The resignation of Dr. Joseph Swain, after twenty years' service as president of Swarthmore College, brings to mind the many things he has done for the education of women at Swarthmore.

Deborah Swan

TODAY I am going to introduce to you a new exhibition this week at the store of J. Franklin Miller, 1612 Chestnut Street.

WHAT is quite so satisfying as the feeling that one is well-dressed? A well-tailored, comfortable sports shirt adds immeasurably to the joy of an autumn ride through country lanes.

ALL the genius of the artists who create those exquisite settings for the most precious stones at the store of Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company, finds expression in a wonderfully beautiful dinner ring.

"WHERE did you buy those good-looking new shoes, if I'm not too inquisitive?" asked the Main Line lady.

ONE can see so much when on a shopping trip if one knows beforehand just which stores one is going to visit.

"Why, yes, I saw a pair there last week, and their prices really were reasonable. I want a pair of 'rogues, myself, so I'll go with you."
