

D'ANNUNZIO OCCUPA ALTRO TERRITORIO

Il Promontorio di San Marco è Stato Occupato da 500 Legionari

Published and Distributed Under PERMIT No. 341 Authorized by the act of October 3, 1917, on file at the Postoffice of Philadelphia, Pa. A. S. BURLINGAME, Postmaster General.

Trieste, 5 novembre.—Gabriele D'Annunzio, il comandante delle forze che occupano Fiume e lo strenuo difensore dell'Italia in detta città, ha occupato con 500 uomini di truppa il promontorio di San Marco, a sud di Bucari, come una protesta contro la pretesa rappresentanza da parte di guardie costali serbe che fecero fuoco sopra il vapore italiano "Issoria," proveno lente da Bucari.

Le truppe di D'Annunzio si trovano ora di fronte alla frontiera Jugoslava.

Verona, 5 Novembre.—In occasione della celebrazione della vittoria di Vittorio Veneto un reparto di truppe sanitarie nel palazzo municipale era insediata l'amministrazione socialista, la quale aveva stabilito di sostituire la bandiera nazionale con il vessillo rosso. Il palazzo era difeso da molti socialisti armati e le truppe vennero costate a un conflitto con essi.

Finalmente i soldati ebbero il sopravvento e penetrarono nell'interno del municipio ove vi fu scambio di qualche colpo d'arma da fuoco. Durante il conflitto il deputato socialista estremista, Policarpo Scaramello, fu scaraventato contro un muro e siccome aveva in tasca una bomba, questa esplose e lo feriva in modo tale, che mentre lo trasportavano in un ospedale cessava di vivere. Anche molti altri socialisti rimasero feriti e ammucchiati. Tra essi vi sono alcuni consiglieri comunali.

Roma, 5 novembre.—Prevale l'opinione che gli imminenti negoziati tra i delegati jugoslavi ed italiani, per sistemare la questione dell'Adriatico, non condurranno ad alcun risultato pratico, data la intrasparenza dei rappresentanti della Jugoslavia.

Pochi sono quelli che sperano in una conclusione per un soddisfacente accordo. Questi ottimisti ricordano che dopo una visita del Comm. Volpi a Belgrado, il Governo Italiano fece sapere a governo serbo di essere disposto a riprendere le trattative interrotte a Pallanza.
