

WORLD FRATERNITY IS HARDING'S AIM

New Association to Be Founded on Spirit of Justice and Righteousness

AMERICA WILL DO ITS PART

Marion, O., Nov. 5.—Making his first speech as President-elect, Warren G. Harding declared at an election celebration of home folks here last night that the Versailles League of Nations was "now deceased" although the administration intended to see that the nation played its part in a new international association founded on peace and justice.

Mr. Harding also told his friends and neighbors, nearly 30,000 of whom gathered around the front porch in a cheering concourse rivaling the greatest crowd of the campaign, that he had come through the fight "without an apology or a regret."

No Sorrow Over League

Great cheers greeted that utterance. For an hour parades, carrying red flags, had streamed by the Harding home, carrying banners that "Harding and a clean campaign won," exhibiting the Democratic donkey ridden to defeat, and showing the "League of Nations" on a pier, followed by a Democratic rooster on a high pole draped in mourning.

"I didn't notice as much sorrow in your faces as I might have apprehended," said Senator Harding, referring to the league effigy. "It isn't that you or I question the desirability of the United States having part in a fraternity of nations or that we question the ideals of those responsible for the Versailles covenant."

"But you didn't want a surrendered United States of America or the mortgaging of America to the old world; you wanted to go on under American ideals. That's why you didn't want the league, which is now deceased."

"That doesn't mean you don't want America to do its full part. There is a new world relationship to be established. I would tell the world that when

WEARS HAT FOR FIRST TIME IN 8 YEARS ON G. O. P. VICTORY

New Jersey Farmer Had Made Bet He Would Go Bare-Headed Until Republican Was Again Elected President

"Al" Shinn, a Burlington county farmer, living at Mansville, N. J., is wearing a hat for the first time in eight years as a result of the election of a Republican President.

Eight years ago Shinn made a bet with Bill Lippincott, the Masonville blacksmith, that if Taft was elected Bill would have to show his bare head all around without charge, and in the event of Wilson's election he would go hatless until the next Republican President was elected.

Shinn lost the bet, and he has kept his vow. Rain, snow or sunshine, hot or cold, "Shinn," as most of the neighbors call him, has gone without a hat. He has worn his hair long, seldom having it cut, and when he appeared on Wednesday, the day following election, with a haircut and a brand-new "kelly" on his head, his home-coming was not unlike that of Rip Van Winkle.

Even Al's favorite hound dog greeted the stranger with growls and barks, and the next administration comes into power we are going to ask for the nations to be associated in a spirit of justice and world righteousness. But it shall be one that surrenders nothing of American freedom, nothing of American nationality, nothing that mortgages us to the old world, but leaves us to go on with a free course to lead as the greatest republic on earth in the fulfillment of the destinies of the world.

"God helping me, I'm going to Washington as a booster of the United States of America. I don't mean an America having a selfish existence or at the cost of discouraging or neglecting the world, but we must be strong at home to play our part, and I want America to be the strongest nation on the face of the earth. I know America will meet every obligation to the world."

Senator Harding declared he believed America was not expecting a superman president, that he was a superman, but that, as President, he would re-establish government of and by the people.

Harding "Never a Radical"

"Maybe I have one qualification that will be of value in our present situation," he said. "I have all along preached conference and consultation. I have never been a radical. Sometimes I have been called an ultra-conservative or a reactionary. What we need is a little slowing up by the radicals and speeding up by the conservatives, so that we can give to the country and the world its proper leadership and stabilizing influence.

"When I go into office I'm going in knowing that America is right, that she has spoken and has faith in a sobering service. For the benefit of mankind I shall be glad to participate in such a service."

He said he hoped so to conduct himself in office as to hold the confidence and respect expressed so heartily by his fellow townsmen.

WOMAN, 65, SHERIFF-ELECT

Declares She Can Land Bad Man, but Will Make Husband Deputy

Rosemound, Mich., Nov. 5.—(By A. P.)—Mrs. Jane Johnson, sixty-five years old, mother of three children and sheriff-elect of Roscommon county, today outlined the platform on which she will go into office next January.

"I can land a bad man or a bad woman myself, if necessary," she said, "but as a matter of precaution I will appoint my husband deputy. In the intervals between searching for and caring for prisoners I will look after my children—two girls and a boy—and the domestic duties in the county jail."

Mrs. Johnson added that in case it should become necessary for her "to arrest a bad man, he will know some one has been after him."

The sheriff-elect gained her experience from her husband, who has been sheriff for the last six years and whom she married forty years ago.
