Belfast, Londonderry and the Causeway Scene of Fatal Riots

SINN FEIN SHOPS BURNED

Belfast, Nov. 8.—Fierce rioting broke out in North Belfast yesterday, the neighborhood involved being the network of streets between Clifton street and old Lodge road, known as the Stanhope area, which has figured in every disturbance since July. Hundreds joined in the fray, the Unionists with stones and the Sinn Feiners with revolvers and rifles.

Wild Scenes in Londonderry

Wild scenes were witnessed in Londonderry Saturday night as a sequel to a sudden attack on policemen there. Five policemen were shot, two seriously, that they are not expected to recover. Two shops were burned to the ground and several others were wrecked. All the property attacked belonged to Sinn Feiners.

Smashed Windows With Rifles

Later in the evening a hostile crowd assembled in Waterloo Square, a Sinn Fein thoroughfare, and had to be dispersed by the military. Even after the curfew hour they were not deterred from using revolvers and rifle fire for several hours, with occasional bomb-like explosions. Armed men passed along William street smashing shop windows with the butt ends of rifles, destroying lamps on the electric standards by rifle fire and plunging the whole street into darkness.

Occupy Disputed Territory Despite Bulgarian Protests
Paris, Nov. 8.—(By A. P.)—The Bulgarian legation here yesterday received the following telegram from Sofia: "Serbian troops have crossed the frontier to occupy the territory detached from Bulgaria by the treaty of Neuilly, without awaiting the demarcation of the frontier and the settlement of numerous questions brought before the ambassadors' conference in Paris. The Bulgarian Government, finding the occupation premature, protested, but to prove its loyalty it ordered the Bulgarian authorities to withdraw without resistance. Serbian troops entered Tsaribrod yesterday morning. All the stores were closed as a sign of mourning, and three days of mourning have been declared throughout Bulgaria."

Turkish Report: Say Country is Passing Under Bolshevik Control
Constantinople, Nov. 8.—(By A. P.)—Armenia is passing under Bolshevik control, it is said in reports received here from Tiflis. Turks and Bolsheviks have effected a junction at Alexandropol, and it is probable the city of Erivan has been occupied by Turkish troops commanded by Kazio Kaarabekir Pasia. Armenian troops are reported to be surrendering or seeking refuge in Georgia.

Delegati si Riuniscono Mentre i Serbi Sparano sui Soldati di D'Annunzio

Published and Distributed Under PERMIT NO. 341. Authorized by the act of October 4, 1917, on file at the Postoffice of Philadelphia, P. A. S. HULLERSON, Postmaster General

Roma, 8 novembre.—I Delegati Italiani e Jugoslavi, che dovranno cercare di trovare una sistemazione del problema relativo alla disposizione dei territori sulla costa orientale dell'Adriatico, sono arrivati in Santa Margherita, vicino Genova, e le conversazioni tra essi cominceranno oggi.

Roma, 8 novembre.—Proprio alla vigilia della ripresa dei negoziati tra l'Italia e la Jugoslavia, che saranno iniziati oggi a Santa Margherita, vicino Genova, degli incidenti sono avvenuti tra le truppe di D'Annunzio ed i Serbi. Giovedì D'Annunzio inviò il Capitano Piffer, suo primo aiutante, con truppe per occupare la rocca di San Martino, all'entrata dello stretto di Morlaccia, per prevenire che i serbi dall'apposta sponda, sul promontorio di Buccari, potessero ostacolare la navigazione. Il giorno seguente, venerdì, i serbi realizzando che gli italiani avevano occupato e stavano fortificando il posto, aprirono il fuoco sopra di essi, secondo un dispaccio giunto all'Idea Nazionale, come pure fecero fuoco sopra un piccolo vapore che D'Annunzio aveva posto a disposizione dei suoi uomini.

Anton Trumbitch, ministro per gli Esteri; e M. Stoyanovich, ministro delle finanze, in unione ad un seguito di 15 persone, compreso il colonnello Kalafatovich, addetto militare a Parigi, e "qui" arrivata ieri e fu ricevuta dai Delegati Italiani comprendenti il Conte Sforza, ministro per gli Affari Esteri; l'On. Bonomi, ministro della Guerra, ed il Sig. Salata, capo dell'Ufficio dei territori liberati. Era presente anche la Contessa Sforza, che ricevette la Signora di Trumbitch e Vesnitch. Rappallo e' stato scelto come il luogo piu' adatto per i negoziati in parola, per la dolcezza del suo clima, ma oggi eccezionalmente si verifica un freddo intenso e la caduta della neve.

Le delegazioni si riuniranno a Villa Spinola, che recentemente fu occupata da un italiano della Dalmazia che con la sua lanterna in cerca di un uomo dimoro' per lungo tempo in Argentina, onesto.
