

MISS HOPKINS AND HER MEXICAN LOVER. Harriet Stewart (left) and Dorothy Keene, at the Halloween party, given yesterday, at the West Philadelphia High School for Girls.

AN ORGAN GRINDER AND A WREATH. The street organ player is well captured by Marguerite Eastman, while the penny grinder is Stella Hastings, her sister. They are both students at the West Philadelphia High School for Girls.

POLAND'S EIGHTY-YEAR-OLD 'GROSS PRODUCE.' He is Samuel Krasnowski, who has just arrived with his baggage in New York.

A NEW SPORT. Aquaplaning has been adopted by naval men at Great Lakes Naval Station. The hydroplane is used instead of the motorboat.

A LITTLE HOCKEY PRACTICE. Girls of the Temple University team getting ready for a game to be played today. They practice at Kingsessing recreation center.

MARLBOROUGH PLAYS AT MOORESTOWN. Two teams seem to be pitted up on a Moorestown High School player, who has the ball. The New Jersey girl players were a busy lot. They made a lot of real football noise.

ON THE WAY TO THE SECOND TOUCHDOWN. A Ridley Park player has the ball in the game played against Swarthmore High School, at Ridley Park.

SPAIN'S CHAMPION BULL FIGHTER. He is Juan Belmonte, who has come to the United States with his wife.

A SHOULDER STAND. Miss Helen Flanagan is holding Miss Edna Weil. They are both students at Temple University and were practicing at the Kingsessing recreation center when snapped.

SURF-RIDING IN HONOLULU. The rider is Lord Mountbatten, of England, who is an expert at this waxy sport.

THE REV. LOUIS C. WARBURN discusses the eight branches of Christ Church in an interview on the editorial page.

THE OPPOSITE OF LEONARD. (Left) Ridley Park (left) and Hoover, of Swarthmore High School. Both have won fame in Delaware county football history this season.

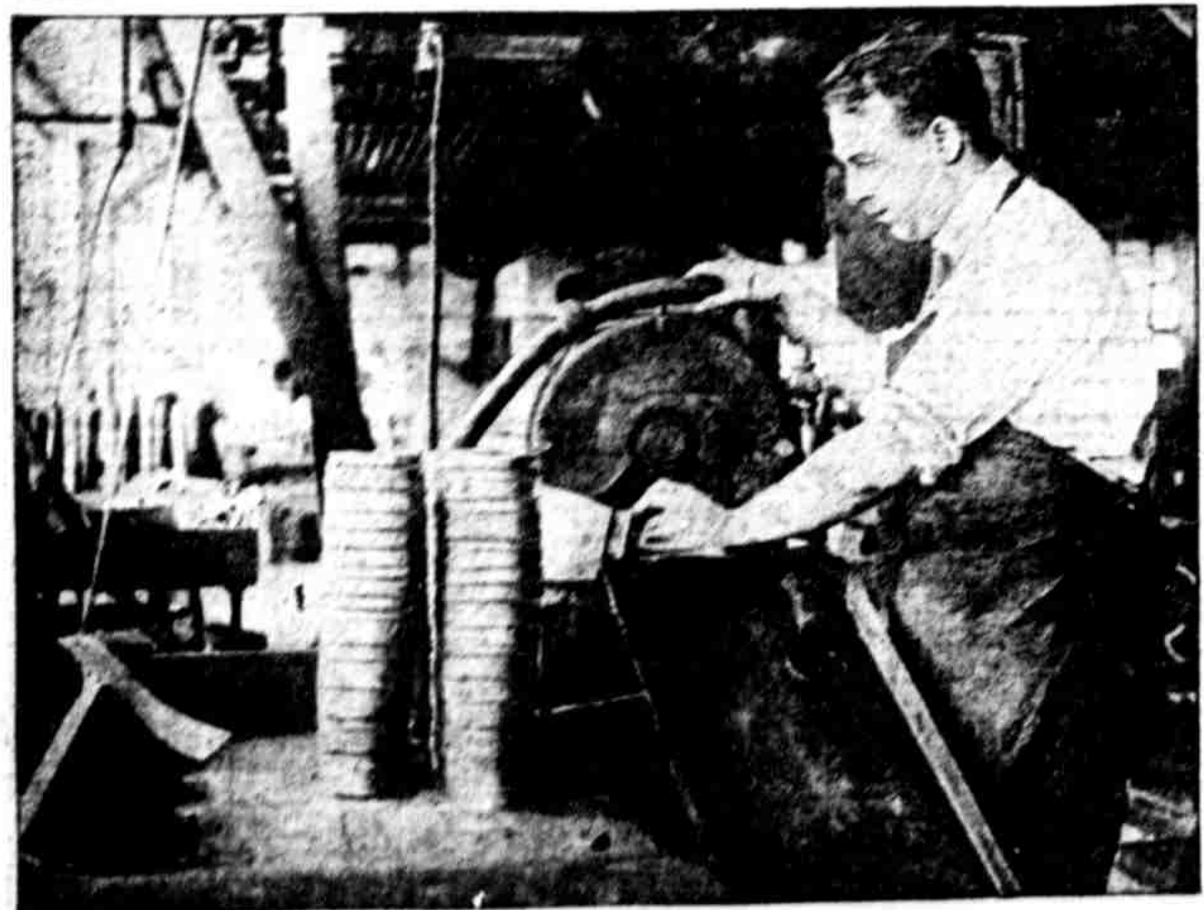

MISS DOROTHY ANNE WOOD, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. J. B. Gowen, is one of the debutantes in Washington's army circle.

FIRST IN 900 YEARS. Oxford College, England, has conferred degrees on women, the first time in the history of the college. Five of the degree students are being photographed by a friend.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

A. A. JOHNSON, 1822 ARCH STREET, operating a machine at the Wilkening Manufacturing Co., between and Mt. Vernon streets, that does side grinding of piston rings at the rate of 5000 a day.

DON'T MIND THE BRITISH COAL STRIKE. She lives near a peat bog, and was told to help herself. She did.

POPULAR CUBAN GIRL. Miss Margaret Lopez Gobel, of Havana, Cuba, who is enjoying a stay at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. She is an enthusiastic horsewoman.

AMBASSADOR FROM ARGENTINA. He is Tomas A. Le Breton, who represented his country at the Paris peace conference.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS DOROTHY ANNE WOOD 8825 Osage avenue Philadelphia