal's tabulation

The Commercial Appeal's tabulation did not include Marion and Bledsoe counties, both in the eastern part of the state. Both of the counties are conthe state. Both of the counters are considered safely Republican. The Commercial Appeal totals were:
Harding, 169,759; Cox. 189,782,
Taylor, 198,114; Roberts, 160,917

Returns from ninety-three counties compiled by the Knoxville Journal and Tribune gave Harding a lead of 10,801 and Taylor a plurality of 39,477.
