

FORWARD PASSES BY HARVARD PUT THE TIGERS UP IN THE AIR AND MADE THEM BACK UP

PRINCETON OUTPOINTS CRIMSON BY PLAYING BETTER GAME, EVEN THOUGH SCORE RESULTED IN TIE

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger

THE Princeton football team lived up to the brilliant record made this year in the earlier games and outpointed Harvard in the big gridiron struggle in Cambridge Saturday. The final score was 14 to 14 deadlock, but the Tigers seem to have played the better game.

Handicapped at the start by two 15-yard penalties, which were due to overcautiousness and not dirty play on the part of Roper's men, Princeton came back strong.

Coach Fisher sent in Pitts, a star halfback who had been kept under cover all year, to replace Churchill. Then Sedgwick took Hubbard's place at left tackle and Buell supplanted Fitzgerald at quarterback.

Princeton was leading by one touchdown, Don Lourie was using excellent judgment in running the team and the Crimson was drawing to a close. Up to this time the Princeton depended on straight football, evidently holding back the open attack for the Yale game.

Crouching behind the center, Buell took the ball, faked it to a halfback on a line plunger, and then, running back 8 yards, he threw the ball at Pitts, who was standing out there all alone. That was the start. Two line bucks failed and another pass netted a few yards.

Then came the finale. Buell again ran back and broke, after crossing the goal line, leaped in the air, caught the ball and touched it down.

ALL of these passes were thrown to the left side of the Harvard line, which is the right side of Princeton's defense. Not a single pass was taken Mar-mer's place, probably was fooled by the open play.

Roper Proves Worth as Coach BILL ROOPER proved beyond question that he is a great football coach Saturday. His team played a much better game than in the Yale contest last year, presented a more varied, sensible attack and a sound defense.

Princeton forwards as was expected, and the Crimson made but five first downs in rushing the ball. All of these were made in the first half.

MURREY had taken Scheerer's place in the backfield and a big improvement in Princeton's play was noticeable after the kick-off. After an exchange of punts the Tigers had the ball on Harvard's 40-yard line.

Then Lourie stepped into the picture. Racing down the sideline he saw the ball coming. He kept on going, but turned his head to keep his eye on the ball.

Lourie used excellent headwork when making this run, for he was not more than one yard away from the sideline and was in danger of running out of bounds.

With the score tied, Harvard continued to play conservative football. The same system was used, and this almost lost the game. Near the end of the period it was Harvard's ball on her own 40-yard line, third down and only six inches to go.

When the sides changed goals it was Princeton's ball, second down on the 2-yard line. Garrity plunged through center, but was stopped three inches from the goal.

Then came a piece of excellent judgment on the part of Lourie. Instead of directing another play at the center of the line, as nine quarterbacks out of ten would have done, he called for a plunge off tackle.

After that Princeton tried to play it safe, but the last forward-pass attack, which caught Roper's men completely off their guard, saved the day for Harvard.

Keck's Playing a Big Feature THE work of Keck, the big Princeton tackle, stamps him as one of the best linemen of the year. He was all over the field, got down under punts ahead of his ends, tackled savagely and took care of his side of the line.

THE right side of the Tiger line, however, was rather weak. Kane, Hubbard and Wood broke through repeatedly and smeared plays before they reached the line of scrimmage. They also hurried all of the forward passes.

Harvard also has a great tackle in Sedgwick. This young man was not in the game very long and his work on Saturday in no way compares with that of Keck's, but he looks like one of the best linemen in years.

WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND

YOUR SWEETIE WHO HAPPENS TO BE A GIRL SCOUT TOUCHES YOU FOR A DOLLAR MEMBERSHIP IN THE GIRL SCOUT CAMPAIGN—AND ALL YOU'VE GOT IS A TOP STRING, MARBLES, FISHHOOK KNIFE AND A NICKEL!

VICTOR OF SMITH-O'DOWD BOUT WILL BE RING PEER

With Johnny Wilson Retired for Year, Result of Tomorrow's New York Match Will Decide Best Middleweight

FOR months, yea, for years, one Jefferson Smith has had an ambition. For some reason or other Jeff has been unable to get the opportunity to realize it.

Smith is to meet Mike O'Dowd in the Madison Square Garden, N. Y. C., fifteen rounds to a judge's decision. There hardly is any doubt that the winner will be upheld by critics and fans alike as the topnotcher of the 158-pound crop, despite the fact that another holds the championship for that division.

Johnny Wilson must be recognized as the titleholder of the middleweights, because he was given a referee's decision over Mike O'Dowd at a time when the latter was champion.

Wilson, because of an ailment to one of his ears, will be unable to box for a year, it is said, and until such time that he is able to defend his diadem it is a foregone conclusion that the winner of the O'Dowd-Smith match, tomorrow night will be the ruling middleweight of the world.

Louis Bogash, by gosh, looks very, very good. The Bridgeport welterweight showed in less than three rounds that he is a dangerous contender for Jack Britton's title.

Jack Russo went along nicely for four rounds and appeared to be an easy winner over K. O. Billy Angelo when the latter threw a right hander ker-plunk on the New Orleans lad's chin in the fifth round.

Willie Ryan, a tough Jerseyman, over the latter threw a right hander, he got up at the count of nine and the referee stopped the bout. Ryan was bleeding profusely from a cut on his left ear and seemed to be in no shape to continue.

Johnny Griffin is the latest acquisition to Willie Britton's stable. Griffin is a negro featherweight with a stiff left jab and looks like a promising punching prospect.

FOOTBALL RESULTS ARE TRUE TO FORM

Sweeping Victory of Union A. A. Over Shenandoah Was Only Surprise on Schedule

Old Man Dope ran true to form on the independent football field Saturday and Sunday. This, of course, is general speaking, for there may be some specific incidents where the result, as far as points are concerned, was a surprise, but on the whole, things happened as expected.

In general team work, Frankford excelled, for they placed the same eleven on the field that has been playing all year, while the burg had a half dozen new faces in the game.

Shenandoah dropped its second straight, 10-0, to Union A. A. of Philadelphia, over Shenandoah. The All-Americans simply ran roughshod over the Shenandoah team.

Frankford continued its winning streak and added Wheeling to its list of victories, 10 to 0. Dave Bristol is of the opinion that Wheeling has a claim to the city championship, as the upstart also defeated Vincola on a recent day.

Germentown Scholastic was scheduled with Olney but the latter failed to show up and a big crowd was disappointed. Germentown has been particularly unfortunate in scheduling games lately with a late start and another game was canceled several weeks ago.

Scraps About Scrappers Bryan Dawney, a contender for the middleweight crown, will meet Augie Ratter at the Olympia next Monday night. Dawney is managed by Jimmy Dunn.

Low Tandler, Kid Williams, Harry Kid Brown, Joe Tipton and Danny Kramer, all on one side of a boxing program, in the dream of a matchmaker, and it may come true. Such a card would prove a tremendous attraction.

Tommy Walsh threatens the Wisconsin boxing commission with a legal action, Joe Walling's character as a boxer, is injured. Walsh claims, by the commission's action in withholding his purse for his recent bout with Lew Tandler.

Mickey Shannon, a Pittsburgh light heavyweight, is anxious to come here for bouts. His most recent contest, contested in a great battle against Harry Greb.

COACH IS BIG PART OF ELEVEN'S SUCCESS

Houghton at Harvard, Dobie at Cornell and O'Neil at Columbia Prove That Good Tutor Is Necessary for Victorious Grid Team

Signals Crossed The halfback to his tailor went to get a new fall dyke, a Scottish shawl, an English serge, or anything you like.

Alas, the tailor did not see within the halfback's eye The far-away and dreamy look, as he began to cry.

For, as a whirlwind leaps to life, or some tornado swoops Across the vale, with mighty roar and sundry shrieks and leaps, The halfback bent his half-like neck, and, clapping for the door, Caved in four of the tailor's ribs and stamped him on the floor.

AND now it's Callahan vs. Callahan in the next big football drama of the impending week. The Coach and the Team AFTER all, isn't the football coach a bigger part of his team's success than many now believe he is?

AND now it's Callahan vs. Callahan in the next big football drama of the impending week. The Coach and the Team AFTER all, isn't the football coach a bigger part of his team's success than many now believe he is?

AND now it's Callahan vs. Callahan in the next big football drama of the impending week. The Coach and the Team AFTER all, isn't the football coach a bigger part of his team's success than many now believe he is?

AND now it's Callahan vs. Callahan in the next big football drama of the impending week. The Coach and the Team AFTER all, isn't the football coach a bigger part of his team's success than many now believe he is?

AND now it's Callahan vs. Callahan in the next big football drama of the impending week. The Coach and the Team AFTER all, isn't the football coach a bigger part of his team's success than many now believe he is?

AND now it's Callahan vs. Callahan in the next big football drama of the impending week. The Coach and the Team AFTER all, isn't the football coach a bigger part of his team's success than many now believe he is?

AND now it's Callahan vs. Callahan in the next big football drama of the impending week. The Coach and the Team AFTER all, isn't the football coach a bigger part of his team's success than many now believe he is?

DEMPEY FIGHT NEAR NEW YORK

Special Arena to Be Constructed for Accommodation of 100,000 Spectators

New York, Nov. 8.—The world's heavyweight championship boxing bout between Jack Dempsey, titleholder, and Georges Carpentier, his French rival, will be held close to the city, in a large open-air arena which will be specially erected for the occasion in the early summer.

Definite information on this point came yesterday from Charles H. Cochran, the British boxing promoter, who, with his American theatrical partner, William A. Brady, and Tex Rickard, leading American boxing promoter, are undertaking to manage the bout, for which a purse of $500,000 has been guaranteed to the principals.

Promoter Cochran would not admit that the plan now under consideration provided for the bout being held within the confines of New York city, but he did say that the match would be held within a short distance of the city. The arena has not yet definitely been determined, but a significant reference by Cochran to the early summer is taken to indicate that Independence Day is the likely date for the bout.

DARTMOUTH PREPARES FOR PENN CONTEST

Entire Team With Exception of Captain Jim Robertson in Fine Shape

PHILA. Jack O'Brien 8, 12, Cor. 15th & Chestnut—Spruce 10-40

KEEP FIT Exercise at Herrmann's Physical Training Institute B. F. Keith's Theatre Bldg.

OLYMPIA Monday Evening, November 8 Kid Wolf vs. Joe Wallace

INTERNATIONAL POLO IN ENGLAND

New York, Nov. 8.—The international polo match between America and England will be held in England, June 18, 22 and 25.

THESE THEATRES EXHIBIT THE FINEST PHOTOPLAY PRODUCTIONS IN PHILADELPHIA

- AVENUE Formerly West Allegheny... THE RIGHT OF WAY
BELMONT 52D ABOVE MARKET... LES MISERABLES
CEDAR 60TH AND CEDAR AVENUE... LADY ROSE'S DAUGHTER
COLISEUM MARKET BETWEEN 50TH AND 60TH... THE VILLAGE SLEUTH
JUMBO FRONT ST. & GIRARD AVE... MAN AND HIS WOMAN
AURORA 2182 GERMENTOWN AVE... GUILTY OF LOVE
BLUEBIRD BROAD STREET AND... CIVILIAN CLOTHES
CENTURY Erie Ave. and 9th St... DRAG HARLAN
FAIRMOUNT 26th & Girard Ave... THE LOVE EXPERT
FRANKFORD 4715 FRANKFORD AVE... DARLING MINE
JEFFERSON 29th & Dauphin Sts... THE FAMILY HONOR

Visit Our Men's Clothing Department—Fourth Floor Men's 50c Lisle Half Hose 35c 3 Pairs for $1.00 Hirsch's 925-27 MARKET ST. Silk Neckwear Reduced! Regular $1.50 & $2.00 Grades 85c FOR MEN SHIRTS! Sale!! 1000 of Them— A Sale That Establishes a Record for Value-Giving $1.49 3 for $4.00 or, each— Men's $3.50 Ribbed Union Suits, at $2.50 Hirsch's, 925-927 Market St.